AT THE COUNTY JAIL.

Number of Prisoners and Kind of Crime in the County During 1901.

There are now 12 prisoners in the county jail, and the records of the sheriff's office show that 195 persons had quarters in the jail in 1901.

The records by months are as follows:

January, 7; February, 1; March, 4; April, 7; May, 12; June, 8; July, 9; August, 13; September, 15; October, 13; November, 10; December, 7. This shows the largest number of prisoners received at the county jail was during September, when 15 was the record. Next in the list are August and October, when 13 were received for each month. There is not a month in the year that no prisoners were received. February is the lightest month, having a record of only 1. The next lightest month was March, when only four were received.

The largest number of prisoners for any one crime is for larceny, there having been 31 incarcerations on this charge. Next comes the insane, with a total of 16 for the year; assaults of all kinds, 10; held on suspicion, 8; carrying concealed weapons, 6; robbery, 5; forgery, 3; obtaining money by false pretense, 2; destroying property, 3; attempted burglary, 1; selling liquor without license, 1; raising checks, 1; disturbing religious meetings, 1; selling liquor to Indians, 1.

The East Oregonian is Eastern Ore-gon's representative paper. It leads, and the people appreciate it and show it by their liberal patronage. It is the advertising medium of this section.

Besides these, several were arrested and locked up for a few hours on suspicion.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

The Most Widely Read Newspaper in America.

Time has demonstrated that the Thrice-a-Week World stands alone in its class. Other papers have imitated its form but not its success. This is because it tells all the new all the time and tells it impartially, whether that news be political or otherwise. It is in fact almost a daily at the price of a weekly and you cannot afford to be without it.

Republican and democrat alike can read the Thrice-a-Week World with absolute confidence in its truth.

In addition to news it publishes first-class serial stories and other features suited to the home and fireside.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and the weekly East Oregonian together for $2.25.

Leo Balding is Free Again.

Leo Balding, alias Blonding, is a free man. This morning his father, who came here recently from Kansas, paid the young man's fine and costs of suit, amounting to $17, and took him out of the keeping of the officers.
Balding is the young man of tightrope-walking fame, who stole money from his employer in Milton some time ago, and when he came to trial the evidence produced was to the effect that a woman was the cause of his trouble and that he was playing the "Rouge" act by taking the blame of the theft on himself so the obliging court let him off with a $36 fine.

Death of Mrs. Lawson.

Mrs. James Lawson, the daughter of James and Nancy Calavan, died at her home on Mill Creek, Crook county, December 29th. She was born in Whitley county, Kentucky, May 18, 1823, being 68 years, 6 months and 11 days old. She was married to James Lawson, December 25, 1849, in Whitley county, Kentucky. They moved to Missouri in 1852, and 11 years after they crossed the plains to Oregon, residing most of the time since near Prineville, Crook county.
She was a member of the Baptist church. She leaves a husband and two sisters and two brothers to mourn her loss, one of her sisters being Mrs.
S. C. Stanton, of Athens.

Banquet to the Boys.

The church of the Redeemer gave their first annual banquet in honor of the vested choir New Year's evening in the parish house, from 5:30 to 7 o'clock. About 30 guests were present and a pleasant time was had.
Rector W. A. Potwine acted as toastmaster and was responded to by T. G.
Halley, J. F. Robinson, E. D. Boyd, Fred Vincent and Willie Beagle. The honored guests were: T. G. Halley, E. D. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson, Miss Cooby Raley and Miss Pot-wine.

PERSONAL MENTION

a visit to Walla Walla.

Miss Mabel Nye has gone to Walla Walla to visit with relatives.

J. H. Roulston, merchant from Adams, was in town Wednesday.

George Perringer left this morning for Portland on pleasure bent.

Attorney A. D. Stillman has gone to Portland on professional business.

F. A. Llewellyn and Albert Harala were in town New Year's day from Adams.

F. E. Simpson and Turner Callender are registered at Hotel St. George, from Athens.

Charley A. Cameron visited Walla Walla Tuesday night, returning Wednesday afternoon.

