IN PENDLETON SOCIETY
PROSPECTS ARE THAT IT WILL HAVE MANY FUNCTIONS. October, the Beginning Month, Was the Occasion for a Number of Events—What Happened During the Past Week in Pendleton. Judging from the manner in which Pendleton society people have begun the season, the fall and winter of 1901-2 will be exceedingly gay. There have been many events during the month that has elapsed since the season opened, and the indications are that the week will be filled with parties and smaller gatherings. The party given by Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Halley and Miss Bacon in La Dow Music Hall was understood to be the first of a series that will be given during the season. On next Thursday evening at the same hall, Mrs. C. J. Smith and Mrs. W. H. Fowler will entertain their friends, invitations having been out several days. It is looked forward to with pleasure. The young folks dancing club will give a number of parties, and several affairs are planned but not yet announced.

A Hallowe'en Dinner Party. Mrs. T. C. Taylor gave a Hallowe'en dinner party at her home on College street, at 6:30 o'clock Thursday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson and Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Vincent. The decorations were very artistic and appropriate. The table-board was decorated with jack-o'-lanterns, while the table was decorated with yellow pumpkins filled with erysanthemums.

Progressive Hearts Afternoon. Mesdames Charles J. Smith and W. J. Fowler entertained a number of their friends Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 to 5, at progressive hearts, at the home of Mrs. Smith, on Lewis street. The house was tastefully decorated with flowers and palms, and refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Celebrated Hallowe'en. At the home of Colonel and Mrs. William Parsons on East Court street, Miss Ethel Parsons and Miss Clara Forter gave a Hallowe'en evening to a number of their friends, only students at the Pendleton Academy being present. They were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. William House. Fortunes were told by Miss Fanchon Horie and Miss Del Beagle, and the evening was pleasantly enjoyed by Gay Campbell, Fanchon Horie, Myrtle Hawks, Jim Hill, Joe Kennedy, George Hill, Lucy Campbell, Alice Shaber, George Downie, Roy Penland, Margaret Campbell, Della Beagle, Ernest Ruppel, Marnie Jones, Dr. William House, J. E. Lathrop.

Protection's Dance. The dance given by Protection Engine Company No. 1, in the La Dow Music Hall Thursday night, was a success both socially and financially and the company wish to thank their friends for the interest shown in their effort to raise money to purchase suits and other paraphernalia for the members. The dancing began at 8:30 and continued till 12. There were about 250 spectators and dancers and from the proceeds the company netted $35 after all the expenses were paid. Kirkham's orchestra furnished the music and Frank Wansley and Arthur Clifton were the floor managers. Prizes of $2.50 were awarded to each Mrs. John Cleary and Ed Dupuis, for the best sustained characters as lady and gentleman. Mrs. Cleary wore a costume made of East Oregonians, while Mr. Dupuis was dressed to represent a Zulu. Joe Eli and Rob Ritter were the judges.

