GROWERS OF WOOL

SHEEPMEN ARE IN

HELENA, MONTANA

Governor Toole Welcomed the Dele gates-Prominent Woolmen to Read Papers, and Many Are in Attend-

Helena, Feb. 4.- The Northwest Woolgrowers' convention delegates welcomed by Governor J. K. Toole and Mayor Frank J. Edwards, with a response for the visiting delegates by Frank J. Hagenbarth, of Spencer, Idaho. A half dozen promi-nent sheep men have been asked to read papers.

One of the most important discussions will be that pertaining to winter feeding. I. D. O'Donnell, of Billings, one of the pioneers in the sheep industry, will read a paper upon the subject giving his colleagues in the industry the benefit of his experience. With the growth of the sheep industry in Montana has come into prominence alfalfa as a forage crop. Where irrigation is possible as high as four crops a year may be raised; and the land owner is certain of three crops. Rapid strides are being made by the alfalfa industry as an adjunct to the sheep business and the acreage this year is far in excess of what it has been at any time in the past.

Many interesting papers will be read. Commissioner of Agriculture J. A. Ferguson will address himself to a discussion of "The Possibilities of Woolen Manufacture in the West": Professor J. W. Blankinship, of Bozeman, will describe poisonous as they have been identified by mi-croscopical investigation; R. C. Judson, of Portland, will speak on "Range Grasses"; Profess r Emil Starz and Dr. M. E. Knowles will present a joint paper upon "Scab" illustrated by stereopticon views; J. W. will talk about Goats"; Professor Shaw, of Bozeman will tell of the experiments with sheep fed on different feed during the winter at the state experiment station.

Montana was singularly honored last year in the election of one of its foremost citizens as president of the association and as it qualifies fully to the claim of being the greatest fleece year Montana sheep men clipped 30. shorse power gasoline engine with pipes and fittings, oil tanks the neighborhood of 4,500,000 sheep.

THRILLING STORY.

Situations.

Wednesday evening, is said to be a of a delightful story.

THE NAVAL OFFICER WHO RECITED "HOCH DER KAISER"

Captain J. B. Coglan, as all newspaper readers remember, recited at banquet in New York, "Hoch der Kaiser," and entailed the wrath of the "Angora German emperor. Coglan may be turned down during Prince Henry's visit, as a consequence of his banquet recitation.

Economical Expense.

You cannot make an advertisement ing one, but unlike the stereotyped too plain, and the right sort of illustrations will elp. Sometimes their expensiveness precludes their use, al manner. The comedy element fart but quite often the most expensive ly bubbles with good wholesome mirth expense is the one that is not incurand the sharpest kind of homely wit: red. Sometimes it is really extravailluminating the darker background gant not to spend money. If you have The a ten-dollar space in the paper, you proved that Electric play is splendidly staged, the settings had better spend five dollars more, being prepared with care to fulfill all if necessary, to make it attractive the demands of the situations and to a d off ctive.—Goood dvertising.

Pleasant Winter Weather Prevails in Camas Valley.

Alba, Feb. 4. There is six inches of snow and pleasant winter weather. Stock of all kinds are now fed, although there are a few horses yet on the range pawing for a living. Although hay is not very plentiful, the valley is good for two months' feed for stock.

The telephone office is removed in-A. S. Quant's new store. Quant also has the postoffice and stage office.

Miss Jennie Vanhoy, of Weston, is visiting relatives here. There will be a masquerade ball here Feb. 14. William Howard is on the sick

R. H. Vanhook is repairing A. Mackenzie's house. Mr. Vanhook has rented Walter Rinehart's ranch and will move there in March. He has had Dan Comb's palace rented for the past three years.

Mrs. Bisher's creamery caught fire a few days ago, but many willing hands soon stopped the flames. Very little damage was done. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks. Charles Davis, 12 years old, who had his hands badly frozen on January 25, is setting along all right and will not lose any of his fingers, as it was feared at first.

James Balden constructed last summer the first brick house ever built in Camas Prairie. Mr. Baldin's residence is situated on his ranch in the southeast part of this valley, and is a modern piece of architecture. Mr. Baldin molded the brick here himself.

A visit to Ukiah found J. B. Deapain a very busy man. He is paymaster for the Oriental mine, and stated that he pays monthly to employes $1500.

Mr. Despain also has teams hauling logs to his saw mill, which he will start in the early spring.

Teams are now hauling lumber on sleds from Alba to the mines. It is reported that the Oriental company will build a saw mill in the spring at the mines, build a square flume 3x5 eight miles long, and will work 150 men. From now on for a while work will be a little slack on account of scarcity of lumber.

A Deep Mystery

It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness. sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles," writ-s Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia. 'and a lame back pained me so I ould not dress myself, but Electric Local merchants who expect local Bitters wholly cured me, and, al-ewspapers to protect their business though 73 years old, I now m able to do all my housework." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite,
