CHRISTMAS AFFAIRS

MONDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1901.

GENERAL NEWS

Perry Belmont was nominated by the democrats of New York Seventh Congressional district to succeed Congressman Nicholas Muller, resigned. Montague Lester was nominated by the republicans.

At Lima, Peru, excitement prevails. Cablegrams from Buenos Ayres report that the Argentine government has ordered the Argentine minister at Santiago to retire if Chile maintains the position she has assumed.

Schley may appeal to Roosevelt against Long's decision and if turned down by the chief executive, may decide to seek vindication at the hands of a political party before the people.

The German government claims the exclusive right to navigate the Rio Tinto river had been Nicaragua, under a concession granted a few years ago to the Atlas Steamship company. It has created much excitement in a circular which suggested.

According to a Guatemala correspondent, Senator Rafael Montufar has written an editorial which appeared in the leading newspaper of that city, denouncing the interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine given in President Roosevelt's message as the Roosevelt doctrine.

General Luciano Mendona, president-elect of the state of Curaco, Senator Antonio Fernandez, minister under President Andrade, and Senator Lofersky, war minister in ex-President Crespó's cabinet, recalled Thursday against President Castro near La Victoria. The revolutionists reached Camaguey on the way to Villa Clara, where their partisans had concentrated from all the surrounding districts.

Finance Minister Fielding, of the Dominion government, telegraphed to Marconi from Ottawa offering him in behalf of the Canadian cabinet, every facility for erecting wireless telegraph stations on the Nova Scotia seaboard, making him most encouraging propositions, assuring him that there were no obstacles in the way of carrying out his experiments in Canadian territory, and inviting him to Ottawa to discuss the acceptance of the propositions.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS

Senator Mitchell has secured an allowance of $400 per annum for additional clerk hire at the Whitney, Or., postoffice.

The body of Joseph Kellogg, the mining engineer of the westbound freight train wrecked near Weston, Wash., on the Northern Pacific, was found buried under the wreck.

The southbound stage between Lytonville and Willets was robbed half a mile above the latter place. A registered pouch and the express box were taken. A man named Evans has been arrested.

At Oregon City 50 Clackamas county socialists met and effected a permanent party organization by electing a county central committee. Fred Meindl was elected chairman and William Beard secretary.

Chief Justice R. S. Bean of the Oregon supreme court, has been appointed by the president of the American Bar Association to represent Oregon at a gathering of lawyers at the Louisiana Exposition at St. Louis in 1903.

The fruit pests have been so destructive in the inland Empire during the season just closed that a united effort is to be made by fruitgrowers and the faculty of the Washington Agricultural College to devise some means of exterminating them.

At Cornelius, Or., Mrs. Fannie Theodosia Hockney, who died at her home, had resided in that section since 1872. She was born in England in 1815. She was married to Charles Yero Hockney at Laceby, England, January 6, 1841. In 1852 the family came to the United States, settling in Wisconsin. In 1872 a move was made to Oregon.

city for napery designs used at the White House, and also ordered gowns of fine embroidered linen for herself and Miss Alice Roosevelt. The napery includes table scarfs, covers and doilies and bed linen. Each article is to be worked with the American monogram U. S., and will have the words "White House" in relief embroidery in the center.

New Yorkers are greatly interested in a comparison of the police forces of New York and London which has been made by one of the large metropolitan newspapers. This comparison shows that while New York has less than half the number of police of London, it pays over four million dollars more in salaries. The 12,000 policemen in London draw salaries of $1,000 per annum, New York's only $700,000,000.

When completed, the cathedral of St. John the Divine, in New York, will be the most magnificent building in this country, with the exception of the capitol at Washington. It is situated on Cathedral Heights, some hundred feet above the level and its elevated site in addition to its immense size will give it a wonderful prominence. Work has been in progress on the cathedral for five years and it is not expected to be completed for forty-five more. The cost will be $15,000,000.

New York's day will see the opening of the Children's court which was created by the new charter some three years ago. At this court youthful offenders will be placed for trial instead of being before the different magistrates courts with other criminals. Under the present conditions all boys and girls arrested throughout the city and claiming to be under sixteen years old are sent to the office of the child-rearing society, where they are held until the opening of court.

Not in many years—in fact not since the famous Bradley Martin ball which marked Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Martin's leaving of their native land—has any entertainment been so much discussed as Mrs. Pierre Lorillard's ball. That society expression surprised out it mildly. Mrs. Lorillard has been in retirement for five years and when her husband, the well known horseman and man-about-town, died last July, it was generally thought by her many acquaintances that although their matrimonial career had not been a pleasant one, she would mourn for him at least a year.

It is understood, however, that while the grown son and daughter of Mrs. Lorillard were given in suitable black or half mourning, she wore bright colors and stunning hats and her social calendar is certainly indicative of an intention to resume the society which she formerly led with so much grace, dignity and hospitality. The entertainments to be given by Mrs. Lorillard and the dinners to the latest debutantes, Miss Adelaide Whitney, stepdaughter of W. C. Whitney, and Miss Jessie Sloan, whose mother married Perry Belmont immediately after securing a divorce from Mr. Sloan nearly two years ago, will add much to the gaiety of Gotham's social circle.
