MISCELLANEOUS.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,
 Treasury Department, Office of the Controller of the Currency, Washington, D. C., January 16, 1922. Whereas by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that the First National Bank of Pendleton, in the city of Pendleton, in the county of Umatilla and state of Oregon, has complied with all of the provisions of the "Act of Congress to enable National Banking associations to extend their corporate existence, and for other purposes," approved July 12, 1922.

Now, therefore, I, William B. Ridgely, Controller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The First National Bank of Pendleton," in the City of Pendleton, in the county of Umatilla and state of Oregon, is authorized to have succession for the period specified in its amended articles of association, namely, until close of business on January 16, 1922.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand and Seal of office this sixteenth day of January, 1922.

W. B. RIDGELY,
 Controller of the Currency.

NOTES OF THE FASHIONS.

New Notions in Feminine Finery That Are Noticed in the Latest Costumes.

Many long capes and cloaks are of smooth or rough faced cloth, with revers and collars of fur.

Long pieces of mink cut away in front and lined with some handsome Dresden silk are to be fashionable for middle-aged women.

Muffs are a trifle larger. Later on it is predicted that the fancy muff of fur, lace and velvet will be worn with velvet costumes, says a fashion authority.

Velvet Louis XV. jackets are finished off with some dark fur. Russian and Hudson bay sable, mink, Persian lamb and stone marten will be used for separate fur trimming.

Rough, loosely-woven black goods, striped or dotted in white or sprinkled with camel's hair, seem likely to be much in vogue, and several models are shown by tailors make use of this material, with touches of blue ciel in the trimming.

Crepes de chine promises to be a continued favorite, and all delicate colors, with much white will be used. The waists are tucked or plain, with shirt or bishop sleeves, just as one chooses. Yokes have appeared on some of the heavy waists, but these will not become generally popular until later in the season.

Hand work in tucks, herringbone, embroidery and applique still holds its own on soft materials. Stitchings and stitched bands are also stylish, but stitching in contrasting color is now considered a bit odd. Silk in the color of the goods or a shade lighter or darker should be used for stitching. Bands of broche and Dresden silks are also used to trim many swagger fall gowns.

Some very attractive effects are obtained in the less conspicuous of the zibelines, and for severe street gowns they are used quite successfully. Narrow stripes in red and black, green and black or blue and black, thickly sprinkled with white hairs, are among the most effective and least conspicuous of these rough roads. Plain greens and reds with the hairy effect in black are acceptable, too.

Since velvet is to be stylish in many uses, it will appear often in modified Louis XV. coats. One exquisite model gown had a flounced skirt and a coat that suggested the Louis model in its outlines and length, but it was simpler and with fewer frills than is usual. The garment was snug-fitting, with the familiar skirt that is slightly cut away at the front, and included a narrow vest of embroidered white satin with plain, slightly bell sleeves, while the neck was finished with a high straight collar.

FROM MANY LANDS.

In proportion to its population New Zealand is the richest country in public libraries. It has 298.

Indian and Ceylon tea has increased in quantity from 152,000,000 pounds in 1890 to 400,000,000 pounds in 1900.

The elephant beetle of Venezuela is the largest insect known. One has been found to weigh seven ounces.

Britain is the best foreign customer of the United States, Canada third, Australasia ninth and British Africa twelfth.

Brazil is one of England's best customers for coal. She takes 2,000,000 tons a year out of 3,500,000 sent to the whole of the Americas.

An African elephant is valuable only for its ivory, of which a full-grown animal yields 120 pounds, worth $250 to $300. A working Indian elephant cannot be bought for less than $500 to $700.

The New York scheme of placing chairs in Central park for rent does not seem to be a great success.
