THE SUNDAY GAMES HAD GAME BIRDS

DISTRICT ATTORNEY IS CONSIDERING PETITION.

From Sunday School Association for Their Suppression—May Be No Law for Such Action.

The East Oregonian asked District Attorney Mayor T. G. Halley regarding the action he intends to take upon the petition sent him from the convention of the Umatilla County Sunday School Association, which last week at Athena requested suppression of Sunday baseball games and of Sunday excursion trains. The train matter was addressed to the O. R. & N. company, but the proposition looking towards the suppression of Sunday baseball games is referred to Mr. Halley, as mayor and district attorney.
Mr. Halley stated that he has not yet had time, since his illness, to consider the matter, and has not given attention to the law upon the subject of Sunday observance as affecting the conduct of games for the amusement of the public. It is not certain in his mind, at this time, that the laws require abstaining from such games upon Sundays. He has it under advisement.

WALLA WALLA GAMBLING
GAMES ARE NOW CLOSED.

Investigation Asked by the W. C. T.
U. Started the Movement.

Walla Walla, Feb. 11.—Gambling is said to be entirely closed in town as a result of a stir following a recent council investigation of saloons and gambling houses. How long the sudden closed regime will last it is unknown. Walla Walla gambling houses take periodical spasms of closing, but invariably reopen when the storm has blown over.

Recently after a council meeting, Councilmen McLean and Brewer and Chief of Police Kauffman made an unexpected descent on saloons in search of alleged side entrances, winerooms etc. The move was occasioned by Councilman McLean, who said he wanted to do it in deference to the W. C. T. U. which had asked an Investigation. Word was passed rapidly down the line after the trio descended on the first saloon, and no gambling paraphernalia was in sight when the investigators came.

Next night games were running full blast again and a small-sized scandal resulted. Last night all roulette wheels and faro tables were out of sight again. Thus conditions will probably remain until the gamblers take courage and come out of their shells again.

LIVE ON 26 CENTS A DAY.

Meals Served in Chicago at 5 Cents Each.

Dr. Harper, of the University of Chicago, and Dr. Sheppard, of Northwestern University, and many other eminent dieticians throughout the Middle West have theorized from time to time on the possibilities of cheap living. It has been fully demonstrated that a full-grown man or a full-grown student can live comfortably in Chicago on 26 cents a day, or $1.82 a week.

By living in meant life, in this instance, not mere existence. The 26 cents will pay for two ample meals a day and a good bed at night. The diet will not be oatmeal, soup, or sawdust and hot water, but such diet as a man may work or think on, and the bed will be a comfortable, clean one.
Laundry will cost a little. The man must shave himself. But with $2.50 a week he may eat and lodge and wear a boiled shirt on Sundays.

At first sight it seems incredible that a restaurant which serves meals at 5 cents could be made profitable, but an institution that serves 7500 to 10,000 meals a day at this price is flourishing here. "Some customers," says the proprietor, "will eat 15 cents worth at a meal; others will get along with 5 cents worth." Naturally, the profits on such a business are small, but still there are profits of a respectable total.

Poverty and Pride.

The woman's aid society of this city has many cases of improvidence on record, and one of the best of them is the story of the woman whose husband was in jail and whose family had been provided with food and clothing by the society. To the woman herself they gave $10, thinking she would better know the wants of her destitute family than an outsider.
A week after the gift a deputation of members visited at the squalid home to see the results. They found no betterment in the condition of the home, so one asked:

"Well, Mrs. Nolan, how are you getting along?"

"Fine," Mrs. Nolan said.
"Did the clothes fit? And did you find a place for the money?"

"Sure. The clothes fitted fine, and d'ye know, they looked so nice that I had all the children's pictures tuk with the money you gave, and I'm goin' to have me own taken this week, to send to the old folks in Ireland."

JOHN P. HAYDEN PAID
A $15 FINE TODAY.

Did Not Know He Had the Bob White Quail in His Possession.

This afternoon J. P. Hayden was fined $15 and costs, amounting in all to $18.55, for having bob white quail in his possession.

The information was filed in Judge Fitz Gerald's court yesterday by County Game Warden T. B. Wells, charging Mr. Hayden, who is a well-known commercial traveler for a Portland grocery firm, with having "two bob white quail in his possession for other than scientific or breeding purposes." The complaint was filed at the instigation of the Game and Fish Protective Association, the quail having been taken to Hotel Pendleton by Hayden to be cooked for his wife and him.

Mr. Hayden's story is that a friend of Mrs. Hayden, who had heard her speak of being very fond of birds, gave them to her, in Idaho, wrapped up in a paper, and that neither he nor his wife knew the contents of the package, more than they were told it contained wild birds. They brought the package to the hotel and gave it to the clerk with instructions to have them cleaned and prepared for them.
The clerk's curiosity caused him to look into the paper bag, and he discovered what they were, and his story is that a member of the gun and rod club was standing by and saw the quail. This member immediately called it to the attention of State Vice-President Krause, who informed Warden Wells and the information was filed as a result.

The punishment for the having of bob white quail in one's possession other than for scientific or breeding purposes in the state of Oregon, is a fine of not less than $15 nor more than $200, and this also includes imprisonment of not less than seven or more than 100 days in the county jail.
Either one or both of these punishments can be inflicted, according to the presiding judge's ideas of the intention or the guilt of the man before him.

Trial of Carter's Associates.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 11.—The session which began today of United States district court for the Southern district of Georgia, is to be made notable by the trial of Benjamin T.
Greene, John P. Gaynor and W. T.
Gaynor, who are under indictment for conspiracy with former Captain Oberlin M. Carter, to defraud the government of large sums of money on river and harbor contracts. The defend-ents, aided by immense wealth and wide social and political influence, have made heroic efforts to escape trial, but the impression is general that they have now reached the end of their resources and that they will be compelled to appear in court in answer to the serious charges made against them.

The Last Heard of It.

"My little boy took the cough one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," says F. D. Reynolds, Mansfield, O.
"We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the cough. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure.
Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. Tallman & Co. and Brock &
