JOHNSON-ODELL—TEACHERS.

First, Tom L. Johnson, now mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, proclaimed that the corporations must pay their just share of the taxes. Then Benjamin Odell, governor of New York, said that corporations must contribute to the support of government in proportion to their holdings. Then, the Chicago school teachers took hold of the matter in that city and determined that corporations should no longer avoid paying into the public treasuries as much money as their property interests justified. And this is the beginning of a campaign that is going to enlist in its army thousands of people all over the United States.

But, it is not alone corporation officials that perjure themselves by making false tax returns. Thousands of wealthy men in every town and city in the whole country habitually swear falsely to the amount of property they own, and thus escape paying their share of the public tax. Here in Umatilla county are men who do not pay as much as they should, and, when viewed from the standpoint of the moral consideration in the abstract, swear inaccurately to the property they possess. It is true that it is partly the fault of the system, and yet it is also in part the fault of the individuals. It arises from a desire to escape paying just share of the public burden, and this they do. Hoever, it is not a novel proposition; indeed, it is familiar to all, and that is the misery of the whole matter. The conscience of the community is deadened and these things are allowed here and elsewhere.

When will be a change? When will present injustices be corrected? are questions difficult to answer. But it is true just now that the one man who promises most for the solution of the problem is Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, who already has placed millions of property upon the tax rolls that formerly paid nothing. And Governor Odell is another, and the Chicago school teachers follow with a brave front against the thieving corporations that have fattened from the favors secured through connivance of officials.

In the discussion of the problem it will be well to keep in mind one fact—Tom L. Johnson believes in the single tax, and so far as possible applies it to the solution of Cleveland's problems. He thus finds most easily the solution desired, and the people begin to see as he has seen for many years.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

Judge Hanecy, of Chicago, has sentenced Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Homer and Mr. Canfield, editors of the American, to jail, on the ground that they were guilty of contempt of court for criticising his decisions in the gas trust cases. He enunciates, in rendering his ruling, some principles that are admittedly true, anent the necessity of retaining for our American courts their authority and dignity. These principles are familiar to every school boy, and cannot be controverted. But, the question is: do these principles apply to the case in hand? The majority of people say, no. The proprietor of the Chicago American, as he sits in his office, is a citizen, and nothing more than a citizen. He is rightly accountable for his acts only as any other citizen is accountable. The mere act of alleging or opining in print or in vocal expression, that a certain judge was wrong, or even that he was guilty of being unduly influenced in his judicial rulings by bad motives, should constitute contempt no more than for an individual to do the same.

And, if citizens are to be denied the right of free speech upon all public questions, then are our boasted liberties something to be mourned as taken away, and supplied by autocratic laws enacted by judges sitting upon their benches in all their omnipotence.

If Mr. Hanecy be unjustly injured by the American's action, why should he not seek redress just as other citizens would seek it? Why should he not go before some court of competent jurisdiction, and ask that the alleged offender come forward and prove his statements true or pay the penalty for wilful falsification? Judge Hanecy with this weapon of sentences for contempt thus wielded is a power more to be feared than is the wrong he alleges was committed. He is a potent tyrant, an autocrat, a depriver of personal rights.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

The East Oregonian is in receipt of a letter from Tom L. Johnson, in answer to a telegram of congratulation sent on the occasion of the receipt of news that Mr. Johnson had won his great victory in Cleveland, Ohio, by electing the democratic ticket in Cayahoga county. In part he says:

"Many thanks for your telegram of congratulations. We have won a great victory, and it is the beginning of a movement that is bound to bring about a system of more equitable taxation, and especially to abolish the special privilege which some men enjoy of having others pay their taxes."

Mr. Johnson has written the following letter to the Cleveland Press:

Editor Cleveland Press: An equitable plan of taxation was the issue on which the election of this county was won. For six months the inequalities and injustices of the present system have been made plain. We have continually labored to bring this question home to the people, and have persisted in showing up the evils of the present administration of our taxation laws and the necessity for some statutory changes.

The victory is to be accounted for by the following facts:

We are now engaged in an assessment of real estate that but for our efforts would have remained unchanged for ten years.

Its unequal burdens were admitted by all, including the guilty board that performed most of the work and the republican committee that advertised the board's shortcomings.

The annual city board of equalization, appointed by this administration, has added nearly $20,000,000 to the tax duplicate by assessments on the municipal monopolies.

The county auditors refused to assess steam railroads by the same rule that they assessed farms and homes.

Four republican state officers, by a cowardly subterfuge, refused to put $200,000,000 of steam railroad property on the tax duplicate.

Finally, our opponents were utterly bewildered in meeting these issues. It was foolish to attempt to meet this array of arguments with evasion, silence or "let well enough alone" policies; but the greatest folly was the attempt to mislead the people by silly personalities and mud-throwing.

The result shows that the people, regardless of party, were deeply interested in the subject and is a complete indorsement of the policy of tax equalization.

In an election where a real issue is raised it is worse than folly to attempt to either obscure or evade the question.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Will Furnish, the Pendleton gold democrat who has been taken into the republican party, has been at his chances for the governorship and has created a favorable impression, and it was even talked Saturday that he had been able to harmonize enough supporters in both factions to become a possible compromise candidate.—Portland Correspondence Salem Journal.

Hon. C. W. Fulton has announced in positive terms that he will not become a candidate for the governorship. But as the governorship is not necessarily a stepping stone to congress, this does not prevent him from becoming a candidate for the senate. The fact is, Fulton is husbanding his strength for that contest and it's ten to one he will receive a vote which will be mighty complimentary to say the least.—La Grande Chronicle.

