MRS. D. MCARTY INJURED

THROWN FROM WAGON

DROGGED ON GROUND. For a Time She Was Thought to Be Fatally Hurt.

Word reached this city today of the serious injury of Mrs. Dave McCarty, of Butter Creek, who was hurt in a runaway accident. She, with her husband, was on the way home from Heppner last Saturday, when the team became frightened and ran away throwing them out of the buggy. He escaped without much injury, but Mrs. McCarty was not so fortunate. Her clothes caught on the rig and she was dragged for some distance, with the result that one arm was broken and she bruised very badly about the head and shoulders. At first it was thought that she could not recover, but the last report was that she was better and now out of danger.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD.

"Devil's Auction" Was Conscientiously Produced—Old Maids' Convention Friday Night—"King of the Opium Ring" on Thursday Night. Tuesday night at the Frazier, Chas. H. Yale's "Devil's Auction" was given the very best presentation possible upon the stage of that house. Persons seeing the piece on larger stages in the city, know that it is capable of more scenic effects than were given here, and that it is necessary to cut out many features when producing it upon a stage of this size. But it is just to say of the Yale management that it was a conscientious attempt to keep promises, and he would be unreasonable, indeed, who would complain at the Tuesday night presentation. "Janet, the Milkmaid," a character taken by Miss Victoria Walters, was the bright particular star of the performance, although the cast as a whole was quite satisfactory. Some of the ladies taking male characters had poor voices, but the costuming was excellent, and the scenic effects were good.

The specialties were first-class. The turn of Fox and Foxie was one of the best ever seen here.

The Old Maids.

On Friday night comes the Old Maids' Convention. The preparations are complete and the last rehearsal will be held tonight. The costuming of the ladies is something great, and will make the stage setting effective. Some idea of them may be obtained from the photos that have been placed in several show windows, and any one looking at them will realize that considerable effort has been expended by the ladies who have the affair to manage.

"King of the Opium Ring."

On Thursday night comes the "King of the Opium Ring," a production that abounds in sensation and comedy. It has Chinese characters that are said to be very funny. Seats are now on sale at Frazier's.

LAWMAKERS BROKE LAWS

WALLA WALLA COUNCILMAN PLEADED GUILTY TO CHARGE.

He Sold Liquor on Sunday, Contrary to Law.

Walla Walla, Nov. 20.—Special.—Albert Niebergall, a member of the city council, and John Bachtold, both proprietors of saloons on Main street, yesterday afternoon pleaded guilty to having kept their places open on Sunday, the 19th inst., and each was fined $20, which was paid. Six others were charged with the same offense, but only the two cases came up yesterday afternoon. The other cases will come up during the week.

The plea of guilty, as entered in these cases caused a small sensation in the city, as it had been announced that a bitter fight would be made against the prosecution. Members of the city council had announced that a movement would be made at once upon conviction to revoke the license of offenders, and to that way force a wholesome regard for city laws while the state prosecutions would bring fines to those convicted. The state had strong evidence, and it was determined by the two men that a plea of guilty would be the wisest way out of it. In some of the cases there is not as strong evidence as in those disposed of and acquittal may result when the cases are tried.

License to Be Revoked.

Walla Walla, Nov. 20.—Special.—Albert Niebergall, a member of the city council, and John Bachtold have been cited to appear Thursday evening, Nov. 21, to show cause why their licenses should not be revoked. The two met, pleaded guilty in justice court, and on that plea the council is about to take action.

HE WILL NOT BE HANGED

TOY TOY'S NECK HAS BEEN SAVED BY HIS LAWYERS.

Read Guilty to Manslaughter—George Must Be Tried. When Judge Bellinger ruled that Toy Toy could plead guilty to the charge of manslaughter, he settled the question as to whether the Indian would be hanged for the killing of Annie Edan. This arrangement was effected by Toy Toy's counsel, Colonel Parsons and Colonel Raley. But Columbia George must stand trial for murder in the first degree, the case coming on in the federal court in Portland tomorrow. The same lawyers will defend this case as served Toy Toy. They went down on Thursday night's train, together with the witnesses.

A CALIFORNIA TRAGEDY

PROMINENT RANCHER, HIS WIFE AND BABY

Found Murdered—Bodies Horribly Mutilated Near Downey.

Los Angeles, Nov. 20.—The bodies of Wilcox, a prominent rancher, his wife and baby, were found at their ranch near Downey, yesterday, horribly mutilated, and it is believed they were murdered, and it is believed a struggle. The neighbors suspect a man seen in that locality on Sunday.

Swell Wedding in Texas.

This is how a Texas reporter wrote up a swell wedding: The bride particularly evinced unmistakable talent. She trembled with all the technical accuracy of an expert leaf and the emotional intensity of a startled fawn. Her trembling, indeed, was irrepressible. It all cast down her eyes with something of amateurish pawkiness the fact is easily attributed to her inexperience—this being her first wedding—rather than to an essentially defective method. She was fairly well mounted. The bridegroom rose from his knees too soon and had to be knocked down by the preacher, but otherwise the affair was an affair. Not a bottle was broken, sixshooter pulled or deck of cards taken from an overcoat pocket during the ceremony.
