PILKINGTON AND DRISCOLL PLEARED NOT GUILTY

Cases Were Set for the Fifth Day of the January Term.

W. H. Pilkington and Ben Driscoll were taken before Judge Ellis yesterday to plead and each said "not guilty."

Pilkington is the man who attempted to pass a bogus check on Lee Teutsch, manager of the Cleaver Bros. dry good store some two months ago. The check was drawn in favor of E. Allen with the name of Allen Bros., stockmen living near Huron, forged thereto.

Driscoll is the colored bootblack, who stole several grips from an O. R. & N. Pullman car, while stopped here to load and unload express about the first of December.

Their trials were set for the fifth day of the January term of the circuit court, which convenes next Monday, the 20th.

NOW CLEARED OF DEBRIS.

For the first time since the wreck near Helix, last Tuesday, the W. & C. R. railroad passenger coach came into Pendleton on Monday. The road has been repaired and the wreck cleared so that trains are now running through, and the coach has been again placed on the track. Since the wreck and until yesterday, the W. & C. R. trains have been running from here to the scene of the wreck, with the passengers in an old caboose, and there meeting a train run from Pasco on the other end where the passengers were transferred from one car to the other to finish their journey.

Thomas Duncan, one of the most popular and able commercial travelers coming to Pendleton, was receiving congratulations from his friends on his recent marriage. Vozey, daughter of Mrs. T. E. Tynan. The friends accompanied the couple to the noon train for San Francisco, where they spent their honeymoon, stopping at points of interest on their way north to their future home in Walla Walla. Alleges Arrest Was Caused by Constable Through Enmity.

Saturday a La Grande Observer reporter visited Rev. Harris, who is now in jail charged with rape, and asked him if he had any statement to make, whereupon he answered that he did not have a word to say beyond the fact that he "was innocent, which he would have no trouble in proving at the proper time."

He has now secured the services of T. H. Crawford to defend him.

Mr. Harris showed a letter from his wife in which she affirms the utmost confidence as to his innocence.

He further stated, after recovering from his embarrassment, that his idea was the girl was put up to this by the constable, who is an enemy of his.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

is the Only Possible Way of Having a Permanent Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin, brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."