PERSONAL MENTION
W. C. Stewart is at the Golden Rule from Walla Walla. J. Swart of Bingham Springs, is at the Hotel Pendleton. J. E. Montgomery and wife, of Helix, were guests of the Golden Rule last night. Mrs. Otto Boettcher and son came home on Friday from a visit with relatives in Chicago. T. J. Kirk, a prominent business man of Athena, was registered at the Golden Rule Hotel last night. Jacob Betz, the well known brewer, and Fred Lash, of Walla Walla, are registered at the St. George Hotel. County Clerk Chamberlain issued a marriage license today to Miss Mary E. Tweedy and James H. Walker, both of this county. J. Lacy, who has been in the employ of the O. R. & N. Co. as brakeman, running out of this city, has resigned and gone to Portland. A. G. Buholtz, of the Nye section, was in Pendleton today. He stated that late rains had started up the grass and the ranges were getting in excellent shape in consequence. E. Steaver, 2 prominent hotel man of Pomeroy, Wash., was in the city this morning on his way to Hot Springs, in the hopes of getting relief from rheumatism. Chester Fee, who was operated on at the New Walla Walla Hospital on Thursday for appendicitis, was visited by Dr. W. G. Cole, the operating surgeon on Friday, and found to be doing nicely. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mumford returned this morning from a trip to the Wallowa Valley, where they visited their son, C. W. Mumford, who is in the hardware and furniture business at Wallowa. Salem Statesman: Mrs. F. W. Steusloff arrived home from Pendleton last night, having stopped on at that place en route home from an extensive country trip, to visit for a few days with relatives. J. W. Maloney has begun the performance of his duties as assistant cashier of the Pendleton Savings Bank. He has W. H. Fowler as a deputy in the county recorder's office to substitute for his labor. Dr. Eliab Myers, founder of the Myers College of Embalming, of Springfield, O., is in the city visiting his niece, Mrs. Hunziker. Mr. Myers is traveling over the country teaching embalming and expects to open a school in Portland next week. Charles Perkins was in town today from the Despain Gulch section. He says farmers in his neighborhood are nearly all through seeding; that in most instances the wheat is up and growing finely, the stand being excellent in all cases. The early rains in September enabled the farmers in this particular neighborhood to seed the grain early and the late rains came just in time to afford plenty of moisture.

PENDLETON TEACHERS' MEETING
At the High School Building this Afternoon—Liberal Attendance. At the high school building this afternoon, the Pendleton division of the county teachers' institutes was in session, for the second time. The last meeting was held a month ago, and at that time plans were formed for a permanent organization. Committees were appointed and matters gotten into shape for the work of the winter. President E. B. Conklin arranged for the meeting, and quite a number of teachers were present from the districts around Pendleton. The subject for the day was: "What Nature Study is and what it is Not"—Preparatory, English and Classics.

Parasites Cause All Hair Troubles.
Nine-tenths of the diseases of the scalp and hair are caused by parasite germs. The importance of this discovery by Professor Unna, of the Charity Hospital, Hamburg, Germany, can not be over-estimated. It explains why ordinary hair preparations, even of the most expensive character, fail to cure dandruff, because they do not, and they cannot kill the dandruff germ. The only hair preparation in the world that positively destroys the dandruff parasites that burrow up the scalp into scales called scurf or dandruff, is Newbro's Herpicide. In addition to Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing, making the hair glossy and soft as silk.

Pioneers at Echo.
The Pioneers of the Pacific of Echo, had a rousing time at their meeting in the Odd Fellows' hall Friday night at which time fifteen new members were initiated into the mysterious of the order. Grand Marshal W. P. Rihorn and the examining physician, Dr. J. E. Miller, of Pendleton, were there and did the examining and initiatory work. After the work, a supper was served and a good social time was had for a few hours. Mr. Rihorn and Dr. Miller returned this morning.

SOME ATHLETIC NOTES
FOOTBALL GAME IN PENDLETON ON NOV. 13.
Pendleton Academy Against University of Oregon—Whitman Temporarily Loses Two Best Players by Accidents. J. H. Rowland, assistant manager of the athletes at the University of Oregon, was here on Friday arranging with Manager Pond of the Academy, for a football game here between the Academy and the University of Oregon on Nov. 13. This will be a rather big game for the Academy, but they will handle the husky collegians as best they can. They weigh, stripped, an average of 157, while the Academy averages about 145. It will be a game to attract a big crowd. The University of Oregon men have made a record as the best on the north coast during the past year, and should be worth so big, while the nerve of the local academy in tackling such a big aggregation should not go unnoticed. Last year the University of Oregon defeated the eleven of Berkeley University, and tied the Multnomahs 9 to 9. It is learned that Zercher, the big 270-pound left guard of the Whitman College first team, broke his leg while engaged in practice, and that Lasater, the crack half back, has the appendicitis, and that, therefore, neither one can play in the game with the University of Oregon on the 13th of November. The loss will tell against the Oregonians. Coach Allen is doing his best with the remaining members of the team. Whitman meets the University of Oregon, on Nov. 12, in Walla Walla.
