Mistaken for a Burglar. About 7 o'clock Sunday morning the residents in the vicinity of the corner of Alta and Garden streets were startled by the sharp report of four pistol shots in quick succession. Geo W. Smith, who was rooming with Mrs. E. Geisler, who runs a lodging house on the corner, undertoook to go to his coom in an intoxicated condition and instead of finding his room got to the window of another roomer. John Frye, and was trying to get in. The noise aroused Mr. Frye and he raised the slarm that someone was trying to enter his room for the purpose of robbery as he naturally thought. window of another roomer, John Frye, Charley Bonney, a young man living with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. with his parents, Mr. and Thomas, next door, heard the alarm and ran out with a 25-calibre revolver. against the house as if he was trying to enter at the window. Someone called to shoot and he fired, with the result that the man received one shot in the back just under the shoulder blade, the ball lodging at the skin in front. Smith fell, but a light was brought, and he was thought then only to have fallen from the effects of the liquor, so was ordered to get out A few minutes later he was picked up at the corner of Cotton wood and Alta streets by Marshal Coffman and placed in the lack-up as ing to enter at the window. Someone

Coffman and placed in the lack-up as being under the influence of drink, it not yet being known that he was shot. In the morning he complained of a poin in his side and Dr. Vincent was called in. He did not make a thor-ough examination, but prescribed for him for the pain, thinking that it was caused by cold and a slight fever The peculiar part of the affair is at Smith himself did not know that he was shot and this fact was not discovered until after 12 o'clock Sun day, when someone pulled off his coat and found blood. He was then re
