His neighbors on Birch Creek express themselves as being sorry that he is to leave that neighborhood.
One advantage of reading a serial story in a daily newspaper is that an installment of convenient length is received every day that does not consume an undue amount of the reader's time. An installment of a high-grade serial story appears in every issue of the Chicago Record-Herald—a popular feature of that enterprising Chicago daily. Every issue contains also a short illustrated humorous story on the editorial page. Readers of the Chicago Record-Herald can depend upon a never-failing source of pleasant entertainment in the noteworthy fiction that is always to be found in its columns.

Death of Mrs. Hancock.

Walla Walla, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Nancy E. Hancock died in this city yesterday, aged 52 years. For several months Mrs. Hancock had been in poor health and her death was not unexpected. Four sons and a daughter survive the deceased. Funeral services were held today from the home of Mrs. W. R. Hammond, at Mountain View.

The infant Maria Christina, the widow of Don Sebastian, is dead. She was born in 1833.

PENDLETON WON

CONTEST FOR TEAMS OF PYTHIAN LODGES.

Second Annual Convention of Umatilla District Was a Success.

Yesterday and last night will long be remembered by Knights of Pythias as one of the pleasant events of their history in Umatilla county, and especially will Pendleton retain a pleasant memory of the second annual convention of the five lodges in the county.

Pythian Lodge No. 29, of Athena, was represented by 30 members; Stevens No. 49, of Weston, sent a delegation of 25, and Hercules No. 51, of Milton, 25; Pleiades No. 74, of Helix, sent 30 from their lodge. These, in addition to the more than 200 of Damon Lodge, No. 4, of Pendleton, made a total of 300 Knights of Pythias who were in town and enlivened the streets by their presence. There were many others from other towns.

After the convention was called to order at 2:50 by Grand Vice-Chancellor J. W. Maloney, of this city, who gave a short talk as preliminary opening remarks, the minutes of the previous convention were read by Secretary L. W. Held. The election of a chairman was the next in order and Grand Vice-Chancellor Maloney was honored with this place. Lee W. Held was elected secretary.

The address of welcome was delivered by Past Chancellor J. H. Gwinn, of Pendleton, which was very good and made the visitors feel at home. This address was replied to by E. S. Waterman, representing Pythian No. 29, of Athena; M. A. Baker, Stevens No. 49, of Weston; V. H. Chastain, Hercules No. 51, Milton. Helix was not represented in responses.

The quartet composed of Messrs. Rader, Privett, Sharp and Fletcher, rendered music which enlivened the entertainment.
J. H. Aitkin, of Huntington, delivered an address and was followed by Past Grand Chancellor W. L. Bradshaw, of The Dalles. Past Supreme representative W. M. Cake, of Portland, was on the program to talk along the same lines, but was not present. Pythianism followed by Past Grand Chancellor J. P. Kennedy, of Portland. Herman Wine, of Astoria, who was to have given the Knights something along the line of "Wise Thoughts," was also not present.

Others who were not here and were to have given something toward the program, were: Supreme Representative Turner Oliver, of La Grande; L. R. Stinson, G. R. of R. S. of Salem; M. F. Davis, G. I. G., of Union.
To fill in the places of those on the program who were absent, Grand Chancellor F. E. Handschy, of Whatcom, and G. W. Jett, of Baker City, each delivered short addresses, which closed the afternoon session.

They again met at the La Dow hall at 7:30, when the secret work of the society was gone through and the floor prepared for the five waiting candidates, who were to receive the third degree and were the victims for the competitive drill which was put on to determine what lodge had the best and most perfectly drilled team among the five represented. This work lasted until 3:30 o'clock, when F. F. Handschy, of Whatcom; G. W. Jett, of Baker City, and J. P. Kennedy, of Portland, were selected as judges by the executive committee to determine the winning team and award the prize of a beautiful altar Bible and altar sword to Damon No. 4, of Pendleton.

This over 217 Knights repaired to the Golden Rule hotel, where a bounteous spread, consisting of the best the land could afford, had been ordered and was spread before the then weary and hungry visitors and local participants in the evening's festivities and work.

