ATHENA POLITICAL TALK
PEOPLE UP THERE ARE DOING SOME FIGURING.

Mention of Several Democrats Whom Centerville Think Might Adorn the County Democratic Ticket.

Athens, Nov. 7.—Special.—Politics in Athens is just beginning to command some attention and a little discussion on the quiet. Republicans were almost equally divided on Furnishi and Lowell for governor and are giving no little attention to the federal plums that are about to be plucked, though so far, your correspondent has been unable to ascertain whether the interest manifested in merely party interest or whether some dark horse is being groomed for a federal office. Democrats in this the major democratic precinct of the county are not saying much, but evidently are "sawing wood." However, two or three have avowed publicly that they would like to put a couple of names of the democratic county ticket. The names mentioned, being W. B. Taylor for sheriff, W. D. Chamberlain for county clerk. Also the names of Charles Marsh for recorder, as it is said, would not make the democratic brethren up this way feel very good.

Future Corn Prospects.
Athens, Nov. 7.—Special.—The future for corn raising on farms tributary to Athens, was never brighter nor attracted more attention, than it does at present. The direct reason for renewed interest taken in corn as an alternate crop with wheat, is that this year's yield is better than for any seasons past. The average yield in this vicinity this fall is 25 bushels per acre, and the quality is good. Corn brings 50 cents per bushel at Athens. It is sold to the Athena Mill Co., and is shipped in carload lots to Portland and Sound markets, although much of it is being used as feed for fattening hogs. Several exceptionally good yields are reported, among them being 250 bushels from an acre on the Clark Walter place, west of Athens. Mr. Walter planted

THE WHEAT MARKET PRICES

LITTLE OFFERED BY FARMERS HEREABOUTS.
E. W. McComas Estimates That Only One-Fourth of the 1901 Crop Has Been Sold at this Time.
Although the local wheat dealers say there is a tendency toward a slight raise in the price of wheat in a few weeks, fluctuating only about one cent in that time. The market is now 4 1/2% against 46 for a short time during harvest. There has been but little offered for sale in Pendleton recently, so that the sales of last week would probably not exceed 30,000 bushels. Of the 1901 crop of the county, according to the estimate of E. W. McComas, more than three-fourths is yet in the hands of the farmers. They are reluctant to let loose at the prevailing low price and appear to believe that they will be paid more for their grain if they hold on to it for a time longer.

Portland Wheat Review.
Portland, Nov. 7.—The Commercial Review says:
The wheat market during the past week was steady and prices did not show an advance over the preceding week. Farmers are disposed to let go of their crop at the ruling price and any stiffening of prices makes them hold aloof, anticipating a large rise. Exporters are not so sure, and as the warehouses here have a surfeit and there are large lots coming down from east of the mountains daily that had been bought during the flurry in October.

The commercial editor of the Oregonian says: "The wheat market had quite a firm tone yesterday, and under the influence of firmer cables prices advanced to 55 1/2@56c for Walla Walla, with not very much offering. Holders are firm in sympathy with wheat, and some owners are asking as high as 57 1/2c, but no fixtures have been made as yet above 55c. No sales of valley wheat are reported, but the market is nominally 55@55 1/2c.

difficult drama. It is safe to predict a crowded house for Mrs. Brune and her excellent company.

Alice Archer, in "Jess of the Bar Z Ranch," at the Frazer on Monday night, has this by the Chicago American: "With every character in the play dressed in sombrero, bandana and six-shooter, even down to a Casino soubrette building up health in New Mexico, 'Jess of the Bar Z Ranch' was received at the Great Northern Theater yesterday at the Great Northern Theater with unbridled enthusiasm by two large audiences."

Hi Henry's minstrels, Tuesday night at the Frazer, had this by the Portland Telegram: "In securing Hi Henry's minstrels, Manager George L. Baker has made a ten strike. It is the best attraction the Metropolitan has offered in many months. Hi Henry has known from one end of the continent to the other as a leading high in modern minstrelsy, and the past proved his penchant for peerless performances. This season he comes to Portland with a minstrel show that will stand comparison with any other organization visiting the Pacific coast, which is saying a good deal."

$112,500 for a Prescription
The largest sum ever paid for a prescription changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in this and stock $112,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address: John J. Fulton Company, 420 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.
