DECIDES FOR BOTH

JUDGE ELLIS RULES PART FOR ONE, PART FOR OTHER.

Dissolves Injunction as to Mayor and Councilmen—Sustains as to Lane and Frazier.

At a few minutes to 3 this afternoon Judge Ellis rendered his decision in the city injunction case. He sustained the demurrer of Mayor Halley, Councilmen Clopton, Johnson, Wells and Dickson against the injunction brought by Marshal Heathman and Recorder Beam, but sustained the injunction against Lane and Frazier, who were elected by these four councilmen and the mayor to take the places of the old officers. The judge held that there was not sufficient ground in the complaint for an injunction against the mayor and four councilmen, but he sustained the injunction against Lane and Frazier in so far as they might interfere with the old officers in the carrying out of their duties.

When Judge Ellis rendered his decision, A. D. Stillman, one of the attorneys for the plaintiffs, moved that the plaintiffs be granted until 10 o'clock tomorrow in which to make up their minds whether or not they would file an amended complaint against the mayor and councilmen.

JOHN THARP ARRESTED ON A SECOND CHARGE.

Pearl D. Smith Also in Custody for Accepting a Bribe From Tharp.

John Tharp was arraigned at 10 o'clock this Monday afternoon, charged with the larceny of a mare from Pearl D. Smith, who resides at Pilot Rock. The hearing was postponed to 1 o'clock, at the request of the defendant, in order that he might have R. S. Moss, one of his witnesses, present. In the afternoon, when the time came for hearing, Mr. Tharp announced that he had not secured the services of an attorney, and that therefore, under the circumstances, he would waive examination. Justice Fitz Gerald fixed the bail at $500, which amount had already been furnished for Mr. Tharp's appearance at the hearing, and the defendant was bound over to answer to the circuit court. The old bail was retained and the defendant allowed to go.

Saturday evening, February 15, a warrant was sworn out against John Tharp upon the following charge: "Endeavoring to procure and incite Pearl D. Smith to commit the crime of perjury by endeavoring to have Smith falsely swear that he, the said Smith, had found a certain mare, which said defendant was then and there charged with having stolen from said Smith."

Tharp was thereupon arraigned upon this second charge, and the date of hearing was set for Wednesday, February 19, at 10 o'clock. When arrested Saturday evening Tharp put up cash bail to the amount of $250, and as in the preceding case, it was allowed to stand for his appearance Wednesday.

Pearl D. Smith was arrested Saturday evening for having accepted a bribe of $100 to swear falsely in the above case, was placed in jail, and is still in the custody of the officials. He is the man from whom Tharp is alleged to have stolen the mare in the first case, and made a trip to the range last week in company with D. Turner to see if he could find any trace of the missing animal.

BASEBALL RULES WILL BE AT VARIANCE

Different Associations Fail to Agree at Buffalo on Uniform System.

The American League and American Association of baseball have failed to agree upon rules for 1902, and as heretofore, there will be separate books issued by the two. A meeting was held in Buffalo, N. Y., at which representatives of the two associations tried to come to an understanding. The object was to bring professional and amateur games under the same rules. The Buffalo meeting took this action:

The rule which caused the most discussion was section 3 of rule 41, defining when an umpire shall call a foul a strike.

At midnight a revision was agreed upon providing that when a ball falls or settles on foul ground inside or on the line of the territory described by a line drawn through first to third bases at right angles with an imaginary line drawn from the home plate and second base and extending on each side to the limits of the field it shall be arbitrary with the umpire to call it a strike. It shall remain discretionary with the umpire to call a strike or a foul when the ball goes into foul territory outside the line drawn through first and third bases to the limits of the field.

Rule 17 was amended so that the catcher must stand within 10 feet of the plate throughout the game, and rule 3 was changed to conform with this amendment. To make rule 3 more comprehensive, the words, "in which case the umpire shall call a strike," were added.

In rule 32 the word "after" was substituted for "and" making the rule read "If the ball is thrown by the pitcher to any player other than the catcher (excepting to retire a base runner) after the batsman is standing in his proper position and ready to strike a pitched ball, each ball so delivered shall be called a ball.

Section 7 of rule 45 defining when a batsman is out is changed to read: "If after two strikes have been called the batsman obviously attempts to make a foul hit, as in rule 44, section 3."

Sec. 3. A foul hit ball not caught on the fly unless two strikes have been already called, which falls or settles on foul ground or on the line of the territory described by lines drawn from first and third bases at right angles with an imaginary line drawn from home to second base, and extending on each side to the limit of the playing field.

Sec. 4. Any intention or effort to hit the ball to foul ground outside of the lines of the territory described by lines drawn from the first and second bases at right angles with an imaginary line drawn from home plate to second base and extending on each side to the limits of the playing field.

Sec. 2 of rule 32 was also corrected by adding the words, "to a batsman," so that it now reads:

"The umpire shall call a ball on the pitcher every time he delays the game by failing to deliver the ball to the batsman when in position for a longer period than 20 seconds, excepting that in the case of the first batsman in each inning the pitcher may occupy not more than one minute in delivering not to exceed five balls to the batsman."

Section 4 was added to rule 47 as follows:

"Sec. 4. If while he be a batsman, without making any attempt to strike at the ball, his person or clothing being hit with a ball from the pitcher, unless in the opinion of the umpire he plainly avoids making any effort to get out of the way of the ball from the pitcher, and thereby permits himself to be so hit."

A western congressman calls attention to the fact that the Hepburn bill, providing for the construction of the Nicaragua canal at an expense of $180,000,000 is comprised of 488 words. He says that "a mighty lot of doings can be crowded into a little area of space."

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackman's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well, if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by Tallman & Co.
