BAER & DALEY

One Price Clothiers, Furnishers and Hatters, Pendleton.

Inform me that there was 'not even the most distant relationship between them.' Three minutes' acquaintance rendered the information superfluous.

'The dinner was good. The club caterer and chef knew their business. For three mortal hours I sat, reflecting that deafness is not always with- out its compensations, and wondering what the mighty shades of Horace Greeley, the first James Gordon Bennett, Henry J. Raymond and Charles A. Dana would think, if they could look in upon such an aggregation of dullards posing as representatives of New York journalism...

'In spite of some pleasant features and incidents, the whole affair in retrospect recalls Colonel Dick Winter's comment on a performance of Hamlet in a Nashville theater. As he stumbled on in search of a nerve-bracer at the end of the first act, some one met him and asked: 'Colonel Dick, how is the play?' 'Huh! Huh!' he chuckled, 'It is so d-d ex-ecrably stupid, that it really is exceeding-ly interesting and amusing.'

'If the eighty or a hundred gentlemen I saw at that dinner are representative New York newspaper men, I can easily understand why 'your great metropolitan dailies' are so widely circulated, and so popular, among laundries and butcher shops...

INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPERS.

Amrop's discussion of independent newspapers, the Kansas City Star says: The fact that so many great newspapers have become independent, is not accidental. The evolution is the result of a popular demand. It was the plan of the old party organ to suppress news unfavorable to its policies...

gion that he does not aspire to be governor of Oregon. Mr. Fulton is a distinguished citizen, able and representative of the progressive elements. He occupies the unique position of standing between Astoria and Portland influences, with the hearty support of each.

MARION COUNTY'S FINANCES.

Another Oregon county sends out a report of good financing—Marion—with her affairs in condition such as warrants her officials to boast excellent management. The Salem Journal claims that Marion now leads the state with a clean balance sheet and assets to the credit of the county government.

A TORRENT OF WORDS.

Colonel Pat Donan attended a banquet given by the New York Press Club the other night and then wrote this screed to the Journalist. 'But of all the god-for-aikenly stupid things I ever saw or heard, or imagined, the stupidest, by a million hebdomadous moral leagues, was that New York Press Club feed last Saturday night. Besides it a convocation of Methodist or Baptist parsons would have been a jolly-dog rally and a Sunday school picnic would have been a debauch of merriment.

A DEMOCRATIC LEADER.

Oregon democrats appear to look toward George E. Chamberlain of Portland as the one to lead the state ticket next year, for the governorship. Mr. Chamberlain has a record of efficient discharge of duties in whatever office he has filled.

C. W. FULTON'S POSITION.

Charles W. Fulton, state senator from Clatsop county, again tells the people that he is not a candidate for the republican nomination for the governorship. He made this public announcement several weeks ago, for the first time, in the East Oregonian, and now has told the Portland Ore-

CROKERISM AND VAN WYCK. Tammany was defeated in the hard-fought election battle ever waged in New York City. Seth Low becomes the mayor by a liberal majority of votes.

There was no democracy or republicanism in the issue, any more than there is in Philadelphia, where it is a question of overthrowing the rule of the Quay ring, that is so corrupt that, in comparison, Tammany is a company of little white angels.
