R. T. MURDOCK WAS KILLED
THROWN FROM HIS WAGON
AT WENATCHEE, WASH
He Was a Saw Mill Man at Meacham, Umatilla County.
Robert J. Murdock, who was a saw mill man at Meacham until he left there three years ago, and went to Wenatchee, Wash., was thrown from his wagon and instantly killed Monday evening. He had been in town a portion of the day and started for home about five miles south of town. There is a mystery surrounding the death of Mr. Murdock and it will probably never be solved. His team was away and stopped about 200 yards from where Mr. Murdock was found. The horses were a fiery pair, and when found one was down with one leg over the wagon tongue. The lines were wrapped around the hub of the wheel and one was broken. Considerable blood was found in the wagon box, some of which had leaked through and was visible on the tongue and doubtless. A reasonable supposition is that he had suffered from a severe hemorrhage and growing very weak, was thrown from the spring seat when the team became frightened. After going to Wenatchee he built the Wenatchee flour mill. Subsequently he sold out to J. W. Turner, an old-time resident of that valley. Mr. Murdock also purchased a tract of land from Mr. Turner, and was residing on the farm south of town at the time of his death.

With the addition of this wonderful weapon our army will be as far ahead of the other armies of the world as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is ahead of any other stomach remedy. For over fifty years it has been the standard remedy of the American people. It will surely cure you. Beware of counterfeits when buying. The genuine must have on the wrapper the Stamp over the neck of the bottle.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.
The Most Widely Read Newspaper in America.
Time has demonstrated that the Thrice-a-Week World stands alone in its class. Other papers have imitated its form but not its success. This is because it tells all the new all the time and tells it impartially, whether that news be political or otherwise. It is in fact almost a daily at the price of a weekly and you cannot afford to be without it.
Republican and democrat alike can read the Thrice-a-Week World with absolute confidence in its truth.
In addition to news it publishes first-class serial stories and other features suited to the home and fireside.
The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $3.00 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the weekly East Oregonian together for $2.25.
