AN ADAMS FIRE W. J. FURNISH SAYS

J. P. LIEUALLEN LOSES HIS FINE RESIDENCE.

Loss $4500 to $5000—City Marshal Has Accident During the Conflagration.

Adams, Feb. 13.—About 6:30 yesterday evening a gasoline lamp exploded at the home of J. T. Lieuallen and soon reduced his handsome two-story building to ashes. Mr. Lieuallen grasped the burning lamp with the intention of throwing it out doors, and seriously burned his right hand and forearm, and for a short time rendering him powerless from pain. The alarm was almost immediately given and the fire brigade promptly responded and did everything in their power to check the fierce blaze, but all to no avail. The citizens formed themselves into an impromptu salvage corps and in a short time most of the furniture on the lower floor was carried to a place of safety, but everything on the upper floor, consisting of clothing, bedding, furniture, etc., was completely destroyed. The loss is estimated at between $4500 and $5000. No insurance.

A Second Blaze.

About 5:30 this morning a second alarm rang out and in short order the department was on the scene. This proved to be an incipient blaze in the buttry, which had escaped the evening previously. A few minutes was sufficient to get it under control.

While assisting the fire boys to get the engine and hose cart in place, City Marshal Frank B. Wilkes fell and received serious injury to his right cheek and forehead, and the hose cart ran over his neck. For a time he was thought to be dangerously injured, but he regained his feet, and with blood streaming down his face, kept on until the apparatus was in position. He then had his wounds dressed by Dr. Smith. In a few days he will have fully recovered.

J. O. Coffey is in Milton this week. F. Maestretti and son, Paul, were in Pendleton yesterday.

Charles G. Richter, of Pendleton, is in the city today.

It is given out on good authority, that E. E. Smith will in the course of a couple of months open up a large general merchandise stock in the Maestretti store building.

JOHN CREIGHTON WILLIAM BENEDICT.

Echo Citizens. Arrested for Alleged Barb Wire Stealing.

Constable J. M. Bentley returned yesterday evening from Echo with John Creighton and William Benedict, whom he had arrested on the charge of stealing barb wire. Mrs. Mary M. Crane accuses the prisoners with taking wire off her land that had been left there by the railroad company when they removed their track and says the company gave the wire to her. The accused were brought before Judge Fitz Gerald at noon today and owing to the rush of business on the hands of the district attorney he moved that they be dismissed on their own recognizance until such a time as he would be able to prosecute the case. This was done. Mr. Creighton and Mr. Benedict are well-known citizens of the Echo country and their arrest is somewhat of a surprise to their friends. The wire alleged to have been taken is valued at $40.

JOHN THARP ARRESTED.

Accused of Horse Stealing by Pearl B. Smith.

John Tharp was arraigned yesterday before Judge Fitz Gerald on the charge of the larceny of a mare, Pearl B. Smith is the complaining witness and he charges Tharp with taking the mare and selling her. O. R. & N. BUYS LAND.

To Build Stock Yards in Portland—Has 100 Acres.

Portland, Feb. 13.—The Harriman company have decided to build extensive stock yards on the peninsula between the Columbia and Willamette rivers, about four miles from this city. One hundred acres of land was bonded and the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company has a spur almost complete to the site of the yards. Both the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company and the Southern Pacific will use these yards and it is stated that the packing houses of Chicago will establish an extensive plant here. The establishment of stock yards and packing houses will make this city the market for several hundred thousand head of live stock in the Northwest which is now shipped to Eastern points.

EASTERN OREGON WILL DEMAND RECOGNITION

Talked with a Baker City Man on the Governorship Issue.

While in Baker City on Wednesday, W. J. Furnish said to the Herald:

"Eastern Oregon will go into the next republican state convention prepared to demand at the hands of the party a certain recognition. That recognition will come—not as a result of trades, cliques or combines, but as a result of rightful title to representation in the state government. Bunchgrass republicans—which generic title includes that big half of the people living east of the Cascades—are numerically and politically strong enough to exercise a ruling influence in the affairs of Oregon. Our diversified interests, which in many important instances differ materially from the interests of our west coast brethren, imperatively demand recognition. And this recognition will be granted, as I said before, because we inlanders will not divide against ourselves, but will enter the Portland convention next April with solid delegations and with stout hearts."

"Personally, I believe my candidacy for the governorship is acceptable to the majority of the people of eastern Oregon."

"I have many warm friends in Baker City and county, and it is affording me considerable pleasure to meet them."

"Political conditions down the line seem favorable. Things look good all over the state, both in eastern and western Oregon."

LECTURERS TO SHOW PICTURES OF NORTHWEST

Scheme by Harriman Lines to Bring Settlers into Pacific Northwest.

A novel plan for settling the lands in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, California and other western states tributary to the lines of the Harriman syndicate is being worked out by the officers of these railroads, says the Record-Herald of Chicago. The officials of the system have determined to carry on a progressive campaign of competition against the Hill-Morgan lines, not only in going after traffic, but in colonizing lands for the companies, particularly in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It is intended to start the campaign by inducing immigrants to take land along the lines of the roads of the combination in the states named.

A new method is to be used in financing this settlement. The Harriman syndicate, through the officers of the different roads, has engaged a corps of lecturers who will travel over the east and central west giving lectures on the subject of settlement in the west and northwest. These lecturers will illustrate their talks with stereopticons and moving pictures. The photographs will show the land offered for sale and the development of the country. They will show the products, the railroads, water facilities and everything else that will tend to induce moves from the older regions of the country to the promised land.

In addition to the lectures the entire United States and Europe are to be flooded with tons of literature bearing on the advantages of the great Northwest. The syndicate will establish general agencies in London, Paris, Hamburg and Genoa, and other points from which to work business.

These plans will be fortified by an unusually low rates during the proper seasons for prospective settlers to visit the points along the lines."

In aid of Good Roads.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 13.—One of the most notable good roads conventions ever held in this part of the country began in Raleigh today and will continue through tomorrow. Delegates representing the agricultural, commercial and other organizations in all parts of North Carolina are in attendance and the discussions promise to give a decided impetus to the good roads movement throughout the state. The Southern Railway Good Roads train is here during the continuance of the gathering and will give practical demonstrations of the best methods of scientific road making.

Rice and Callihan to Meet.

St. Louis, Feb. 13.—The twenty-round bout between Tim Callihan, of New York, and Austin Rice, of New London, Conn., which is slated for the arena of the West End Athletic club tonight, has aroused keen interest in sporting circles. Judging from past performances the two fighters are evenly matched and as both are aggressive fighters a hard contest is expected to be the outcome. The men have been in training for some time and both appear to be in splendid condition.
