Saved Him From Torture.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning make life intolerable. No position is comfortable. The torture is unceasing. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin disease, cuts, burns, bruises, all kinds of wounds, it is unequalled. J. S. Gerall, St. Paul, Ark., says: "From 1865 I suffered with the protruding, bleeding piles and could find nothing to help me until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Beware of counterfeits. Tallman & Co. and Brock & McComas Co.

GUARDING OLD LIBERTY.

Precautions Taken to Keep the Bell Perfectly Safe.

The following details from the Fireman's Herald shows the extraordinary precautions taken to guard Independence hall, Philadelphia, from distruction by fire. Watchmen maintain a patrol every hour of the day and night and only lights are permitted in the old building to illuminate the clock at night. For the boilers used to heat the building fire proof vaults have been provided under the archways, and only two electric wires are allowed. Chief Baxter has provided for the appearance of six engines, two trucks and a chemical engine within two minutes after an alarm of fire is sent in from the fire alarm box on the square. There are standing instructions in case the first should exist headway in the structure, a general alarm should be sent in calling to the scene twenty-six fire engines, six trucks, and another chemical engine as well as the chief and nine district engineers. Every wire in the vicinity of the city hall is specially insulated, and officers of the fire department regularly join the watchmen in inspecting the edifice. Portable fire extinguishers are scattered about the building and directions for saving the famous old portraits that hang on the wall is conspicuously posted. There is a premptory order displayed that reads, "In case of fire get the Liberty bell out of danger at any cost."

Senator Turner, by request, offered a resolution reciting that many of the Indian schools of the country are being conducted loosely; that pupils who are affected with tuberculosis and other diseases are admitted, to the detriment of the health of the inmates of the schools, resulting in an "appalling mortality"; that the intermixture of the sexes results in a lowering of the standard of morality.
