CAPT. SAM WHITE

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN

VISITS PENDLETON TODAY.

is Working Upon a Thorough Plan for the Coming Campaign in the Spring.

Captain Sam White, of Baker City, chairman of the democratic state committee, is in Pendleton today. Captain White is devoting part of his time nowadays to the work of organization, and proposes to see that the Oregon democrats come into the coming campaign with vigor and strength.
He is stopping at the St. George, and has seen several local representatives of the party. He was asked regarding the status of affairs in his ballwick and replied:

"There is every reason to believe that events are shaping themselves to strengthen the party in Oregon. Thorough organization must be effected in the first place, and that is what is now being done. The campaign will present issues, and the party will take such a position upon them, that the voters will be attracted to the standard. It is too early to go into details.
Organization must first be effected.
But, when the issues are made up, and the fight begins, the democracy will be found to occupy a strong position."

Captain White is exhibiting considerable energy, and will direct the business of his office with good judgment and vigor.

CLEAVER BROTHERS

HAVE SOLD OUT.

The Purchasers Are Dindinger, Wilson & Company.

Cleaver Brothers have sold their stock of shoes and good will which they have run in this city for the past nine years, to W. H. Dindinger and J.
V. Wilson, and the business will be
firm name of Dindinger, Wilson & Co., but who compose the "Co." will be kept in the background for the present.

Mr. Dindinger is the clerk of the Boston Store, where he has been for the past eight months, and in that time has made many friends in Pendleton. He has had many years experience in the merchandise business in Seattle and other places. Mr. Wilson recently came here from Eugene, where he was for years connected with the First National Bank of that place.

The new firm have completed the invoice of the goods and took possession this morning. The store is already well stocked with the latest in footwear and the new proprietors intend to lay in a much larger and more complete stock.

To Our Patrons and Friends.

The firm of Cleaver Bros., conducting the Cleaver Bros. Shoe Store, has disposed of the business to Dindinger, Wilson & Co., who will continue the business in the same location. We take this method of assuring our patrons that they will receive the same or better treatment, as well as quality of goods, as we have given our trade for the past nine years, and we believe for them the same liberal patronage. Thanking not only our many patrons and friends, but our business associates for their patronage and many courtesies, and asking them to continue the same to our successors, we are,
CLEAVER BROS.,

FINE WOOL CLIP WILL

COME FROM THE SHEEP

Next Spring, Says E. H. Clarke, the Well-Known Buyer and Export.

E. H. Clarke, who is regarded as one of the best posted wool men on the Pacific Coast, stated to the East Oregonian yesterday that the sheep men have enjoyed this winter very much, for the reason that the weather has been such as to cause a very fine growth of wool, as to quality and quantity. The evenness of the weather has induced a growth in the fibre without the breaks that are produced when cold snaps occur. Cold snaps cause the wool to stop growing for the time, and this is what causes the weak places in the fibre.

Early in the winter the sheep men were worrying about the conditions, for the reason that it was so dry, but the later fall of moisture and the warm weather have combined to bring almost ideal conditions to those who own the sheep bands of this part of the coast.

WHEAT IS WEAKER.

No Sales of Note During the Week Past.

Wheat has fallen again in price in the local market. Today it is quoted at 51 cents per bushel and is not very strong at that figure. No sales of note have been recorded for a week past, and the probability is that little will be sold until the price again goes up.

MRS. DENNY WANTS DIVORCE.

After Three Years of Married Life She Seeks Separation.

Hattie Denny vs. J. C. Denny, is the title of an action filed at the court house yesterday for divorce. Plaintiff alleges that something like two years ago defendant contracted the habit of gross drunkenness and by reason thereof has become unfit to perform his duties as a citizen or to properly care for his family, and has failed to care for or provide for plaintiff, who has been compelled to support herself by her own labors.

