CAMAS STOCKMEN PREPARE FOR WINTER.

Long Creek Short of Feed and Must Sell Down Their Bands.

Ukiah, Nov. 9.—The stockmen here have gathered nearly all their cattle off the range and put them in pastures. They will begin moving their hands towards the "straw stack country" about the first of December. If summer, if the weather should turn out to be a failure, it has been an ideal one for stockmen.

Feed is reported very scarce in the Long Creek country, and cattlemen will be compelled to drive outside, or sell down to the size of their hay stacks.

Land seems to be much sought after in Camas prairie at present. One day this week a young woman died on a tract before the United States commissioner here, and within two hours two men appeared to enter the same land.

J. O. Conrad is engaging all the able men he can find in the prairie at present to do development work at his North Fork place.

James Wasson, a well-to-do rancher of the Desolation country, has sold his ranch there and will erect two or more cottages in Ukiah to rent. All the houses in Ukiah are occupied at present, and there are calls for more, by parties who wish to get the benefits of the school during the winter.

The grammar department of the Ukiah school has a regularly organized literary and debating club, and has debating contests every Friday afternoon.

LOOK FOR COLD WINTER.

Cause Indians Think the Season Will be Severe.

"There will be a great deal of snow," said a Cayuse Indian in Walla Walla, his remarks being liberally translated. "The Indian knows. He has watched the winters long and his fathers have told him. When the cold winds in from the north and you tell

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PENDLETON WORSHIPPERS.

Memorial of William H. Marshall Presented to Church of the Redeemer.

The Rev. W. E. Potwine, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, is displaying with pride and pleasure a beautiful communion set presented to the church in honor of the memory of William H. Marshall, father of E. P. Marshall, of this city. It was given by Mr. E. P. Marshall and the late Mrs. Matilda Marshall, wife of the deceased Mr. Marshall. It is of solid silver, gold plated, and is of four pieces. Inscribed upon the four pieces are these words: "In memory of William H. Marshall, sometime communicant of this parish." Amethysts are set in the silver, and two of the pieces are cut glass cruets.

Monday evening the rector and vestry of the Church of the Redeemer will receive at the parish house friends and members of the church. It is the annual parish day, established as the anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the fine new house of worship occupied by the parish. The vestry and a number of ladies will be at the parish house during the entire evening, and hope that many will call.

Rev. John Warren hereafter will be assistant to the rector. Tomorrow he goes to Weston and comes here in the evening.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Bills for Next Week at the Frazer Opera House.

Ever since Hi Henry's first agent, J. C. Knapp, was in town last week, there have been agents of Hi Henry's organization strutting along day by day, until their press agent, C. L. Mix, and program agent, W. N. McCall, bring up the rear today. They carry a huge bundle of superb press notices of this season's show and tell big things about it. The band will take the streets at noon Tuesday. Hi Henry's big St. Bernard, weighing 200 pounds, and his new specially built automobile will be in line. Mr. Mix reports that the company is making a record at Portland this week, playing the longest run of any minstrel company ever in that city, and every seat being sold thus far.

"Joss of the Bar Z Ranch" Monday: The play is one essentially adapted to please an American audience, for it deals in a very interesting manner with the wild life of the western ranch and has for its hero one of the typical American figures, the cow-puncher of the plains, the hard rough-rider, who forced another claim to recognition in the Cuban campaign. The roles of the production are in thoroughly good hands, and the settings are accurate and artistic.—Blade, Toledo, O., Sept. 11, 1901.

The announcement of the coming of Thomas Jefferson in "Rip Van Winkle," to the Frazer on Wednesday night, has heightened public curiosity, as he comes heralded as a worthy successor of his estimable father, Joseph Jefferson. This is not the first venture for Thomas, as he has appeared in the role of "Rip Van Winkle" for the past three seasons and the able critics throughout the country speak of him in the highest manner.

HAVE SCARLET FEVER THERE PRISONERS IN JAIL WERE EXPOSED TO IT.

Others Taken to McNeill's Island—May Have the Contagion.

Walla Walla, Nov. 9.—Special.—Scarlet fever has appeared at the county jail, and a large number of persons have been exposed. Only yesterday did the disease's show itself unmistakably. During the past few days no less than twenty prisoners have been confined during the hearing of United States prisoners, in the district court, and it is thought that every one of them has been exposed. Noble McKean, a shoemaker, who is sentenced to three months' imprisonment for stealing pantaloons in this city, is the victim of the disease he having been sent from the jail to the hospital late yesterday afternoon. Dr. M. Stiles, the county physician, unhesitatingly pronounced the case scarlet fever in a severe form.

Sixteen of the men who it is thought were exposed, went to McNeill's Island Thursday evening, and they may have carried the disease with them. It is feared they have, and the officers of the prison will be notified of the physician's suspicion. Three other prisoners are here waiting to be taken away, but they will not be moved until further developments are noted in the cases at the jail.

The first death to occur from the epidemic of scarlet fever, occurred Thursday night and the funeral was held at 5 o'clock yesterday evening. Adrian Buys, aged 27 years, employed by the Pacific Express company for several years, as bookkeeper, died after an illness of less than two days, and the body was buried yesterday privately. Mr. Buys was a native of this city, being a son of the late J. G. Buys, a pioneer printer of this city. A strict quarantine was maintained on the home, where two small children are very low with the disease. Mr. Buys was married four years ago and leaves a wife and two small children.

$112,500 for a Prescription The largest sum ever paid for a prescription changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 26, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $112,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases. They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1899. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on 100 men by putting over three dozen cases on treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably. The parties being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address JOHN J.
