Resolutions were adopted by the National Wool association declaring that the Grosvenor "pure wool" bill will place under government surveillance many large and important branches of textile industry, which it enacted, cannot be administered without placing federal police in charge of textile mills, wholesale clothing establishments and garment manufacturers.

Of sugar there is an annual consumption of 2,360,000 tons, $85,000,000 a year. Of this, however, only 1,260,000 tons are imported, yielding customs revenues of $12,000,000. The balance, $36,000,000, goes into the pockets of the planters. The removal of the duty on raw sugar would result in a saving to the consumer of $55,000,000.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS

The following officers were elected by the Dairy association for the ensuing year: President, Thomas Froman; vice-president, George W. Weeks; Salem; second vice-president, S. M. Douglas; Eugene; secretary and treasurer, F. L. Kent.

St. John, who finally wrecked them, was arrested on the charge of larceny, the information charging the crime was committed by Bruce while a director in the Scandinavian American bank by relieving deposits when he knew the bank to be insolvent. The mystery of the disappearance of Abram McIntyre, who left Winona, Minn., in December, and should have arrived in Hillsboro to visit his son, Henry McIntyre, is cleared up by the arrival of the parent. Mr. McIntyre, who is 73 years old, states that immediately upon his arrival in Portland on the evening of December 23, he was assaulted by three men, who choked him into insensibility, robbed him of all his money, and then left him to be found by the police. He was taken to the city jail, where he was held for three or four days.

It was a Graphic Portrayal of Russian Conditions, with interesting Descriptions of his Experiences.

"It is generally thought that Czar assassinations are committed by the nihilists," said Capt. Alberti, in his lecture at the Frazer on Thursday evening. "As a matter of fact, these assassinations and attempts at assassination are primarily caused by the nobles, who employ some of the lower classes to do their dirty work, but themselves furnish the money, the influence and the scientific skill to execute the involved plots for the removal of the emperor."

It was a highly instructive address and the 500 people who heard it are under obligations to the local Masonic societies who afforded them the treat. Captain Alberti told about his rescue from permanent exile in Siberia by reason of his giving the sign of distress of Masonry, and being assisted by Russian Masons to escape.

His View of the Czar.

Captain Alberti cleared up many incorrect ideas relating to the character of Russian rulers. His view is that the governors of the several scores of states are the real oppressors of the people, and that the czars, as a rule, have been humane and desirous of emancipating Russia from the thralldom under which they have always rested. These governors are from the nobility, and the nobility resists all attempts to establish such things as free schools, trial by jury, and all the accompaniments of modern civilization. Alexander II he eulogized as a ruler of higher character, while he made no attempt to conceal his contempt for the late emperor, who died, as he asserted, "from fright."

Now He's an American.

The captain is a native of Italy, but is of German extraction, and lived for many years in Russia, where he received education in one of the government technical schools, serving the czar as a soldier, and studying art in Munich at the command of the Russian government.

After trials and sufferings such as enlist the sympathy from all who listen to his thrilling recital, he became an American citizen, and he brought forth of storms of applause when he said with fervor that he was proud of his allegiance to the stars and stripes and believed that all foreigners who came here to grumble at the government of the United States ought to go back to their former lands. He showed pictures of this country and Russia, which were calculated to illustrate the subject matter of his address.

Colonel E. D. Boyd introduced the speaker, making a short address as a preliminary.

Fight on Game Warden.

SEVERAL OF AMERICA'S STAR ATHELETS WILL BE DISQUALIFIED FROM THE FIELD OF AMATEUR

TEWKSBURY.

A. KRAENZLEIN.

M. W. LONG.

A. F. DUFFY.

Nearly a dozen of America's greatest performers on field and track, are likely to find themselves disqualified from the field of amateur athletics if the investigation ordered by the Amateur Athletic Union results in proving that they are guilty of the charges of professionalism made against them by the A. A. U. of England. It is charged that on the occasion of the big athletic contests in England last summer, Messrs. Kraenzlein, Tewksbury, Long Duffy and some other American stars, accepted as "expense money" a sum far too substantial to come in under this bar, proved against them immediately barred contests of this nature.

Will of George Dacres.

Walla Walla, Jan. 10.—The will of George Dacres, who died Sunday, gives the property to the three children of the deceased, save small sums for other purposes. Over 2300 acres of wheat land, hundreds of lots and a number of valuable houses, the Dacres hotel and a band of horses and other stock, make up the estate, the value of which has not been estimated. Mr. Dacres gave $100 for mass for the repose of his soul, $1000 to De La Salle Institute, the Catholic school for boys, and $500 to St. Patrick's church, to which he belonged.

The appointment by the president of Benjamin Daniels to be United States marshal for Arizona, was received with some surprise, as Daniels is considered to be a pronounced democrat. Daniels was a "Rough Rider" and was with President Roosevelt at the battle of San Juan Hill.
