PETER WEST'S PROTEST.

He Makes a Statement Regarding Incorrect Reports. Pendleton, Or., January 16.—(To the Editor.)—I desire to reply through the columns of the East Oregonian, to an article which appeared in the Tribune of the 15th inst., under the head "Lined Up Against Peter West." Whoever furnished the information to the Tribune, that I asked 100 per cent advance for my lots of their previous value, is mistaken. Whoever furnished the information that the Sisters of St. Francis attempted to buy my lots before the sisters appealed to the city council, is also mistaken. The sisters filed their petition on November 29, 1901. I filed my objection January 6, 1902. It is less than one week ago that I was asked by a gentleman how much I would take for my lots. That the Sisters of St. Francis wished to know, I told him, and said further to tell them I would donate $50 towards the hospital. After this gentleman informed the sisters of my price for the lots, and of my $50 donation towards the hospital, the sisters instructed him to tell me not to sell the lots to any one until further notice, and that my price was very reasonable. I have had since then several chances to sell the lots, but informed the parties that I held the lots for the Sisters of St. Francis. PETER WEST.

PERSONAL MENTION

Roy Cunningham is in Pendleton from Arlington. Homer Kendal, of Hix, was in town yesterday. J. L. Higgins and H. C. Daniels are in town from Ione. George Peringer went to Walla Walla this morning. T. A. Van Hollenbeck, a prominent Walla Walla citizen, is in town. Nick Berner and G. H. Graham, of La Grande, are in Pendleton for a day or so. Dr. C. J. Smith was called to Pilot Rock this morning on professional business. Mrs. J. L. Darling and little son, of Umatilla, arrived last evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bentley. A. J. Dillon, a prominent farmer and stockman of Echo, is visiting with the family of his uncle, A. W. Nye. Mrs. E. J. Somerville and daughter, Evelyn, returned yesterday evening from a visit to friends in Walla Walla. After spending a couple of days in Pendleton with friends, John Alheit returned this morning to his home in Walla Walla. F. H. Beathe, a Weston citizen, was doing business in town yesterday. He has been appointed one of the two road superintendents of the county. R. H. Patton, of Birch creek, has gone to Lind in company with his son, R. T. Patton, who lives at the latter place and has been over on an extended visit. Douglas Belts, of Echo, has returned from a trip to Union county, where he went in the interest of the Eastern Oregon Wool Growers' Association of which he is president. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Noble, who left Pendleton two months ago for California, returned this morning. Mr. Noble, who was forced to go away from here on account of his health, says he gained 25 pounds during the time they have been gone and he never felt better in his life than now. Most of their time was spent in Lane and Butte counties where Mr. Noble has sisters living.

WEDDED IN BOSTON.

Miss Belle Strickland Married to Robert Pollard Oldham. Word comes to Pendleton that Miss Belle Strickland was recently married to Robert Pollard Oldham in Boston, and that they are now living in Seattle. Miss Hallie Strickland being with them. Miss Strickland has finished a course of study at the Bradford College, Massachusetts, and her husband is a graduate from the Harvard law school. Miss Strickland is well known in Pendleton and throughout this county, having formerly lived here.

SHRINERS TO MEET.

Pendletonians go to Portland to Attend the Meeting. Leon Cohen and T. C. Taylor are in Portland to attend a meeting of the Mystic Shriners, and others who will attend from here are A. Alexander, William Slusher, Robert Forster, M. M. Wyrick, J. R. Dickson and W. D. Hansford. Some may not go, but most of them will. The meeting of the Shriners is a high event in Masonry, and members of that branch of the order set great store by it.

A Profitable Investment.

"I was troubled for seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Demick, Somerville, Ind. "I spent about $1000 and could get nothing to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. Tallman & Co. and Brock & McComas.

