HONOR OF THE DEAD

ELKS' MEMORIAL SERVICE
WILL BE SUNDAY, 4 P. M.

Mrs. Walter Reed, of Portland, is to Sing Three Solos.

Instead of the Elks' memorial exercises, beginning tomorrow, Sunday, at 2:30, as announced in the East Oregonian yesterday, they will begin at 4 p. m. The members of the lodge will meet at their lodge rooms at 3, and from there march to Frazer's Opera House, where the exercises are to be held.

The committee of arrangements desire that the public understand the meeting to be for everyone, and they invite the people of Pendleton and Umatilla county to assemble at the Frazer Opera House at 4 o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, and join with the Pendleton lodge of Elks in a service in memory of the Elks who have departed this life.

Also it is desired that the presence of Mrs. Walter Reed, Portland's sweetest singer, and, perhaps, the best vocalist ever living in Oregon, be emphasized as something that will make the services especially interesting and edifying. Mrs. Reed is to sing three solos, and this alone will make the occasion auspicious.

Elks' Memorial Day.

All members of Pendleton Lodge, No. 288, B. P. O. E., as well as all visiting Elks, are requested to meet at La Dow Lodge Room on Sunday, December 1st, at 3 o'clock p. m., to attend in a body the annual memorial services in the Frazer Opera House.
By order of the Exalted Ruler, L. W. HELD,
Secretary.

NO SUSPICION ATTACHES

C. F. WHITE HAS NO KNOW-LEDGE OF LETTER WRITER.

Anonymous Epistles Came From Someone Else, Says He.

C. F. White, the owner of postoffice box 287, was seen this afternoon and asked what he knew about the anonymous letter writing and how it happened that the recipients of some of the letters were referred to his postoffice box. Mr. White said:

"I positively know nothing about who the author of the letters is, and it was a surprise to me when I read in the East Oregonian that people had been referred to my box. I only have one explanation for it, and that is, that to throw suspicion off themselves the writers have selected a box at random and happened to hit mine.
That is the only explanation I have to make."

Since Mr. White and wife have been suspected, several people who know them have been interviewed as to their standing in the community and all say they are regarded as peaceable and law-abiding citizens and there is no ground to connect them with the letter writing which has caused such a stir in Pendleton.

THE LATCH STRING IS OUT

CHARLESTON EXPOSITION
WILL OPEN NEXT WEEK.

Advance Guard of Visitors Have Already Put in Appearance.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 30.—Charleston has hung the latch-string on the outside and otherwise made ready to welcome the host of visitors to the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition. The opening day finds the big show nearer completion than is usually the case with enterprises of the kind. A week more, so the management promises, and the finishing touches will have been put to buildings and grounds. The advance guard of visitors is already putting in an appearance in anticipation of the opening next Monday. The official opening, which will be conducted with pageantry and oratory, will be preceded by impressive religious exercises tomorrow.

The religious services, unique among the expositions held in this country so far, will be on an ambitious scale. The services will consist of an elaborate program of sacred music under the direction of Mme.
Barbot, of Charleston, who has organized a special chorus of 200 voices for the occasion. They will be accompanied by the grand organ, reinforced by the First Artillery Band. Bishop Capers, of the Episcopal church, will preside at the services and deliver the opening prayer. Bishop Duncan, of the Methodist Episcopal church, will make an address suitable to the occasion, and Mgr. Quigley of the Catholic church will represent Bishop Northrup of that denomination and deliver the benediction.

REVOLT AGAINST THE

RULERS OF SERBIA.

Four Thousand Eight Hundred Are in Arms and Demand Expulsion of Queen Draga From the Court—Anti Dynastic Feeling Runs High—King and Wife Must Have Escort of Cavalry to Protect Them.

Belgrade, via Semline, Nov. 30.—An insurrection is in progress in the southern province of Serbia. Forty-eight hundred are in arms, including many officers. They demand the removal of Queen Draga and her relatives from court. The anti-dynastic feeling in Belgrade is so strong the king and queen venture outside the palace only with cavalry escort.

PENDLETON PEOPLE SIGN
CHINESE EXCLUSION PETITION

Over One Hundred Names Secured in Two Hours This Morning.

The following petition is being circulated in Pendleton for signatures to be presented to the senate and house of representatives, praying them to re-enact the Geary Act for the exclusion of Chinese from the United States:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States: The undersigned citizens of the United States residing in the states and territories most vitally interested in the question of Chinese immigration, respectfully represent:

"That serious dangers threaten the industrial, economic and moral future of our people should the Geary Act for the exclusion of Chinese be allowed to expire by limitation without reenactment.

"That, if the Chinese be admitted to the Pacific coast states of America, they will assuredly in time be occupied by Chinese to the exclusion of American citizens.

"That the standard of living will be lowered and degraded by the competition of coolies.

"That the pauper labor of the Chinese will deprive American workmen of an opportunity to earn their living.

"In view of these facts we earnestly petition your Honorable Body to re-enact the Geary Act for the exclusion of Chinese from the United

This petition was circulated this morning by J. M. Williams and in about two hours he secured over one hundred names. In fact, the petition is meeting the hearty approval of almost everyone approached on the subject and is being unanimously signed.

During the Past Year—Sharp Break in Market Occurred Today.

New York, Nov. 30.—The sharp decline was scored in the price of Amalgamated Copper stock here and abroad on yesterday, continued in the local market today. Stock opened at 75 1/4, broke a point, then rallied to 76, thereafter fluctuated till it reached 73. There were slight recoveries later, closing at 74. There was heavy buying and an evident strenuous attempt at inside support. There has been a net change of 55 1/2 points in amalgamated from the highest price of a year ago today, a net depreciation of nearly $87,000,000.
