AN artistic production, Sandcroft, the poet, was good enough, while von Winkelnstein, by Melville, was not half bad. Miss Conway, as Georgiana, was not badly done, although she should never sing. People of good musical taste don't like it. Her voice is metallic and makes one's nerves go on edge. It is a mistake to permit her to give a nightly exhibition of what she cannot do in a musical way.

The Parish Reception. On Monday evening the Church of the Redeemer received at the parish house, and many called during the two hours from 8 to 10 o'clock, to be greeted by the members of the church. The Rev. W. E. Potwine and the vestrymen, J. F. Robinson, F. B. Clifton, E. D. Boyd, J. T. Lambright, J. M. Leazer and T. G. Hailey were present, together with many of the ladies of the church, and every caller was instantly made to feel at home. The evening was exceedingly pleasant, and its success will cause the recurrence of the annual parish day to be looked forward to with pleasure by all who enjoyed this one. Light refreshments were served by the ladies, and the parish house was prettily decorated, and made to present an attractive appearance.

The Thursday Dance. The Magistri Artis Club was a successful, as usual, in giving a very pleasant dancing party on Thursday evening, the guests leaving with expressions of appreciation of the attention and care that had been given to the details of what proved to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. The club officers are: James B. Welch, president; Fred Earl, vice-president; Mark Moorhouse, secretary; Earl Bore, treasurer; Chester Foster, floor manager. They will give a series of parties during the winter, and if those to come are as pleasant as that of Thursday evening, the club will contribute in no small degree to the season's pleasures.

Mrs. E. P. Marshall entertained a few friends at a dinner party in the dining room of Hotel Pendleton Wednesday evening. The table was set for ten and beautifully decorated with red carnations and similar Miss Marshall was the guest of honor.

Dance of the Pioneers. Among the pleasant social events of the season may be classed the dance given at the Labow hall last night by the Pioneers. There were about 150 dancers and spectators present and they are very flattering in their praise of the way the program was carried out. The dancing started at about 9:15 and continued until nearly 1 in the morning, when the merry crowd left for their respective homes. The dance was a success both financially and socially. The music was furnished by Kirkman's orchestra and was excellent. Lee D. Drake was floor manager and Andrew Anderson, Dallas O'Hara, Ed Spencer, Mrs. Wickersham and M. S. Tilly Carlson were the reception committee.

Walla Walla Charity Ball. Walla Walla, Nov. 16.—Special.—The charity ball given last night by the Ladies Relief Society, was a brilliant affair and very successful in every particular. The weather was stormy and no doubt many were prevented from attending on that account, but a large attendance was reported. Tickets sold for $.50 each and a neat sum was netted. Treats were organized and served in many years ago, and every fall a ball is given to raise funds for the work. No other demands are made on the public.

W. H. PILKINGTON FOOLED WITH WORTHLESS PAPER. But Did Not Fool Lee Teutsch, Who Detected the Fraud—The Man Arrested.

A very bungling attempt was made yesterday evening to pass a bogus check for $18 on Lee Teutsch, manager of the Clearer Bros. dry goods store, by a man who gave his name as W. H. Pilkington. In the afternoon Pilkington entered the Pendleton Savings Bank, on which the check had been drawn, and ordered the payment on a check drawn by the Allen Bros. of Huron station, in favor of E. Allen for $15, stopped, claiming that it had been lost. Then he waited until the bank was closed and went to Mr. Teutsch with the same check, saying that it had been turned over to him by E. Allen to be cashed and that the bank being closed, he wanted Mr. Teutsch to cash it, saying that he would pay him 75 cents borrowed of him a few days ago, claiming at that time that he had been hired by the Allen Bros. to cut wood for them and he did not have money enough to take him there.

After looking at the check Mr. Teutsch discovered that it was not dated, and told Pilkington that he would take it over to the bank and see if it was all right. At the bank it was pronounced a forgery. Mr. Teutsch was then going to turn him over to the officers, but he persisted that it was genuine and did not want to be locked up. Then Mr. Teutsch wired Allen Bros., and they sent back word that the check was a forgery and for the man to be arrested. During the interval between the time of the telegram was sent and getting an answer, Pilkington was very nervous and made all kinds of excuses to get away, but was unsuccessful.

When the telegram arrived announcing the check a forgery, he was turned over to the officers and placed in the county jail to await developments.

EVENTS OCCURRING DURING PAST SEVEN DAYS

Parish Reception Began the Week—Young Folks' Dancing Party.

People who attend theatres and who dance have had an abundance of events to absorb their time during the past week. The Frazer opera house has offered four attractions, the young folks' dancing club, named the "Magistri Artis," gave a dance on Thursday night and the rector and vestry of the Church of the Redeemer received on Monday night. Besides these, a number of affairs including dinner parties have been given. Although not exactly a social function, the Old Maids' Convention, set for next Friday night at the Frazer, will attract many on that evening, and it is expected that the theatre will be crowded.

REST ROOM INAUGURATED

ALLA WALLA LADIES PROVIDE PLEASANT PLACE.

Resort Where People From Outside of town May Rest While There. A "rest room" the first of the kind in this city, was opened today in the Howard block by the ladies of the city, headed by Mrs. Austin Rice. A room has been neatly fitted up and furnished with conveniences for the use of country women when in the city. The innovation has received hearty commendation from all sources. All the privileges are free.

Details of the Rest Room.

A "rest room," all that the word implies, is to be established in this city. The project is being carried out by the Master's circle of King's Daughters of the First Congregational church, and although not original, it is new in Walla Walla, says the Union.

The room is for the use of women who reside out of town, but who come to the city to trade and do shopping. Here they may rest and articles for the toilet will be provided. It is intended to have the room open on Mondays and Saturdays of each week.

Quarters have been secured in the Howard building in East Main street, between First and Second streets and the place will be open for the first time tomorrow. Furniture and other comfort necessities have been donated but no charge is made for use of the rest room, the promoters will be glad of assistance.

A number of towns in the farming districts already have "rest rooms" and they are meeting with great success. Tired mothers may go there to rest after a fatiguing day in the streets, and others can use the quarters as a place in which to meet a friend. It will be a shelter from the cold and a place to arrange the toilet.

$112,500 for a Prescription. The largest sum ever paid for a prescription changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in cash and stock $112,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on their list by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address JOHN J.