Walla Walla Pythians to Feast.
Walla Walla, Jan. 21.—Columbia lodge No. 8, Knights of Pythias, is preparing for the reception to be given Grand Chancellor F. E. Handschy on Friday night, when the official visit to the lodge will occur. A meeting will be held and Mr. Handschy will deliver an address. A sumptuous spread will follow.

WOODMEN HAVE A JOINT INSTALLATION

Camp and Circle, with Three Hundred Present, Induct Officers for the Term.

At the Armory hall last night, Pendleton Camp, No. 41, and Daphne Circle, No. 2, installed their officers: Ian C. C. Van Orsdall and W. J. Strever acting as installing officers.

The floor work of the two teams was something out of the ordinary, and was very prettily executed, the guards for the Circle appearing in black dresses with a sash of the colors of the circle, and a chiffon puff in the hair. The team for the camp were in black suits with a sash of the colors of the camp.

The execution of the different formations were made like veterans, consisting of the following: The open wedge during installation; the letters W. O. W. standing for the Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft, these letters made in double, first half by the ladies and last half by the men; the circle with in a wedge, the wedge within the circle; the cross, and the double wedge, all of these being implements and emblematic of each craft.

About three hundred witnessed it. After the ceremonies a dance was enjoyed until midnight, every one being pleased with the evening's enjoyment and friendly disposed to the members of the circle and Woodmen for the excellent lesson taught by the exemplification of the floor work.

In a short time, 32 of the Women of Woodcraft will present combination figures, letters and drill work that will be something new in lodgecraft.

Log Rolling.

The joint log-rolling campaign has started in real earnest, reports coming from all the camps and circles of district "B" showing enthusiasm and interest.

The war cry, "For 1144," seems like a large number to be initiated in eastern Oregon, but the officers and executive committee feel safe in saying that they will not only reach the mark but will go beyond it. Several camps and circles have reported several applications, and when work begins in real earnest, chips and logs will follow by the wholesale.

It is not amiss at this time to say to the people of Pendleton that on April 21st and 22nd, the Woodmen of the World and the Women of Woodcraft are to initiate 1144 candidates, and with this number there will probably be a thousand visitors in Pendleton on those two days. Of course, Pendleton will furnish 414 of these candidates. The buttons seen on the coats of the local Woodmen with the figures 2-20-2 means that Pendleton camp pledges herself to furnish 222 members for initiation, and the figures 192 means Daphne Circle will furnish that number. A month later information will be given to the public showing them the magnitude of this log-rolling campaign. It will enliven Pendleton, and bring to town at least a thousand or more people to be here two days. Special organizers will be in the field and both crafts will show the strength of their arms.

MUST LOSE AN EYE.

Andy Anderson Will Submit to an Operation in Portland.

Word by telephone this afternoon from A. Anderson, who went to Portland yesterday to have his right eye treated, is that it will have to be removed in order to save the other. Mr. Anderson received a slight bruise to the eye during the football game here on New Year's day between Pendleton and Heppner, but thought little of it at the time, thinking that it would get well and give him little trouble. Instead of getting better it got worse, and he concluded to go to Portland to consult a professional oculist with the above result. His sister, Miss Carrie Anderson, leaves this evening for Portland to attend him.

ATHENA GOT A MOVE.

Raised $500 for a Baseball Team and Will Do Something.

Pendleton baseball players have had considerable to say recently about organizing a team and preparing themselves to meet outside players, but while they were talking and hesitating about getting into action, Athena players and enthusiasts were not asleep. Word comes from that Saturday night a meeting was held when $500 was raised as a starter towards organizing and maintaining a paid baseball nine for the coming season. This move on the part of the Athena people was quite a surprise to those back of the Pendleton enthusiasts, as it was the intention to secure some of the players that will compose the Athena team for the locals.

Shriners Return Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cohen, T. C. Taylor, William Slusher and M. M. Wyrick have returned from Portland, where the gentlemen attended the annual meeting of the Mystic Shriners. This is one of the events looked forward to by the Masons with considerable interest. What is called the "Scottish degree" or 32d degree, was conferred on a large class, consisting of 35 members from the territory represented at the state annual meeting. Mrs. T. C. Taylor, who accompanied them, remained and will visit a few days in Portland.
