THE PENDLETON CHURCHES

HOW THE CHURCHES WILL OBSERVE CHRISTMAS.

Programs to be rendered by the various congregations of Pendleton. The churches announce their Christmas programs as follows:

Church of the Redeemer.
The blessed Feast of the Nativity, which the Christian world joyfully celebrates everywhere with special services of divine worship will be appropriately observed at the Church of the Redeemer in this city, beginning with the usual midnight celebration of the holy eucharist on Christmas eve, and followed by the full service at 10:30 o'clock on Christmas morning. At the former service Stainer's beautiful anthem "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" will be sung, the solo parts being taken by Mr. Robert S. Bond. At the latter service the choir, assisted by a company of young ladies, will be devoted to the choir in the parish, and those at the Christmas day service will be devoted to the Disabled Clergy Fund of the diocese. The following is the program of the service for the two services:

Midnight service begins at 11:30. Opening hymn, "A Little Town of Bethlehem" No. 58. Kyrie and Gloria Tibi. Waltz-Hymn, "Hark! What Means These Holy Voices?" No. 61. Offertory Anthem, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear." Stainer Hymn, "Gloria in Excelsis, Nunc Dimittis." 225.
Christmas day, 10:30 a. m. Processional hymn, "Sing, O Sing, This Blessed Morn." No. 57. Venite. Plain Chant Gloria Wilson. Te Deum. Van Bokereck Benedictus. Plain Chant Hymn, "Hail to the Lord, Anointed." No. 223. Kyrie, "Gloria Tibi—(MS.) White Hymn, "Angels From the Realms of Glory." No. 99. Offertory anthem, "Glory to God in the Highest." Communion office as in the first service.
Recessional hymn, "From the East-ern Mountains." No. 62. First Presbyterian Church.

The Christmas exercises will be held this evening at 7:30 and will consist of a short program by the children, a sermon by the pastor on the subject "The Hope of the World," and following of the Christmas story. A service of prayer and praise will be held on Christmas day at the usual hour on regular service.
