NORMAL SCHOOL HAS A LARGE ENROLLMENT.

Than for Several Years Past—Work on the New Building Advancing Rapidly.

Weston, Jan. 6.—The winter term of the normal school began on Friday of last week. The enrollment up to date is an improvement over that of last term, and bids fair to be the largest the school has known for several years past.

Work on the new normal building is advancing rapidly, and it will be ready for occupancy about February 15.

The Farmers' Bank of Weston, reports a large increase of business for 1901, over that of the preceding year. A. Phillips, is building a nine-room cottage on his lot at the corner of Washington and Main streets.

Charles Taylor, of the firm of Taylor & Jarman, left today for Spokane to attend the meeting of the Cash Buyers' Union, to be held in that city early in the week.

County Surveyor Macomber was in Weston Friday adjusting lines and setting corners for several places.

Luther A. Shellenberger has accepted a place with John Cummons, at the Weston store.

Bishop N. Castle, of the U. B. church, from Filmont, Or., arrived in Weston last night. The bishop expects to spend a week or ten days in Weston, conducting a revival meeting.

On Saturday Robert Jamieson bought for the Pacific Coast Elevator company, 17,900 bushels of wheat at 54 1/2 cents, net.

THE ADAMS TRAGEDY.

The Facts as to the Shooting of Young Whitely by Miss Lavadore.

The Advance, published at Adams, says it did not intend to refer to the Whitely-Lavadore imbroglio in that place, but since outside papers have published different kinds of stories concerning it, the Advance will give the facts as follows.

Last Sunday evening Mr. Whitely went up to the home of Robert Pichette, where Miss Lavadore happened to be spending the evening, and sent word in for her to come out as he wanted to see her. When she came out he told her that he could not take her to a certain dance for which he had her company engaged, and she got angry and they had some words, when she went back in the house, picked up a case knife and started out and John Pichette, a young man at the home stepped up to her and took the knife away from her, he then went out and told Whitely to leave, as he did not want him and Miss Lavadore to have any trouble there.

Mr. Whitely thereupon came down town and later was going up across the flat toward his home. In the meantime Miss Lavadore had gone home and, being in a hysterical condition, had picked up a small revolver and started out, and her mother followed her. Mrs. Carpenter (mother of Miss Lavadore) met Mr. Whitely near his home while following Miss Millie, stopped and asked him about the trouble between him and Miss Millie. When she spoke, Millie, who had been standing with her back to them, whirled around, threw up her gun and fired, but Whitely knocked up her hand and the bullet passed harmlessly over his head. He then undertook to take the gun away from her and while they were struggling, Mr. Carpenter (the stepfather) came up and knocked Whitely down, took the gun from him, and after giving him some chastisement, went off. Mr. Whitely has left for parts unknown.

The affair was bad enough without exaggeration, and it is now a thing of the past, and as there is no lesson which will be learned by hashing it over, we had not intended to refer to it at length until it was made necessary by the article aforesaid. If the law had been invoked, or both parties had remained in the vicinity, it would have been different.

NEW YEAR'S DAY MEETING.

A Subscriber Describes a Service at the Indian Mission Church.

R. M. O'Brien, a resident of East Pendleton, attended the New Year's day service at the Mission Indian church on the Umatilla reservation. He writes to the East Oregonian concerning the services:

Receiving an invitation with a number of others to attend the New Year's day meeting and dinner at the Mission church, given as a farewell to their minister, Enoch Pond, who soon goes from here to Lapwai, it was our pleasure to listen to the discourse of this minister to his people in their own language, which seemed to me very humble and devout. We were very much impressed with the earnest devotion of all of the people in attendance and we were led to think of St. Peter, who said: "Of a truth, I perceive that God is no respecter of persons, but in every nation he that feareth Him and worketh righteousness is accepted with Him." At the conclusion prayer was offered by Cash Cash. Hymns were sung at intervals during the discourse. At the close the minister followed by the elders (Jim Robinson, Amos Pond and Philip Minthorn) passed down the aisle shaking hands and wishing a happy New Year. The congregation then passed out of doors and formed in a hollow square and listened to a short address of perhaps 10 minutes by young Cash Cash. Then again they passed around shaking hands and wishing a happy New Year to all. Young Cash Cash exhibited a book presented to some of his people by the lamented Dr. Whitman, some 52 years ago. He seemed to regard it as almost sacred and remarked that he wanted to keep it for a long time.

