LA GRANDE'S FINE HOME
 FOR THE LOCAL CLUB.

Quarters That Would Be Creditable to a Town of Ten Times the Population—Plan of Organization That Could Be Commended to Other Places.
 La Grande has the best club house in Oregon, Washington or California.
 If the population of the town be taken into account. The plan that was followed by the business men of that place could well be copied by other cities, with excellent results. A representative of the East Oregonian was a guest there upon a recent date and from the secretary, Mr. Palmer, and members of the club, learned of the manner in which the organization was able to construct so elegant an edifice and are enabled to maintain it.
 La Grande is a town that was shown by the late census to have a population of less than 4,000. It is in an agricultural region, with supplu-mental industries of fruit raising, lumbering and stock. In La Grande are no men of great wealth. Several are well-to-do, but none are affluent.

Decided to Do It Well.
 About a year ago the business men of La Grande determined that they would erect a club house that should be not less excellent in its appointments than that of any town in Oregon outside of Portland, and this they proceeded to do. They formed a club composed of the representative men of the town, and organized it upon rational lines—permanency and thoroughness. They selected a secretary, Mr. Palmer, who was to devote all of his time to the affairs of the new organization. The selection proved to be wise. Not only has he been efficient in handling the details of the club, but he himself drew the plans for the house that was built, and in drawing them planned the most convenient, comfortable one that has ever been constructed in the state.

Have 154 Members.
 The club has now 154 paying members. The dues are $15 a year, or $1.25 a month. The building cost $9,500; the furniture $500 or $10,000 in all. Business men took $4,000 in stock, that is to be paid back to them as the club grows older. There is also other indebtedness, of about an equal amount. The financial plan upon which the club is operated is to repay the indebtedness at the rate of $50 a month, returning 8 per cent. Interest on all deferred payments. And this has been done. The indebtedness may at any time be still further reduced, as the club has money in the treasury that can be applied to that account.

The House.
 The building of which La Grander are justly proud, is upon a lot in the center of the business portion of the town. The cost of the ground was included in the total cost of the building as named—$9,500.
 It is 102 by 46 feet dimensions, two story, wooden. As one enters, he passes into a spacious reception hall, whence lead doors to a bowling alley on the right, and to a gymnasium on the left. The latter is of regulation height, and is properly fitted. At the further end is an elevated stage, with a plunge bath in the center, and there are several dressing rooms for the local athletes around the sides. Upon occasion, this plunge bath may be closed over and the stage used for entertainments, a curtain being in place and all the accessories for the giving of musical or literary or dramatic addresses, with the gymnasium proper as the audience room.

A Handsome Suite.
 Upstairs is one of the handsomest suites of large rooms suitable for social functions that ever was planned.
 They run from front to rear, and are elegantly furnished. Portiers divide them, and when desired, all may be used for the two-week social events given by the club, alternating with dancing and cards. On the opposite side of the building from this suite are the library, ladies' parlors, club kitchen, lavatories and the apartments of the secretary, who lives in the house and attends constantly to the conduct of the club. So many as 350 people have been entertained upon the upper floor, with ample room for the easy moving about of the guests.

Exhibit It With Pride.
 Business men of La Grande show their club house with exuberant pride, and it is certainly worthy the enthusiasm it arouses when visitors from other places are taken there. Where-ever plans are being laid for the building of club houses, or the improvement of those now standing, information regarding La Grande's club home should be obtained. It is unique among all such enterprises on the north coast. In only one regard need improvement be effected in the club's furnishings, and that is in the matter of the library. At present, it is not extensive, not especially well selected. But it is said that this defect will soon be remedied, and when this is done La Grande will have a club home furnished with everything that the most unreasonable could ask.

J. W. SCRIBER TALKS ABOUT JOSEPH SIMON

The Senator will Have Herd Row to Hoe, Thinks the La Grande Politician—He May be the Means of Defeating Governor Geer.

"I find Senator Joseph Simon a very active candidate," said J. W.
 Scriber, when asked by the La Grande Chronicle on his return from Portland concerning political signs and movements in the Oregon metropolis. "He is by no means a dead politician, and those who desire to compass his defeat must be up and doing. However, I think it will be accomplished. In the first place, the supreme court's decision on the Portland primary law was a crippling blow to the senator.
 He will try to overcome its effects by building up a machine in the country, but it remains to be seen how well the people like Simon.

In the second place he has lost most of his strong and influential friends.
 His domineering disposition is responsible for this. Simon wants to be the whole thing and this does not appeal to others who are naturally leaders and not followers. He has, I understand, lost H. W. Scott, who whether he himself becomes a candidate or not will oppose the present senator by all fair means. I understand also that Simon has lost Mr. Corbett. But he is not daunted by these things. He will make a strong fight to control every section of the state, by ally-ing himself with Mr. Geer he expects to get in under the shadow of his popularity. But the alliance will not strengthen the governor. It will simply reduce his support and may involve him in defeat. The chief organizer for Mr. Simon is, I believe, Mr. Wallace McMannant, who is a very active politician."

CAUSE OF FALLING HAIR.

Dandruff, Which is a Germ Disease—Kill the Germ.
 Falling hair is caused by dandruff, which is a germ disease. The germ in burrowing into the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out, digs up the cuticle in little scales, called dandruff or scurf. You can't stop the falling hair without curing the dandruff, and you can't cure the dandruff without killing the dandruff germ.
 "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Newbro's Herculicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ. Herculicide is also a delightful hair dressing.
