Was Won by Wool Combers Versus Professors.

On Saturday afternoon, after a hard score of 6 to 0. The score does not by any means tell the story of the game. The stalwart youths from the mill e were too heavy for their friends of the academy. At no time in the game was the scouring mill's goal in danger. The bali was continually in the acad-emy's territory, except immediately after a kick.

In the last half, the scouring mill kicked off to the academy. The ball wavered back and forth in the academy's territory. Near the middle of the balf, a dispute arose over an unusual play. The academy had held for downs. There was a mistake in signals and the ball was passed back with no one there to catch it. It rolled to within a few feet of the academy's goal and was finally picked up by Lewis of the academy. He turned to get away, but was tackled and forced back behind his own goal line. The scouring mill claimed a safety, but the referee declared a touchback and the oval was kicked out from the twenty-five yard line. The half ended with the ball in the scademy's territory. The lineup: Scouring mill-L. Hicks, center: C.
