SAVAGE THREATS

JOSEPH PARR MADE A SAVAGE GUN PLAY.

Even Tried to Draw His Revolver When Policeman Came to Arrest—Him—Tried This Afternoon. Joseph Parr was arrested Saturday evening by Policeman Fee for making a gun play and threatening to shoot an Indian. Parr, who is a half-breed, was drunk and becoming angry at the Indian, drew a revolver. He swore he would kill the Indian, but for some reason he did not shoot and the officers were notified. When Fee arrested him, he attempted to draw his gun again, but the officer was too quick. He was locked up in the city jail for the night and Sunday morning taken to the county jail, with a charge of carrying concealed weapons hanging over him. The trial will come off in Judge Fitz Gerald's court this afternoon.

PERSONAL MENTION

J. W. Collins of Pilot Rock is in the city.

Rev. W. H. Zeller of Adams was in the city yesterday.

A. M. Hill was in town yesterday from his home in Freewater.

N. A. Davis was at the Golden rule hotel from Milton on Sunday.

C. O. Henry, an Athena business man, was in Pendleton Saturday.

Frank R. Blair, of Milton, is now a clerk in Cleaver Bros' dry goods store.

Elvin Lampkin is out after being kept at home some time with "Manila Itch."

Wesley Matlock and wife are moving into their new home on South Court street.

Dan Watson, of the Watson restaurant in Portland, is registered at the Golden Rule Hotel.

John W. Row, of Sheds, was in the city Saturday the guest of his brother-in-law, J. P. Walker.

Judge Ellis left this morning for Heppner, where he is to hold court, commencing tomorrow.

Mrs. Mary Sargent is much better after a serious spell of fever and her recovery is now probable.

Amel Cowell, bookkeeper for Samuel Loney, of Walla Walla, was in the city on business Saturday.

V. H. Chastain, the druggist, from Milton was in the city yesterday shaking hands with old friends.

Otis and Harry Arnold are here from Farmington, Wash., on a visit to their sister, Miss Sus Arnold.

Mrs. L. J. Hicks arrived from Portland yesterday, to join her husband, who is employed on the Tribune.

Clarence Adams, W. & C. R. operator at Helix, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Adams.

William J. Clarke, editor of the Gervais Star, is in the city shaking hands with old friends and making new ones.

Born, December 5, 1901, to the wife of W. H. Foster, of this city, a 10-pound son. Mother and child are doing well.

Elmer F. Dodd, one of the proprietors of the Tribune spent Sunday with his brother, W. B. Dodd, in La Grange.

William Brown, who came in last week from J. E. Smith's sheep ranch on Bear creek, where he was foreman, has gone to Hot Lake in the hopes of getting relief from rheumatism.

John J. Harkans and John Harkans, uncle and nephew, were in town today from their ranch 10 miles north of Pendleton, where they are feeding a bunch of 150 stock cattle. They report the cattle in good condition and there is plenty of good wheat straw for winter feeding.

Charles W. Mumford and wife, of Wallowa, have been the guests of J. B. Mumford and family of this city, for the past several days. They are on their return from the Nez Perce country, Idaho, where Mr. Mumford says everybody seems to be prosperous and times are good.

WOULDN'T PAY FOR GRUB

Guy Boothby Fined for a Row With a Chinaman.

Guy Boothby enriched the city $5 this morning for raising a disturbance in a China joint yesterday. It seems that some boys have been a habit of going into the Chinese restaurant on Court street and ordering something to eat and then walking out without paying for it. When Boothby ordered the Chinaman told him he would have to pay in advance or he could have nothing. From this they came to blows and Boothby struck at the Chinaman with a chair, but did not hit him and then was arrested and paid his fine.

Without further warning than the announcement by his attorney, F. A. E. Starr, McGinnis, accused of highway robbery by holding up Messrs. Godfrey and Taber last fall, pleaded guilty in the circuit court at Baker City. His pal in the crime, Henry Hamby, has not yet been arraigned.

Notice to Contractors.

Notice is hereby given that the common council of the city of Pendleton will receive bids for the grading and graveling of Turner street, between the west line of Mission street and the eastern boundary of the city of Pendleton.

All bids to state the price per cubic yard. Grading to be done in accordance with the profile now on file in the city recorder's office.

Bids must be filed with the city recorder on or before the 19th day of December, 1901. The successful bidder to look to the property-owners for his pay. The common council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Dated this 9th day of December, 1901.

By order of the common council. Attest: J. E. BEAM, Recorder.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

The Most Widely Read Newspaper in America.

Time has demonstrated that the Thrice-a-Week World stands alone in its class. Other papers have imitated its form but not its success. This is because it tells all the news all the time and tells it impartially, whether that news be political or otherwise. It is in fact almost a daily at the price of a weekly and you cannot afford to be without it.

Republican and democrat alike can read the Thrice-a-Week World with absolute confidence in its truth.

In addition to news it publishes first-class serial stories and other features suited to the home and fire-side.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the weekly East Oregonian together for $2.25.

A Raging, Rearing Flood.

Washed down a telegraph line which Charles C. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha, said I had consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles by Tallman & Co. Price 50c.

D. E. Shepard, aged 46 years, died at the Salem hospital Wednesday night of typhoid pneumonia. For the past 18 months he had been employed as guard at the state penitentiary. The remains were shipped to Oregon City for burial. He was the father of Mrs. Fred Oster, formerly resident here.

She put her Foot in it.

and said "there that's the softest, nicest feeling boot I have had on for a long time. I will take that pair. How much are they?"