Plaintiff and defendant were married in Benton county, Oregon, June 9, 1898, and the complaint alleges that at all times since she has conducted herself in a proper and becoming manner toward defendant, but she now prays the court to dissolve the bonds of marriage existing between them, and grant her such other relief as seems meet. They have no children.
J. H. Lawrey is attorney for plaintiff.

DeMott Sues Beeny.

George R. DeMott has sued Theodore Beeny and wife for $106 due for goods purchased in 1905, when plaintiff was in partnership with Frank S.
Landry, doing business under the firm name of Landry & DeMott, in Pendleton. Plaintiff alleges that in 1897 defendant gave his note for the amount due, but since that time time pay has been demanded time and again but always refused. Mr. DeMott now asks the court to give him judgment against defendants for the original sum of $106 and interest thereon from the 27th day of February, 1899, at the rate of 6 per cent, and $15 attorney's fees with the costs and disbursements of suit. H. J. Bean is attorney for plaintiff.

JUDGE LOWELL'S LECTURE.

He Spoke Before Pacific University at Forest Grove.

Judge Stephen A. Lowell lectured in the college last evening, says the Forest Grove Times. His theme, "Climbing the Heights," was an appeal to higher living; that each one should strive to be one of those who "count" because they have done something.
He traced the marvelous growth of our civilization from the time of Alfred and noted the famous men who have marked this period into epochs.
In the greatest advance that the world is making now, he urged that it is these who think and then act that will put their names in the master class.
Courage, confidence, high thinking, personal character must combine in the one who would scale the heights of fame, and mark the twentieth man who leads the other nineteen. The lecture throughout abounded in good things, all helpful and encouraging to the aspirant or serious in the strenuous life.

He was listened to by a good audience of students and town people, who showed their appreciation by frequent applause.

RETURNED SATISFIED.

Alex. Oliver and Family Come Back From Deer Lodge, Mont.

Alex. Oliver, formerly of Echo, has returned from Deer Lodge, Mont., with his family and has bought a place in lower Pendleton, where he will make his home. Mr. Oliver expresses himself, as do all who go away seeking better localities, that he is now well satisfied with Pendleton and Umatilla county, and proposes here to end his days. He finds that this is the best place he has found, yet, and thinks he would have to hunt far and wide to discover the region in which better conditions would obtain for the man who is willing to work and do something for himself.

CHANGE OF LIFE

Some Sensible Advice to Women by
Mrs. E. Sailer,

President German Relief Association, Los Angeles, Cal.

Owing to modern methods of living, not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms.

Those dreadful hot flashes, sending the blood surging to the heart until it seems ready to burst, and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, as if the heart were going to stop for good, are only a few of the symptoms of a dangerous nervous trouble. The nerves are crying out for assistance. The cry should be heeded in time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life, and all women who use it pass through this trying period with comfort and safety.

MRS. E. SAILER.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I passed through what is known as 'change of life,' I had two years' suffering,—sudden heat, and as quick chills would pass over me; my appetite was variable and I never could tell for a day at a time how I would feel the next day. Five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound changed all that, my days became days of health, and I have enjoyed every day since,—now six years.

"We have used considerable of your Vegetable Compound in our charitable work, as we find that to restore a poor mother to health so she can support herself and those dependent upon her, if such there be, is truer charity than to give other aid. You have my hearty endorsement, for you have proven yourself a true friend to suffering women."
—MRS. E. SAILER, 736 1/2 Hill St., Los Angeles, Cal.

When one stops to think about the good Mrs. Sailer derived from Mrs.
Pinkham's advice and medicine, it seems almost beyond belief yet it is all true as stated in her letter published above at her own request.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

As a matter of positive fact Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of letters from women who have been safely carried through that danger period 'Change of Life.' Mrs. Sailer's cure is not an unusual one for Mrs. Pinkham's medicine to accomplish.

No other person can give such helping advice to women who are sick as can Mrs. Pinkham, for none have had such a great experience—her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice free—if you are sick write her—you are foolish if you don't.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find the above testimonial letter is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
