HE HAS FRIENDS

REV. MR. HARRIS WILL BE FREED.

Charge Against Him Probably Never to Come to Trial—Neighbors Believe His Innocence.
 The Rev. W. E. Potwine has returned from Cove, where he went to look into the case of the Rev. Mr. Harris, who was arrested upon the charge of criminal intimacy. He found that people thereabouts believe firmly in the innocence of Mr. Harris, which was true everywhere he is known, here as well as in other places. Mr. Potwine believes the case will not come to trial, and that it will be dismissed without being taken up. Mr. Harris has given bail and has the loyal support of his friends in the matter.

ALBA STOCKMEN SOLD 100 BEEF CATTLE.

Rod McDonald, Ben Ogle and Robert Watt Brought Them in for Sound Market.

Rod McDonald, Ben Ogle and Robert Watt are in town, having brought in 100 head of beef cattle, which were bought by the Pacific Meat Company of Tacoma, through their buyer, Lonergan, for $4.25 per hundred. Those sold by Watt and McDonald averaged 1200 to the steer, and those by Ogle 1115.

"These cattle," said Mr. McDonald, "are about all in the Camas valley that were ready for the beef market. We had fed them on hay during the winter. The winter has been too mild, there being no snow in the valley when we left three days ago. By this time, I presume, snow has fallen and if it has, everyone will be glad. The seasons in which snow falls to come plentifully in the mountains are usually followed by summers in which the streams run dry and the scarcity of water interferes with all industries."

"Teams have been hauling lumber directly from the Bisher mills to the Oriental mines, and this may now be stopped by the coming of heavy snow on the higher mountains over which they must pass to reach those mines. The Bisher creamery is remaining as usual."

"YOUR MONEY BACK."

The Diamond Minsters Manager Guarantees Satisfaction Tonight.

George D. Louden, manager of the Diamond Brothers' minstrels, which appear here tonight, called at the East Oregonian office today and said: "Please say to the people that we offer money back tonight to all who are not pleased with the entertainment. We guarantee a good performance and are willing that the people be the judges whether or not it is good."

The company arrived in their special car after an exciting experience five miles out from Pendleton as the train was coming this way from La Grande. One of the hangers that hold the car from the trucks, broke, and let the car down onto the trucks with a jar that made a commotion among the members of the troupe. It was not serious, however, and the damage is being repaired today. But an escape from injury is what most of the people who were in the car think they had.

Patient Recovering.

Herbert Boylen, 11-year-old son of Herbert Boylen, Sr., who was thrown by a horse and received injuries which caused concussion of the brain, at his home near Pilot Rock, is reported to be improving and is now able to recognize those about him.
 Walter Cargill, who received almost the same kind of injury and was unconscious for several hours with his life despaired of, has been brought to town by his father, David Cargill, from the Middle Cold Springs country, and is getting along nicely now. Dr. Smith, who had both cases, says that last summer he had a case of Miss Bertha Eggers, of the same neighborhood, who was hurt identically the same way as the two boys, making three in the last six months.

Economical Expense.

You cannot make an advertisement too plain, and the right sort of illustrations will help. Sometimes their expensiveness precludes their use, but quite often the most expensive expense is the one that is not incurred. Sometimes it is really extravagant not to spend money. If you have a ten-dollar space in the paper, you had better spend five dollars more, if necessary, to make it attractive and effective.—Good Advertising.

Some Births.

Dr. Smith reports the following births:
 To Mr. and Mrs. Bert Atkins, of the Oliver ranch, west of town, on the 22d, a girl.
 To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miner, of the Middle Cold Springs, on the 22d, a girl.
 To Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Snider, of the Despain gulch, the 21st, a boy.

Attention Sir Knights.