Senator C. W. Fulton's persistent refusal to allow himself to be considered a candidate for governor must be accepted as definite and conclusive. Twice recently he has declared in the most open and positive manner that under no circumstances would he become a candidate or accept the nomination if it were tendered him. This is naturally taken to mean that the object of Mr. Fulton's ambition is the seat in the U. S. Senate which Joe Simon has been sitting around in for the past three years. The gubernatorial talk has not been started by Mr. Fulton's enemies but by friends who have planned his reaching the United States senate by way of the governorship.—Dalles Chronicle.

One of the men who is considered to have a good chance of knocking down the land-office plum is Ara R. Thompson of Pendleton, a representative of Umatilla county. He is a tried and trusted friend of Senator Mitchell, and stands in the way of receiving a reward for his services in helping along the Mitchell break in the last state legislature.—La Grande Observer.

THE PIONEER.

About him spreads the desert loneliness—
Behind him lie the scenes where life began;
The Future rises like yon purple peaks,
Where sinks to rest the burnished, beckoning sun!

At dawn he presses toward yon phantom range—
(Beyond the summit, truly, Eden lies)—
At sunset finds the desert wider grown;
The dream recedes before his eager eyes!

Tomorrow scales that dizzy height to see
Before him spread his cherished land at last!
Lo! in the distance rises peak on peak,
Another range to westward yet more vast!

And then grown weary he sinks down to rest.
One more dim summit in the distance lies—
Oh, but beyond its faint and shadowy height
There breaks a dawn not seen by mortal eyes!

Chronic Ulcers Eating Sores

That Breed and Foster the Germs of Cancer—Plague Spots the Outgrowth of Diseased Blood, and a Constant Drain upon the System.

An old sore or ulcer is not only a source of great bodily discomfort and pain, but the constant care, worry and anxiety over one of these malignant festering places produces an unhealthy state of the nervous system and the patient becomes morbidly sensitive, miserable and gloomy. No one could be otherwise when haunted by the presence of an inflamed, angry-looking sore, with a continual discharge, carrying with it the life fluids, thus robbing the body of strength and vitality. An eating, lingering ulcer naturally fills the sufferer with fear while noting the daily growth of the sore, from which there is a slow but perpetual discharge of yellow or greenish watery matter, and feeling the dull, throbbing or sharp shooting pains as the poison penetrates the tender tissues and reaches the bone.

All slow-healing, stubborn sores are dangerous. The same germ-producing, cancer-tainted blood is back of every sore or ulcer, large or small, that does not promptly and permanently heal; the little blister upon the lip or tongue, the warty growth or mole upon the cheek and other parts of the body, and the almost imperceptible tumor or lump upon the breast, as often result in Cancer as the deeper and more frightful-looking ulcers. They feed upon the same morbid and destructive materials that are generated within the blood, and inflammation and destruction of tissue will continue just so long as this impure matter is carried through the circulation to these old sores and ulcers.

About a year ago I wrote the Medical Department of your company to ascertain whether or not your S. S. S. would cure Cancer, as my wife had one on her breast, which three or four of the best doctors at Creston, Iowa, advised her to have cut out or removed with a plaster. Upon receipt of your letter, I bought five bottles and she commenced to take it, and in less than eight months she was cured. I did not write you until now because I wanted to see if the cancer would come back again. There are no symptoms or signs of a return and I write in order to let others know what a wonderful medicine your S. S. S. is. My wife used just 17½ bottles, but the Cancer was cured after she had taken 12 or 14. I feel as though your S. S. S. could not be too highly recommended.
G. E. BIMEGAR, Thayer, Iowa.

Six years ago my leg from the knee to the foot was one solid sore and very offensive. I spent over $1,000 on two trips to Hot Springs. Local physicians treated me to no purpose. I had about come to the conclusion to have my leg amputated when a friend induced me to try S. S. S. I began to take your medicine, and in seven months it completely cured me. I consider S. S. S. the grandest medicine the world has ever known. My case is a witness today as to what S. S. S. will do when taken regularly. I have gained 20 pounds. I write this to show the company my appreciation of their wonderful medicine, and I am ready to write a letter at any time to any one wishing further information.
J. B. TALBERT, Winona, Miss.

Washes, salves, nor anything else applied directly to the sore can do any permanent good; neither does the use of the knife or flesh destroying plaster cure, for local causes have nothing to do with these germ-breeding plague spots. You might cut out every particle of the diseased flesh and scrape the bone, but another sore would come. The germs or poison in the blood must be destroyed, the stream of sluggish, polluted blood purified and made strong before the healing process begins and the sore or ulcer can get well. S. S. S. is the only remedy known that can and does accomplish this. It cleanses and purifies the circulation, and when new, rich blood is carried through the little veins and arteries to the sore, it brings about a healthy healing around the edges, and a permanent and thorough cure is soon effected. S. S. S. not only expels all impurities, but works a complete and radical change in the entire system by stimulating inactive organs, toning up the nerves, increasing the appetite, and aiding the digestion and assimilation of food, thus building up the weak and wasted constitution. S. S. S. is strictly and entirely a vegetable medicine, and no bad effects follow its use, and for this reason it is better than Mercury and Potash or other minerals, which not only ruin the stomach, but often produce most stubborn and offensive sores themselves.

Prompt treatment should be given a sore or ulcer, no matter how small it may be, whether external or internal, for what you think a simple sore, may, in reality, be an undeveloped Cancer. Our physicians will gladly advise all who need their services, and those who write us will receive valuable suggestions regarding the treatment of their case free of charge.
