STRANGE INSTANCE OF APPARENT SUICIDE

John H. Prentice at Pullman in His Father's Home is Shot.

John Herbert Prentice, 21 years old, was shot and killed at his home two miles west of Pullman, Wash., on Sunday night, under most peculiar circumstances. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from a gunshot wound inflicted with his own hands, but does not say whether it was suicide or accident.

A deep air of mystery surrounds the affair. Deceased resides with his father, a widower, in a small house. The father, John Prentice is 50 years old and very eccentric. He recently sold some land and is believed to have money hidden about the place. On Saturday, he was in Pullman and acted queerly. To George Henry, a neighbor, he said that he was nearly dead and had been trying to kill himself for three or four days. He bemoaned his fate saying a few years ago he was worth $100,000 and now is nearly broke.

According to the evidence of John Prentice, the father, he heard a noise around the house about nine o'clock and fired two shots with a Winchester through the doors. The bullet holes show the shots were fired from inside the house, but no tracks could be found on the fresh snow on the outside.

Prentice says they retired in separate rooms and about 1 o'clock his son came into his room and asked for a revolver. About one hour later, the father said, he heard a shot in his son's room and going in found him in bed shot in the top of the head. The father notified C. E. Hoover, a neighbor, who came to Pullman for Dr. Wilson, who reached the house five minutes after the boy died. The revolver, a 44 calibre weapon, was on the bed, but not in the hand of the deceased. The boy had on all his clothes but his shoes.

WANDERED ALONE

HENRY STEELE, GIBBON WILD MAN, INSANE.

Patient From the Hills Who Roamed the Canyons.

The latest wild man story comes from the Bingham Springs country. The Walla Walla Union has a long story about the man who is running at large over the hills of that country without a stitch of clothing on his back. The news was taken to Walla Walla by James K. Doland, of Baker City.

The story is that Henry Steele, a hired man at work on a ranch near the springs, was sent out to milk the cows and after he had been gone several hours without any reason for his absence, the rancher, whose name is given as Swart, went out to look for him. He found only the hired man's clothing lying in a heap. A party of searchers was then organized who sallied forth to find what the man had done with himself. After a long search he was discovered on the mountain side, but fled from his pursuers like a wild beast and hid himself in the woods. He was followed and again overtaken, but when his would-be saviors approached he gathered a large stick and showed fight. They did not care to injure the fellow and again let him get away and roam the hills in the snow and cold stars naked. He showed no signs of being affected by the cold blasts of old Boreas.

Henry Steele was brought into Pendleton Sunday from Gibbon, where he had been found in a demented condition, and, while he was not running at large undressed, he showed signs of being badly off but was not violent. He was examined by Dr. Vincent Monday and committed to the insane asylum at Salem by Judge Hartman. Steele's mania was that he was pursued by enemies who would not let him get work. He also stated in a rambling and broken sort of way that he had been injured on the side of the head which caused his head to ache all the time.

Saved Him From Torture.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning make life intolerable. No position is comfortable. The torture is unceasing. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin disease, cuts, burns, bruises, all kinds of wounds, it is unequalled. J. S. Gerall, St. Paul, Ark., says: "From 1862 I suffered with the protruding, bleeding piles and could find nothing to help me until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Beware of counterfeits. Tallman & Co. and Brock & McComas Co.

At Missoula, Mont., the switchmen's strike, which was inaugurated in the yards of the Northern Pacific railway, has assumed a grave aspect, and unless the officials of the company receded from the position they have taken a strike along the entire system is probable.
