PALOMA--JAN. 31

THE WONDERFUL CHILD PIANIST IS COMING

She Has Played Before Kings and Emperors in Many Foreign Countries—The Children Especially Interested.

Paloma is coming, the child pianist who charmed the people of Pendleton two years ago with her wonderful playing of classical numbers. It will be an engagement that will attract the musical people, and also all of the children. Indeed, it will be the general desire to witness Paloma's marvellous renditions, which have been improved very much during the two years that has intervened between her last appearance here and the present time. She has been a pupil of the world's famous Herr Thilo Becker, of the Leipzig Conservatory and pupil of Krause. And her tutelage has added much of art to her work.

The contract with Paloma was signed yesterday, and calls for her appearance here on January 31, one week from tomorrow night. She will come to Pendleton, where she is to play before the students of Whitman College. Her appearance in Seattle and Portland and all the other coast cities has been the occasion for enthusiastic testimonials of her excellence.

Regarding the report that she was ill a year ago, it is found that there is no truth in the story. At the time, she was in Switzerland, and enjoying the best of health. She was, in fact, giving concerts before crowned heads during the season when she was there.

Prices have been fixed at 50 cents for adults, and 25 cents for children under twelve, all school children will be admitted for 25 cents.

Human Hearts Jan. 2.
The distinctly American play depends to a great extent on the portrayal of character and scenes which are to a degree of a local nature. Thus "Shore Acres" deals with the inhabitants of the coast of Maine; "The Old Homestead" with the natives of New Hampshire and "Human Hearts", which is shortly to be seen here, with the peaceful lives of those who live in the picturesque Arkansas Hills. Admitting as it does of elaborate scenic effects, this advantage, it is said, Manager W. E. Nankeville has eagerly seized to supply to his patrons something out of the ordinary in the way of stage illusion. It is also stated that he has secured the services of an exceptionally good company for the portrayal of the characters in "Human Hearts," those particularly adapted to impersonate the type of people living in the state of Arkansas. "Human Hearts" is announced for the 25th.

Diamond Bros' Minstrels.

The Sioux City, Iowa, Journal says of this show: "The Diamond Bros' Big White Minstrels opened a two nights' engagement at the Grand last night to a packed house which bestowed liberal applause on the performance. The company presented a better program than any other minstrel company that ever visited this city. The work of its comedians, S. Hood, F. Horton, C. Garfield, F. Gallagher, J. Ryan and G. Williams met with especial success of the house their jokes being new and therefore something of a novelty. The Ollo work was excellent and startling throughout." At the Fraser Jan. 24.

"Rupert of Hentzau," Jan. 28.

The dramatization of that masterly romance, "Rupert of Hentzau," the sequel to Anthony Hope's "The Prisoner of Zenda," has afforded opportunity for another stage favorite, the romantic hero. The dashing Rasendyll of the "Prisoner of Zenda" appears once more in "Rupert of Hentzau," and is made to achieve even more dashing and romantic things than in the first Zenda story. The duel in the third act of "Rupert of Hentzau," in particular, offers a scene more stirring in its action and unique in its climax than anything yet attempted in the romantic drama.

Murry and Mack.

Local theater goers are keenly interested in the coming engagement of the original Murry and Mack and their latest laughing vehicle, "Shooting the Chutes," which will be presented at the Fraser on January 30. Somehow there is an indescribable strength in the title of "Shooting the Chutes," which appeals with a sort of magnetic influence to the amusement loving public.

MISCALLED "HAIR TONICS."

Mout Hair Preparations Are Merely Scalp Irritants, of No Value.

Most hair preparations are merely scalp irritants, miscalled hair tonics. When hair is brittle, lusterless and begins to fall out, the dandruff germ is getting in its deadly work at the root, sapping the vitality. Since science discovered that dandruff is a germ disease there has been only one preparation put on the market that will actually destroy the dandruff germ, and that is Newbro's Herpicide. It allays itching instantly, destroys the germ; and the falling hair stops, and hair grows luxuriantly. Ask your druggist for Herpicide. It allays itching instantly; makes hair grow.

TROUBLES OF THE REFORMING MAYOR.

Seth Low Already Draws Forth Criticism From Parkhurst, on New York's Situation.

Seth Low has been mayor of Greater New York for only a few days, when he finds that "the fierce light that beats about a throne" has made him a target of criticism, for not so soon as this showing some fruits from the campaign of reform that placed him in the office.

Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst gave out a letter addressed to Mr. Low which had been adopted by the executive committee of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, of which Dr. Parkhurst is president. "The opening paragraph reads:

"While the Society for the Prevention of Crime counts itself distinctly an ally of the present municipal administration, there are certain principles of action to which we have uniformly adhered and which we deem it incumbent upon ourselves to pursue and to urge, even at the risk of excepting the old policy of those whom we would like to see in all respects to second and support. In all our past activity as a society we have proceeded upon the distinct understanding that law exists for the purpose of being obeyed."

The letter goes on to say that the first two weeks of the present regime have made it "entirely indefinite as to what civic righteousness in this city is and what it is not, and to that extent it has operated to put the reform administration in the same original attitude toward law as was that occupied by the administrations of '2, '3, '97, and 1899." It deplores the fact that "while chartered by the state to labor for the prevention of crime, the society is not quite certain any longer what is crime," and says that the "atmosphere is clouded by ambiguity emanating from administrative uncertainty," and that "the situation is morally intolerable." The letter further says that "there is not very much to choose between a Tammany administration that has had principles and a reform administration that has good principles but is afraid to use them."

The letter, which is signed by Dr. Parkhurst, concludes by demanding of Mayor Low that "you brace your administration in accord with your oath," and that he summon resources at his command to the work of "frankly and resolutely suppressing open or clandestine violations of recognized statutes."

This action is construed as a breach between the reformers and the reform administration.
