TO INVADE PORTLAND.

Letson Balliet May Establish a Newspaper There.

Letson Balliet, the mining operator, is proving to be a revelation to Eastern Oregon. Contrary to all expectations, he persists in doing the very things which his enemies predict it is impossible for him to do.

The knockers predicted that Balliet would never open the White Swan, but, as was reported in the Review last week, he is opening it, and on a scale to make the pessimist stare. He is the first mine operator in Eastern Oregon who fought the knockers to a finish.

Nor will he confine himself to this camp if I am rightly informed. At one time the Oregonian wantonly attacked Balliet, who is credited with a long memory, and his next step will be to move on Harvey Scott's stronghold with a modern plant for a well equipped daily paper, to be issued in Portland. That attack may prove costly for the Oregonian.—San Francisco Mining and Electrical Review.

Chicago Democrats Go South.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—More than 250 silk-tiled members of the famous Cook County Democratic Marching Club, leave on a special train this evening to take in the Charleston Exposition, and incidentally visit other places of interest in the South. Stops will be made at Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Columbus, Old Point Comfort, Newport News, Richmond, Danville, Charlotte, Charleston, Atlanta, Savannah, Macon, Rome, Lookout Mountain, Lexington and Louisville.

Shoe Men Discuss Trade Topics.

Boston, Feb. 6.—The Retail Shoe Dealers' League of the United States opened its annual convention in Boston today with a large and representative attendance. The purpose of the meeting, which will be in session two days, is to formulate plans of securing uniform treatment from the manufacturers in the matter of prices, rebates and kindred subjects.

Novel Banquet to Carnegie.

New York, Feb. 6.—The Carnegie Laboratory of Engineering, connected with the Stevens Institute of Technology, at Hoboken, was formerly dedicated today with interesting ceremonies. At a banquet to be held this evening the guest of honor will be Mr. Carnegie, who a year ago gave to the trustees of the institute $65,000 with which the laboratory was built. Set in a solid silver box, the model of the first "T" rail patented by old John Stevens will be presented to Mr. Carnegie.

A Negro Lynched.

Nicholasville, Ky., Feb. 6.—Con Brown, a negro who assaulted a white girl last night, was taken from the officers by a mob this afternoon and lynched.

Editors Meet and Talk.

Indianapolis, Feb. 6.—The men who work with pen and brain all the year round to keep the democracy of the Hoosier state alive came to this city today to meet together and listen to the word of democratic leaders. The members of the democratic editorial association are in the city. The Grand hotel is the headquarters of the association, and the majority of the 100 editors who arrived today are registered there. The gathering was formally called to order by Major J. R. Simpson of Paoli. Other prominent editors in attendance were: A. D. Moffett, of Elwood; J. A. Barnes, of Auburn; Bayard Gray, of Frankfort; and A. B. Crampton, of Delhi. The convention concludes with a banquet for which elaborate arrangements have been made.

Ready for Mardi Gras.

New Orleans, Feb. 6.—The opening of Mardi Gras week finds the Crescent City in holiday mood and prepared to enjoy the carnival celebration to the full. Hotels and boarding houses are overflowing with visitors, hundreds of whom are here from the north and east, as well as from all parts of the south. The festivities will be formally inaugurated tonight with the parade of Momus Rex and his royal retinue will make their appearance Monday, and will be presented with the keys of the city with ceremonies and pageantry in full accordance with the customs of the past.

Will Bridge Salt Lake.

Salt Lake City, Feb. 6.—The report that the Southern Pacific is planning to bridge the great Salt Lake is confirmed by the local officials of the road. The project has been contemplated for many years, but no active steps toward its realization were taken until the development of recent years in engineering made it feasible. The bridge will be 23 miles long, 12 miles of which is through deep water, and will be on permanent trestling. The balance is over shallow water and will be on dirt embankment, faced with stone.

Founders Day at Eureka.

