It has been decided at Rome to send a political mission to the coronation of King Edward. This mission will be organized on lines similar to the one sent to the Victorian jubilee.

John E. Woods, of Champaign, Ill., a personal friend of Rear Admiral Sampson, has received a letter from Mrs. Sampson in which she says that the mental condition of the Admiral is beyond recovery.

Tommy Ryan, once a prize fighter, but now in business in Kansas City, has brought suit in the circuit court there against J. J. Jeffries, to recover $1000, which he alleges is due him for training Jeffries for his fight with Corbett, in 1899.

General Miles has resumed his duties in command of the army at his office in the war department. It is said that he has managed to accept the situation with the best possible grace, and will say or do nothing to continue the controversy.

senting a certificate signed by two medical men that she is competent.

Much Charitable Work.

In fact in spite of the many complaints and protestations by certain people against the extravagance of the rich there is a vast amount of charitable work being done this year. Of the generosity of Miss Helen Vanderbilt everyone knows and her name is respected in every household, so not content with all she has done into the bosom of these God's children she has decided to enlarge Woody Crest, her home for crippled children. Miss Gould is so pleased with the present result of her work that she is making plans to care for more crippled boys. At present there are eighteen inmates in the home.

Rich and Popular.

The most talked about young man in Gotham's smart set just now is Reginald Claypoole Vanderbilt, son of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, and last of the Vanderbilt boys to become an earl. Mr. Vanderbilt's twentieth anniversary was gladdened by the knowledge that he was worth not a half million dollars richer than he at this time last year, this amount having been received in his father's will to come to him upon attaining his majority. He is not yet out of school and announces next year from Yale. He possesses all the characteristics of the Vanderbilt family—love of athletics, studiousness, fondness for society and sociability. He is said to be engaged to Miss Kathleen Nelson, to whom he has been devoted for years and the romance has been one of the prettiest in New York's social set.

"The Dean Lung Fund."

All the world loves a generous man, as well as a lover, but when he gives a fortune and makes the gift anonymous, it becomes all the more interesting. The recent donation of $100,000 to Columbia University is attracting attention for more than this reason, however. It was given to fund the "Dean Lung Fund" for instruction in the Chinese language and literature. Great prominence is attached to the gift on account of the report that Mr. Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister to this country, was expected to accept the professorship. This having proven untrue the gift he was anxious to know who had endowed the chair and while General H. W. Carpenter will not admit it he does not deny that he is the giver of the $100,000 presented to Columbia for this purpose.
