PILOT ROCK'S FIRST PRISONER LAST NIGHT.

"Bub" Smith Landed in the Bastille by Marshal Stone—Pilot Rock Growing.

E. B. Rinearson, a prominent young man of Pilot Rock, is in town, to remain until tomorrow. He said that the new city of Pilot Rock, just incorporated, had its first prisoner last night, when Marshal Stone landed "Bub" Smith in the lockup, for disorderly conduct.

"Pilot Rock is growing," said Mr. Rinearson, "and we need more houses. One residence and business building are now in course of construction, and others must be put up, if the demand for room be met. The little town is in a fair way to become much larger, and we are quite well satisfied with the existing status of affairs."

LOGGING SEASON ENDED IN GRANDE RONDE

Removal of Snow has Caused Lumbermen to Cease Cutting.

La Grande, Feb. 15.—The logging season seems to be at an end. The warm winds and rain have melted the snow from the roads and made the ground too soft for trucking. The river is not high enough for driving, which will probably not begin for another month. One contractor has still three million feet of logs which will be moved when the roads are more fit.

Charles Field, of Walla Walla, bought horses for the English in La Grande yesterday. Sixty-three head were purchased. Most of the horses taken were offered by Hector McDonald and John Shaw, who have about sixty head at the stock yards and stables that they have been breaking and gentling.

Wills Deal, who has had a long career as a stock rustler and until lately successful, was convicted this week of horse stealing and last night was sentenced to serve four years for his crime. He is already under sentence of three years on a conviction obtained last fall. He has been out on bonds awaiting action by the supreme court on an appeal. He has gained nothing by his appeal, but has lost at least one year.

Rev. H. Harris, of Cove Episcopal church, was not vindicated by the late grand jury, as expected. Instead it is now announced by members of the jury that a charge of adultery was brought against him. Owing to the girl's age and to attacks made on her character, the district attorney advised that the above indictment be brought, but that it remain unannounced till he could examine the law. Now he finds that corroboration is required and dismisses the case for lack of evidence.

WOULD BE TEACHERS.

And Will Be if They Pass the Examinations.

County School Superintendent J. F. Nowlin, assisted by Rev. F. L. Forbes, of this city, and J. E. Cherry, of Adams, are busy today grading the papers of aspirants for certificates to teach in Umatilla county and the state of Oregon. The examination has been finished for the county certificates and the state examinations will be conducted this afternoon, and all the grading will be finished late this evening.

Thirty teachers were in attendance, six for state papers and the rest for county papers. Their names and the grades to which each applicant applied are as follows:

Give Good Exhibition of Athletics With Some Good Feats.

Walla Walla, Feb. 15.—Last night the athletic team from the Washington Agricultural College gave an exhibition at the opera house, a number of unusually good feats being on the program. The team was in excellent form and gave an exhibition of athletics seldom equalled in this city. The program follows:
Overture, orchestra; horizontal bar work, Jenne, Benefield, Lacy; club juggling, Goodwin; combination tumbling, Professor Annis; exhibition club swinging, Kreugel; Roman ladders, Professor Annis, Lacy, Benefield, Jenne; selection, orchestra; bag punching, Rusk; selection, Hayseed orchestra; slack wire work, Smith; table work, Person and Annis; illuminated club swinging, Goodwin; pyramids, wrestling.

Talked to Students.

Walla Walla, Feb. 15.—Miss Mabel K. Stafford, Pacific Coast secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Association, who has been in the city two days, left for Pullman, Wash., this morning. Yesterday Miss Stafford spoke to the students of Whitman College, and at 4 o'clock she spoke to the young lady students alone. While in the city a reception was tendered Miss Stafford by Mrs. S. B. L. Penrose, of Whitman College.

Lonneker Acquitted.

Walla Walla, Feb. 15.—August Lonneker was yesterday acquitted by a jury of the charge of having removed a monument which had been placed to mark the boundaries of lands in the neighborhood where the defendant lived. A jury was called by Justice Glasford and after hearing the testimony the defendant was acquitted. The trial occupied much of yesterday afternoon.

TALKING OF BUILDING A SCHOOL IN NORTH PENDLETON

Board Disposes of Lots on West Webb Street.

The Pendleton school board, at a recent meeting, held in Dr. Smith's office, discussed the advisability of purchasing lots and erecting a school house on the north side of the river to accommodate the patrons of the public schools on that side who are quite a distance from the present school buildings. Two sites are in view by the board and the clerk was instructed to find out how many would be effected or benefited by having a school on the north side. It is thought that there are enough students who would attend the new school to make two grades beside a mixed grade. The sites in view are in Houser's addition and consist of 10 lots each, but the board decided that the owners wanted more money for them than the district could afford to pay and the matter still stands without any definite move having been made.

The board sold four lots in West Pendleton for $500. They are located on Webb street where the O. R. & N. track crosses the street.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

Was Held on Saturday Evening in the Assembly Hall

The public school students held another literary entertainment in the assembly hall Friday evening. They have decided to hold these weekly entertainments for the amusement of each other and for the furtherance of their own electionary powers and each meeting proves more enjoyable than the previous one.

The first selection last evening was a recitation by Miss Elva Shrisengor. Etta Hexter gave a reading and was followed by another recitation by Miss Lela Crooks. The mail quartet entertained the students with one of their selections and an essay by John Bacon and a poem by Arthur Renn. The entertainment wound up with another paper with all the late hits of the day. It was edited by Fred Mild, Alker Fee and Albert Warner.