Eureka, Ill., Feb. 6.—An interesting program was carried out at Eureka College today in celebration of Founders Day. The exercises were participated in by members of the faculty, students and alumni, and friends of the institution from all parts of the state. Among the speakers were Alfred Baylis, state superintendent, of public instruction; Dr. Edwin C. Hewitt, of Normal, and President Charles A. Blanchard, of Wheaton college.

New Jersey Y. M. C. A.

Camden, N. J., Feb. 6.—Delegates from all parts of the state are attending the biennial convention of the state Y. M. C. A., which began here today. An attractive three days' program will be carried out, concluding with a big mass meeting in the Camden theater Saturday night. Among the prominent speakers to be heard is Captain Joseph C. Coghlin, U. S. N. Officers' reports show the association to be in a flourishing condition.

Benefit for Laura Burt.

New York, Feb. 6.—The playgoing public was interested today in the benefit to Laura Burt, the actress, who was seriously injured recently at New Haven by being thrown from a horse. All of the leading managers, actors and actresses co-operated in the arrangements for the benefit, which was held at the Casino Theater. The professional women's league presented a one-act play, and Thomas Q. Seabrooke, Virginia Earle and other prominent players appeared.

Irish Nationalists Welcomed.

New York, Feb. 6.—William H. K. Redmond, M. P., and Joseph Devlin, of Belfast, the Irish envoys who arrived on the steamer Cymric, were given a rousing welcome today by the Nationalists and other Irish societies of Greater New York. The two envoys will make a tour of the United States for the purpose of completing the work of organizing the United Irish League of America.

Wreckage From Mattoawan.

Port Townsend, Feb. 6.—The steamer Alice Gertrude, arriving from Neah Bay this morning, brought wreckage consisting of a medicine chest, a life preserver and a bucket, all stamped with the name "Mattoawan," except the chest, which was empty.

It was a Beer Check.

All is not woe and lamentation and profanity on the transit company's street cars. Occasionally there is a smile.

The other day a respectable old lady boarded an Olive street car at Leffingwell avenue, and when the conductor came through she handed him what she supposed to be a nickel and sank back in her seat. The conductor looked at it and then at her, but could not get her attention. After an instant of indecision he said: "Madam, I am very sorry, but this is not a nickel," started to hand it back.

"Not a nickel!" she exclaimed. "What is it?"

"It's a beer check," said the conductor.

There was a smile all round but the story did not end as they usually do in such cases. The old lady bravely accepted the situation—and the brass check—and kept her seat to the end of her journey.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

CLASSIFIED ADS.

An Interesting Page in the Daily East Oregonian.

The East Oregonian solicits classified ads, little ads stating the wants of the people. The expense of these ads is small, from 15 cents up. Through them much information can be conveyed. You can tell your neighbor what you have to trade for something for which you have a need, but you cannot tell from 1000 to 5000 people this fact. These ads will do that for you. With the aid of them you can get value for your surplus things; you can supply your wants; sell articles that you can not sell in any other way, and all for a small sum of money, from 15 cents for one insertion to $1 for 10 or more.

You may wish to hire a man or woman. A want ad will hit the spot. You may want employment. Try an ad for 15 cents to 50 cents. You may want to buy something. Try a want ad.

You may wish to sell something. A "For Sale" ad will fill the bill.

You may want to trade a wheelbarrow for a grindstone. The wheelbarrow you have no need for; the grindstone the other fellow has no need for. The little ad expressing your wishes will do the business at a small expense. Why not try it?

Have you a house to rent? A room to rent? Do you want to rent a house or a room? A want ad will be effective. The cost is little, the result satisfactory. Try one.

There is no more effective way of advertising, and the price is within the reach of all.

Look over the "classified ad" columns and use them when you want to sell or buy something; when you want to make a trade; when you want to give employment; when you want employment; when you want to lend or borrow money; when you want to let or rent a house or room or store. The want ad will supply your wants. If you have a horse, or if you have lost a horse, or found a horse or other animal, you can not let so many people know of it in any other way as through these columns and at an expense that is not worth considering. Try an ad. It will pay.
