MOVEMENT TO DEFEAT
COPYRIGHT AMENDMENT.

Publishers Fight the Proposition to Give Foreigners Printed Matter Protection in the United States.

Publishers are moving to defeat the passage of the following bill, which proposes to amend the existing copyright law so as to give foreign printed publications the same rights as those enjoyed by American works:

If it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, that section 956, chapter three, title 59, of the revised statutes be, and the same is hereby amended by striking therefrom the following provision, to wit: "Provided, that in the case of a book, photograph, chromo, or lithograph, the two copies of the same required to be delivered or deposited as above shall be printed from type set within the limits of the United States, or from plates made therefrom, or from negatives, or drawings on stone made with in the limits of the United States, or from transfers made therefrom. During the existence of such copyright the importation into the United States of any book, chromo, lithography or photograph, so copyrighted, or any edition or editions thereof, or any plates of the same not made from type set, negatives, or drawings on stone made within the limits of the United States, shall be, and it is hereby prohibited," and by striking out all of said section following said proviso.

Also by inserting in the second clause of said section, before the words "the day of the publication," the words "thirty days after," so that the entire said section as hereby amended will read as follows:

"Section 956. No person shall be entitled to a copyright unless he shall, on or before the day of publication in this or any foreign country, deliver at the office of the librarian of congress or deposit in the mail within the United States, addressed to the librarian of congress, at Washington, District of Columbia, a printed copy of the title of the book, map, chart, dramatic or musical composition, engraving, cut, print, photograph, or chromo, or a description of the painting, drawing, statue, statuary, or a model or design for a work of fine arts for which he desires a copyright; nor unless he shall also, not later than 30 days after the day of publication thereof in this or any foreign country, deliver at the office of the librarian of congress, or deposit in the mail within the United States, addressed to the librarian of congress, at Washington, District of Columbia, two copies of such copyright book, map, chart, dramatic or musical composition, engraving, chromo, cut, print or photograph, or in case of a painting, drawing, statue, statuary, model or design for a work of the fine arts, a photograph of the same."

"Ole Oleson" Wednesday.

"Ole Oleson," best of Swedish dialect plays, has long enjoyed great popularity, and judging by its drawing powers is liable to retain its vogue for many seasons. Its presentation here at the Frazer opera house next Wednesday night by the popular comedian, Ben Hendricks, and a company of promised excellence, will enlist the attention of all theatre-goers who enjoy a performance in which wholesome fun and entertainment are not marred by any questionable theme or objectionable features. "Ole Oleson" is one of the plays that gain favor by their homely qualities and simple truthfulness to nature. Mr.
Hendricks has no rival in the line of Swedish dialect work and is withal an excellent actor. He has a special feature in the Swedish Ladies Quartet, whose sweet singing is everywhere rapturously received.

Old Jed Prouty—Dec. 27.

Richard Golden and "Old Jed Prouty" that big-hearted, quick-witted old Yankee are with us again, and returns not one bit aged, nor a particle less keen in his humor. The piece as given is not a new "Jed" nor a revised version, but the same old pastoral narrative as when last seen here, and no doubt Mr. Golden's reappearance in the familiar role will be signal for an outbreak of applause from as fine an audience as will be seen in the Frazer this season.

There are probably few theatregoers who do not know the simple yet interesting tale which runs through the play. Everyone remembers the old Bucksport fire department with its "six feet four" of hose; the laughable court room scene in which Jed makes his maiden attempt at the bar, and the village choir, which conjures up delightful memories. The downcast humor that runs through the play is not new, but is of the brand that does not lose its zest with age. The characters are true to life and such as may be met in many of the smaller towns of Maine.

The company will contain many familiar faces. The humor is as quaint as ever and is of that delicious flavor which gladdens the heart, and makes mankind greater friends than ever.
Mr. Golden and his excellent company will be seen at the Frazer on the evening of December 27.

COMPLEMENTS HEATHMAN.

Clark Wood Says that "Missouri" is All Right.

Pendleton is very efficiently policed, and the police department is now on a paying basis, having a surplus of $779.38 for the 11 months ending December 1. During this period over 1000 arrests have been made, says Clark Wood's Leader, J. M. Heathman, Pendleton's vigilant chief of police, certainly deserves credit for this showing, and for his excellent record during the four years in which he has worn the star. In fact, the high standard of efficiency he has maintained must be an agreeable surprise to those who regarded "Missouri John" as an election joke in past years when he regularly sought this position in vain. Through his determination and fixity of purpose he finally won, and has proved his worth.