GROWTH IS PROVEN

PENDLETON MUST ERECT MORE SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Increase in Number of Pupils Makes This Necessary—Desired That Structure Be Placed in Two Wards. Pendleton's growth cannot be better proven than to state that the number of school pupils has increased so rapidly that two new buildings must be put up at once, or have the school system suffer from want of ample accommodations. In this place at the present time, are between 1200 and 1500 pupils actually attending school. Of this number about 1000 are in the public schools, and the other 300 to 500 in the Pendleton Academy and St. Joseph's Academy. On next Tuesday the board will hold a special election to ask the voters of the school district to authorize the purchase of a lot in north Pendleton, across the river, upon which to erect a building. Over there are something like 200 pupils desirous of attending school, or actually attending. The growth, across the river may be judged by the fact that below Walter's mill are 47 pupils who are in school or desire to attend. The board believes that the little people should not be compelled to walk so far as they must walk if they go from the extreme western end of the city on the north side to the central building on the hill, or to either of the ward schools. One in East End Also. It is proposed also to erect a building in the east end, to accommodate the children who live thereabouts. At this time, an old residence is utilized for a ward school, but the room is inadequate and the board thinks that sufficient accommodations should be provided. The affairs of the school district have been handled so as to warrant the improvements desired, and the proposition will be submitted to the district voters at the election to be held next Tuesday. Inquiry by the voters will reveal the truth of all that is here stated, and it is not likely that any opposition will develop to the plan for the proposed new structures. Pendleton has reason to be proud of the rapid growth of her schools. The necessity for more room is proof of the town's increased population. In the public schools now are 19 rooms with average of more than 50 to the room. Even though eight rooms be provided in addition to those now occupied, the schools will not have been given more than they need. It will be necessary also to increase the number of teachers, to care for the greater number of pupils that are now in the town and who will fill all the new rooms at once.

GRANDE RONDE SUGAR INDUSTRY GROWING.

Already 1700 Acres Contracted More Than That Tilled Last Year.

Joe F. Baker, a lawyer of La Grande, is at the St. George. He tells a story of growth in the beet industry that speaks well for the Grande Ronde valley, and promises much for that region. "About 1700 acres have been contracted for the culture of sugar beets more than was tilled for the crop of 1901," said Mr. Baker to the East Oregonian. "This will probably be further increased, so that the acreage in 1902 will in all likelihood be almost double that of last year. The industry is apparently upon a firm footing, and will continue as in the past, to add to the prosperity of our country."

Regarding the electric road to Cove, spoken of in the public prints of late, Mr. Baker stated that he could not tell anything definitely, but that it might not be built during the present year. It is understood that the owners of the sugar factory are interested in the project, but to what extent, or how they are willing to invest, is not known. It is believed that the road would be a good thing, and many citizens of Grande Ronde valley desire that it be pushed along. "However it may be with various enterprises connected with the sugar industry," said Mr. Baker, "it is certain that the present promise is for growth and advancement under prevailing conditions. Everything augurs well for the raising of sugar beets and their manufacture into sugar. Farmers who cultivate just enough land to enable them to properly till it are making money. It is to be doubted if any farmer in Oregon is making the profit per acre that John Caveniss is making. He is not the only one who is realizing a good thing from the Grande Ronde valley beet sugar enterprise."

WOODMEN PREPARE FOR BIGGEST EVENT

In the History of the Order on the Coast.

The Woodmen and Circle, in their joint convention yesterday, set April 21 and 22 as the dates on which they intend to have their big log-rolling and jubilee. Fourteen delegates, including those from the home and visiting camps and circles, were present, and all arrangements preliminary to the big time they expect to have were started on the road to making this one of the greatest events ever in the history of Woodcraft in this part of the country.

The executive committee was appointed with J. E. Krouse, of Pendleton, as chairman, Mrs. Minnie Sullivan, secretary, and A. A. Urquhart, of The Dalles, treasurer. This committee will have charge of all arrangements for the log-rolling and call themselves the 1144 committee, meaning that they expect to initiate 1144 candidates into the mysteries of Woodcraft, including the Woodmen of the World and Circles, on those two days. This, of course, will be done in secret, but the rest of the program, such as the musical and literary parts, will be open for all the public.

The Woodmen of Pendleton are preparing accommodations for 1000 members of the order, both ladies and gentlemen, beside the many visitors that are not members of the societies that are expected.
