MR. MAYBERRY'S STORY.

Says He Wasn't Hurt Much—He Was Dismissed From School—His Statement Does Not Vary From the East Oregonian's Statement of Wednesday.
Helix, Or., Jan. 8.—(To the Editor)—The statement or report to your paper of the 7th inst. is duly noted. The facts in the case are misrepresented. True, Charles Stanton proceeded to do me up, but jumped the wrong man. Neither one is hurt, but of course some say so. There has been no trouble in the school whatever, with the exception of that family, with whom I have had nothing to do for some time, the matter being referred to the directors for settlement, which they did not do. Talk and gossip in Helix, as in many other towns, is cheap, and the rumor flew. Hence the scrap, Friday last. The directors preferred charges against me for using profane language, at that time. We had a trial and the directors heard the witnesses and made a motion to dismiss me from any further connection with the school. I will take an appeal from their decision as soon as the county superintendent comes home.

W. S. MAYBERRY.

PERSONAL MENTION

Dr. C. J. Smith is in Walla Walla today.
T. H. Colwell, of Baker City, is at Hotel Pendleton.
J. A. Scott and wife were in town this morning from Helix.
James Thompson and J. E. Irons, of Freewater, are guests of the Golden Rule Hotel.
J. E. Oliver has sold a lot in the western part of town to Keller Bros. Consideration.
R. M. Alcorn, a pioneer farmer living 11 miles northwest of Pendleton, is spending the week visiting a brother in Seattle.
J. H. Reed, of Starbuck, stayed Tuesday night in Pendleton as the guest of C. D. Drake. Mr. Reed is a locomotive engineer running out of Starbuck, and he and his daughter had been to Portland on a holiday vacation.
W. B. Clifton, one of the leading jewelry men of Pocatello, with Mrs. Clifton, stopped at Hotel Pendleton last night on their way home from Dayton, Wash., where they had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davis.
F. H. Kiddell, accompanied by A. B. Huelet and C. C. Frazier, passed through Pendleton today with six cars of fat hogs which were shipped by the Island City Milling and Mercantile company, from that place to Sound dealers.
M. J. Daniels and R. M. Powers, prominent citizens of Weston, were in Pendleton yesterday. They say T. S. O'Brien, who has been down with small-pox near that place, is convalescing. None of his family have taken the disease from him.
Ira Julian, operator at Helix, who is just convalescing from a severe spell of typhoid fever, is in town and expects to leave this evening for Seattle, Tacoma and Portland, to be absent a week in the hopes of regaining some of his lost strength. Clarence Adams will continue to do his work in the W. & C. R. office at Helix.

Perils of Our Presidents.

All of our presidents have been in the habit of mingling freely with the people, usually without any particular precaution being made for their safety. The danger of this has been so emphatically pointed out in the last few months, that wise statesmen suggest that the old plan be discontinued. There is no cause for great danger in many of the so-called remedies advertised for stomach, liver and bowel complaints. The safest medicine to take is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It has been before the public for 50 years, and has always been found safe and reliable in cases of nervousness, insomnia, indigestion, dyspepsia and malaria, fever and ague. It therefore occupies the foremost position in the list of household remedies, and no family should be without it.

The Spelling Reform.

At a recent meeting of the spelling reform association in Chicago, the members expressed themselves as pleased at the progress of the reform movement in the spelling of English words. Attention was called to the list of words adopted four years ago by the national educational association, which are now used in many publications. This list is comprised of the following shortened forms: "Program," "tho," "altho," "thoro," "thorofare," "thru," "thru-out," "catalog," "prolog," "decalog," "demagog" and "pedagog."

Government Horse Buyers.

Walla Walla, Jan. 9.—The government board of horse purchasers is at Fort Walla Walla inspecting a large number of horses which have been gathered by buyers recently. Nearly 200 head will be required to supply the demand, but not nearly that number will be gotten this time. It has required several months to purchase 200 head, and the full number needed may be secured by spring.

ANNUAL STATEMENT

THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES OF CITY.

Showing Cash Balances and Other Items for Past Year.