J. A. Baddeley and wife, of Weston, were registered at the Golden Rule hotel New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell will leave in the morning for Spokane to visit Mr. Campbell's parents.

Miss Lucy Bowman has gone to Hunt's Junction to visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Germain.

Arthur Clarke was the guest of Dr.
M. B. Metzler, at the Hotel Pendleton yesterday. His home is in Heppner.

W. H. Fletcher was in Walla Walla yesterday and denied the story of the recent shooting scrape at Fletcher's mill.

W. G. Lynn and family, of Starbuck, who are visiting Mrs. Lynn's brother, James Kern, of Helix, are in town.

Arthur A. Knight has returned from North Yakima, accompanied by Mrs.
Knight, who spent the holidays with her mother in that city.

P. J. Kern, of Southside, Wash., was in the city New Year's day. Mr. Kern is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
W. C. Kern, near Helix.

Mrs. A. M. Clarke, who has been employed in the cloak department of the Peoples Warehouse, left yesterday for Spokane. She may remain there.

Cecil Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.
T. Wade, has returned to Walla Walla to again enter Whitman College, after spending the holidays with his parents.

George Hamblin has gone to Forest Grove to visit with his brother, Fred Hamblin. From there he will go to Portland, where he will remain a couple of months.

Miss Catherine Labarre, of the Weston normal school, arrived from Portland on yesterday's train, where she had been spending the holiday vacation with relatives, and is the guest of Mrs. C. B. Wade.

Martin Compton, who went to California for his health some weeks ago, writes that he is comfortably located at 219 South Hill street, Los Angeles.
He has not seen a cloudy day for five weeks. His health is much improved and he is in good spirits in consequence.

L. Stubblefield, who has been here several days buying cattle for Carston Brothers, butchers of Seattle, shipped five carloads to them New Year's day, by way of the W. & C. R. and Northern Pacific. W. B. and G.
W. Rigby shipped two cars of hogs at the same time, to Frye & Bruhn, of the same place. The price received for the hogs was 5 1/4 cents on foot.

Miss Eleanor Nolf, of this city, was married to John Moore, of Walla Walla, in that city, yesterday. Rev.
Holman B. Turner, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. The bride is the sister of Fred and Joe Nolf, and well known here, where she has many friends, while the groom is a promising young business man of Walla Walla, where they will make their home.

A. B. Stevens, who had the misfortune to get a piece of emery in his right eye Christmas, will loose the sight entirely, so say the doctors. Mr.
Stevens was sharpening a saw on an emery wheel when a spark of fire struck him in the sight. He suffered intensely from it but did not think he was so seriously injured at first. Mr.
Stevens is the man who lost most of his household goods and his home was destroyed by fire Thursday morning.

L. Varson and Charley Horn, prominent citizens of Juniper, spent the first day of the year in town. In speaking of the weather conditions, Mr.
Larson gave the following: "We have had the most open winter I ever saw.
The weather at Juniper is practically the same as in Pendleton. I am not sure whether to be pleased or not, for I am afraid that while we are having nice weather now and people are able to seed right along that later we will have our winter, making a late spring, thus being harder on the stockmen than if winter came at the proper time."

A Successful Party.

One of the most successful parties of the season was given New Year's eve by Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Peterson, at their home across the river, in honor of their guest, Mrs. Badgero, of Milton. Music and games were the features of the evening and as the old year turned into the new, the guests partook of an elegant lunch prepared by the hostess. Those present were:
Mrs. Badgero, son and daughter, from Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith Stanton, from Freewater; Mrs. C. P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Keller, Mrs. McKrnan, Mr. and Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Kous and daughter, Mrs. Jack and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs.
J. M. Bentley, Mrs. Tweedy, Miss Davis and Carl Steward, Mr. and Mrs.
Peterson and Misses Lizzie and Ella Peterson.
