NEWS OF THE THEATRE

AMONG THE PEOPLE OF THE PLAY WORLD.

"A Lion's Heart" on Wednesday Evening, and Gus Sun's Minstrels on Thursday—Some New York Dramatic Notes.

This week at the Frazer, on Wednesday night, "A Lion's Heart," on Thursday, Gus Sun's minstrels.

This is the bill for the present week and the management makes this announcement for the minstrels:

The Daily Advertiser, Tiffin, O., says of the Gus Sun American minstrels: "The Gus Sun minstrels appeared at the Opera House Saturday evening to a large and enthusiastic audience, and presented one of the best attractions seen here for a number of years. The beautiful scenery and costumes are certainly worthy of special mention. Many new songs were introduced and all were well received. Messrs. Horner, Sun, Chipman, Diamond Bros., Drane and Nugent were a whole show in themselves. Should the company return here they can be assured of a royal reception." The above company will appear at the Frazer on Thursday night. Prices as usual. Seats on sale at Frazer's.

DRAMATIC MATTERS.

Letter from New York About Some Current Productions.

New York, Dec. 2.—The only dramatic novelty of the week on Broadway was the production Monday evening of Augustus Thomas' new play "Colorado." Wallace's was the scene of the presentation and the play scored a distinct success.

Tonight ends the run of "Miranda of the Balcony" at the Manhattan Theatre. Monday next Mrs. Fluke will be seen in a new play of New York life, said to be remotely connected with a French original, called "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch," of which the author is Mrs. Burton Harrison.

"A Royal Family" is drawing crowded houses at the Lyceum, but the number of its presentations is limited, as the new play which Clyde Fitch has written for Miss Annie Russell is announced for production week after next. The title of the play is "The Girl and the Judge." Two well known performers, Mrs. McKee Rankin and Matilda Cottrelly, have been engaged for its presentation.

Although E. H. Sothern in "If I were King" is playing to the capacity of the Garden theatre nightly, the last week of his stay in this house is announced. On Monday, December 2, Mr. Sothern begins a week's engagement at the new National theatre in Washington.

"Quality Street" has been played to a succession of full houses at the Knickerbocker Theatre during the week, and there seems to be no doubt of the play's success. It certainly provides Miss Maud Adams with a character which harmonizes with her temperament and personality, and enables her to display many of her most attractive attributes as an actress. Her popularity seems to be on the increase rather than otherwise.

"The Second in Command" is still played to audiences which test the capacity of the Empire Theatre, and doubtless could remain there profitably for months to come.

"A Message from Mars" is running very smoothly and profitably at the Garrick. It is one of the most satisfactory theatrical entertainments to be found in the city. Mr. Hawtrey grows steadily in public favor.

M. E. M. Holland's able and sympathetic performance in "Eben Holden" is meeting with cordial public approbation at the Savoy Theatre.

The time of the "Messenger Boy" at Daly's has been extended until after the Christmas holidays. No further assurance is needed of its popularity.

Mr. William Feversham is still successfully holding his own as Don Caesar de Bazan in "A Royal Rival" at the Criterion Theatre. Other bookings, however, will oblige him to conclude his engagement this week.

"The Way of the World" has been greeted with many signs of public approbation at the Victoria Theatre, and will remain there until further notice. The luxurious dressing of the play is a great attraction.

Uninterrupted success is the simple record of "The Auctioneer" at the Bijou, where Mr. David Warfield is entertaining nightly crowds.

Food Changed to Poison.

Poisoning food in the late afternoon produces effects like those of arsenic, but Dr. King's New Life Pills expel the poisons from clogging the bowels, gently, easily but surely, curing constipation, biliousness, sick headache, fevers, all liver, kidney and bowel troubles. Only 25c at Tallman & Co's.

PROMINENT MANAGER-OWNER.

Sam Thrall Visits Pendleton in Interest of Theatrical Companies.

Sam Thrall, one of the best known theatrical managers who comes to Pendleton, is here today, accompanied by Mrs. Thrall. They are at the Hotel Pendleton. Mr. Thrall arranged for the presentation here on December 9 of "Yon Yonson," of which he is the owner and manager; and of "Stranger in a Strange Land," of which he also is owner and manager. Since the death of his brother last month, Mr. Thrall has added to his duties as travelling owner and manager the management of the popular Alcazar and Central Theatres in San Francisco, and has about filled his hands full of work, but is attending to all these things with his usual efficiency, and promises the people of Pendleton an excellent production of the "Yon Yonson" and "Stranger" which he will bring here.

Saved His Life.

"I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H. C. Chesterson, Hayfield, Minn. "For three years I had dyspepsia so bad that I could hold nothing on my stomach. Doctors said I could not live. I read your advertisement on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and commenced its use. Now I am cured and recommend it to all." Tallman & Co.

PENDLETON LIVESTOCK SHIPMENTS ARE GROWING

A Record Will be Made this Season Says Mr. Calderhead.

S. B. Calderhead, general passenger and freight agent for the Washington & Columbia River railway, when interviewed Saturday in regard to the amount of stock shipped out of Pendleton over his road this year, said:

"Pendleton, which has always been one of the most important stock shipping points of the northwest will make a record for herself this season. If shipments keep up at the present rate. Scarcely a day passes without a heavy bunch of some kind of stock leaving the yards. The circle from which stock is driven to Pendleton is gradually growing larger, showing the increasing popularity of the town as a shipping point.

"Six or eight cars of Umatilla county stock were billed to leave on our line between yesterday and Sunday. Two cars of sheep for the Pacific Meat company at Tacoma are about to go out, and two cars of beef cattle will follow them closely for the same destination. Last night two cars of sheep went out for North Yakima. These are feeders."

Don't Let Them Suffer.

Often children are tortured with itching and burning eczema and other skin diseases, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the raw sores, expels inflammation, leaves the skin without a scar. Clean, fragrant, cheap, there's no salve on earth as good. Try it. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c at Tallman & Co's.

SHE IS A WESTERN VOCALIST

BEAUTIFUL UTAH GIRL
SINGS IN WONDROUS MANNER.

Rivals Melba, Calve and Sembrich, and Also Has Graces of Face and Form.

Salt Lake, Nov. 30.—A girl stepped in front of the audience in the tabernacle last evening and sang. Greater music was never heard in modern times.

She sang with the silvery bell-like tones of Melba, with the rich, golden colorings and dramatic expression of Calve, with the glorious depth and power of Sembrich. And she was neither French, German, Spanish, Italian nor Australian. She was a Utah girl born and bred, Emma Lucy Gates, granddaughter of Brigham Young, daughter of Jacob F. Gates and Mrs. Susie Young Gates—the same girl who scores of that audience had seen playing about in short dresses not so very long ago in Provo. It was hard, perhaps, for those persons to realize that "Little Lulu" is a genius. Yet she is, and destined, if she lives and preserves her voice and health, to be known as the greatest singer in the wide world.

As she sang last night she was in at least one respect greater than Calve, Melba, Sembrich, Patti and the other vocal stars. Her voice was equal to any. Perhaps she lacked the ripeness, the maturity, of those superb vocalists before whom the musical world pays humble homage. But she possesses something which not one of them has or ever will have—the clear natural beauty that strenuous cultivation can never gain. Her voice is in May abounding in the verdure and the flowers of spring. She is 21 years old with life, growth and fame before her.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spray tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street N. Y.