The city recorder's report for 1901 shows the total receipts for the city from all sources during the year 1901 to have been $26,255.21, against $21,914.90 for 1900, making a gain of $4,340.31 in the receipts of 1901 over those of 1900.
The total amount expended during 1901 is $24,051.10, as compared with $26,130.60 for 1900, showing the expenses for 1901 to be $2,079.50 more than those of 1900. This is explained by the street and bridge expenses and cost of new apparatus for the fire department.
The cash balance on hand at the beginning of 1900 was $34,729.55, while the cash balance in the treasury at the end of the year for starting in on 1901, was $2,342.41, showing the cash balance in the treasury to have been reduced $22,387.24 during 1900. The cash balance instead of being reduced during 1901, has increased $2,205.11, making a total balance in the treasury at the present time of $4,547.52.

POLICE MATTER NOT HEARD

Council Held a Quiet Session with Only Routine Business.

The city council met Wednesday night in regular session, with Mayor T. G. Halley in the chair and Councilmen Clopton, Hartman, Johnson, Switzler, Frazier, Somerville, Dickson and Wells present.
The matter of police investigation was not referred to, as it was understood by all the councilmen that the work of the investigating committee had not been completed, and they had no report ready.
Very little business of importance came up with the exception of the general routine work. An ordinance ratifying the contract between the city and J. D. Morro wfor the grading of Turner street from Mission to the eastern boundary of the city was read and approved. The work will begin at once.
The recorder's report of receipts and expenditures of the city of Pendleton for 1901 was presented to the council, read and referred to the finance committee.

NOTES FROM ECHO.

Doings of People in the Butter Creek Country.

Echo, Jan. 9.—Ike Howard was in town last Friday from Galloway, to meet his father, J. L. Howard, at the morning train. Mr. Howard, at the returned from Grand Junction, Col., his old home, bringing with him his mother, who will make her home in Galloway with her son.
On Saturday evening last the Odd Fellows, when nearly through with the regular evening's work, received an alarm at the door. On answering the same they were pleasantly surprised with a large party of their friends, bringing with them ample refreshments. It is needless to say, lodge was closed in a hurry and the balance of the evening spent socially.
Mr. and Mrs. Al Gillett went to Pendleton on Tuesday. Mrs. Gillett is not well, and will receive medical treatment.
Eli Spike and C. J. Gulliford took several head of horses to Pendleton to sell to the cavalry.
O. F. Thomson has been very sick, at his home on Butter creek, with apoplexy. He was unconscious several hours. Dr. Swineburn, of Heppner, was in attendance. At present he is reported much improved, and it is hoped he will soon recover.
The Knights of the Macabees, Meadows tent No. 79, installed the following officers Tuesday evening, January 7: Sir knight commander, Cloyd Oliver; sir knight lieutenant-commander, Walter Thornton; sir knight finance keeper, Perry Whitworth; sir knight record keeper, Charles H. Miller; master at arms, Jesse Oliver; second master at arms, Ed Hammer. After the installation, supper was served at Mrs. Webb's hotel.

D. C. Brownell returned from a short business trip to Pendleton Wednesday morning.

Another rabbit drive is planned for the near future, some time when the snow is on the ground. Then the rabbits leave the hills and gather in the bottoms. They are not so wild and are more easily driven.

Miss Lora Harrison, our postmistress, is visiting her sister at Pomeroy, Wash.

Charles Lambirth and family are visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Morton, at Nollin.

Numah Lee has returned from Colorado and is working at the ranch of A. J. Dillon. He will stay here until spring.

Charles Lave, the painter from Pendleton is working on Mr. Koontz's mill.

MRS. HARP'S FUNERAL.

Body Buried This Afternoon in the Cemetery.

The Rev. H. J. Zercher, officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Robert Harp, of Cold Springs, which was held at the cemetery this afternoon. She died on the 7th. Mrs. Harp leaves a husband and two children, respectively, 4 years and 6 months.

Studebaker's Beginning.

Clement Studebaker, the wagon maker who died at South Bend, Ind., the other day, leaving an estate of many million dollars, and his business, represented by 2,700 agencies in the United States and Europe, started in business with a cash capital of $2.25 and $68 worth of tools. But he made good wagons. Lots of men of Studebaker's age are dying in poor houses who were given college educations and who felt above a trade.
