It Makes Weak Women Strong.
I suffered from female weakness for five months," writes Miss Belle Hedrick of Nye, Putnam Co., W. Va. "I was treated by a good physician but he did me no good. I saw Dr. K. P. Felt's 'Favorite Prescription' for advice, which I received, telling me to take his 'FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION.' When I had used the medicine a month my health was almost restored. It has continued to improve until now I can work almost all kinds of house work. I had scarcely any appetite, but it is all right now. I have gained several pounds in weight. I would advise all who suffer from chronic disease to write to Dr. Felt."

ROOSEVELT'S POLICY AS TO MESSAGES

He Will Handle the Themes in His Own Manner.

LEAVING DETAILS TO DEPARTMENTS

The President Proposes to Perform the Work Along Some Original Lines for the Next Congress.

Washington, Oct. 26.—All members were present at the meeting of the cabinet on Friday. The president discussed the various features of his forthcoming message to congress and also the appointments that are to be made within a short time.

The consultation between the president and cabinet was especially full, owing to the determination which Mr. Roosevelt has reached to write all his own messages to congress and to do it on original lines.

Heretofore the secretary of state has written that portion covering the foreign relations and each other cabinet officer has contributed a chapter on his respective department. The president has determined to do away with this detailed statement of affairs of each department. He will devote his message only to such topics as he chooses to lay particularly before the attention of congress, leaving the reports of the cabinet officers to acquaint congress with the details of his administration.

"At the time the Colon hauled down her colors, we were about four miles from her. As Capt. Cook went over the side for his trip to the Colon, he asked:

"What are the terms of surrender?" "Unconditional," I said. "An hour later the New York came up. We made signals, which he took half an hour in answering. I said, 'It is a glorious day for our country. After Cook returned, I boarded the New York to make my report. The captain of the New York said: 'Your work is not yet over. A Spanish battleship was seen on the coast. The admiral wants to see you.' I went in and saw him. He told me to take the Oregon and go eastward. I ordered the Texas. He thought Sampson's order to uncouple the engines a wise one. He denied that he referred to Sampson as captain, but always called him admiral.