The dinner was prepared at the personage, presumably under the direction of the committee (Charlie Warner, Albert Minthorn and George Cable, for soon we were summoned to partake of a bountiful repast consisting of meats, fish, rice, white, light bread, pie cakes of different varieties, canned fruits and vegetables, tea, coffee, etc. After dinner we turned homeward, being highly pleased and noting the progress of these people, both spiritually and temporally.

The Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Co. of Chicago, purchased alive at $12 per 100 pounds, a lot of steers; cost in beef $17.78 per 100 pounds. Average weight alive, 1,497 pounds; average weight of carcasses, 1,010 pounds; percentage of beef 87.5, highest on record at Chicago for a carload.

Two Oregonians in New York.

Two Oregonians walking down Broadway, New York, one day early in the current month stopped for a moment to admire a display of fresh fruits in the show window of the celebrated Hicks establishment, at the corner of Twenty-seventh street. The exhibit was one of amazing variety and beauty and suitable to the season, and was especially rich in winter and fall apples. The red Spitzenberg made the bravest show, while the green and yellow Newtown Pippin was scarcely less conspicuous. But what attracted and interested the Oregonians even more than the fruit itself was the fact that each and every package bore an Oregon label. More interesting still, the sidewalk in front of the store for a considerable distance was covered with half-boxes of apples, each bearing a private address, some in this country, but the greater number on the other side of the Atlantic. Almost every country in Europe was included in the 20 or more foreign addresses, far the Living on Wild Horse Meat.

Wild horse meat is the principal article of food for the sections west of the desert districts of the Southern Utah, according to reports which come from there. The men say the other meats are too expensive after freight or express charges are paid, consequently the wild horse has taken place frequently, the animals being plentiful in the region between Milford and Calliente. The sections men say the meat is not bad, especially when it is the only fresh meat obtainable.

Slow Healing SORES

With rich, pure, strong blood one is never troubled with sores or ulcers. A cut or any injury to the flesh heals in a few days, nature supplying the healing balm in the form of healthy, new blood; but when the circulation is tainted with poisonous germs, humors or any effete matter, a slight scratch or abrasion of the skin becomes a festering sore, tiny pimples grow to be boils, swollen joints and inflamed glands often break out into offensive, slow healing sores. A polluted blood is always a menace to health; not only does it keep the skin in a chronic state of inflammation, but every organ and fibre of the body suffers from an impure and sluggish circulation. You never feel well, you are not and never can be well until the system is relieved of its terrible load of impurities. With the blood so contaminated, so deeply poisoned, ulcers, boils and sores of every kind are apt to become chronic and often develop into Cancer.

I became afflicted with a severe sore leg and often caused by poverty of the blood and a weak and slow circulation, brought on by long continued sickness, malarial poisoning, torpid liver, the use of mercury, or whatever is calculated to destroy the vitality of the blood and break down the constitution. These old chronic sores last sometimes for years, eating into the flesh, muscles, tissues, and even down into the bones, and are such a tax upon the system that it is hard for the patient to recuperate, and a simple malady often proves fatal.

Nothing so quickly or surely restores lost strength and vitality to the blood as S. S. S. It is an antidote for the severest forms of Blood Poison, as well as the irritating humors that cause the eruptions and sores that sap your very life and so greatly debilitate you. S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier. It contains no mercury, potash, arsenic or other hurtful drug. It cleanses the blood and purifies the circulation, thus ridding the system of the impurities that keep the sores feverish and painful. At the same time your general health improves under the tonic effects of S. S. S., and the skin becomes soft, smooth and healthy. If you are troubled with boils, carbuncles, sores or eruptions of any sort, write our physicians all about your case; don't risk your own judgment when you can get medical advice from experienced doctors free. Book on Blood and Skin Diseases to all who desire it.
