An Enterprise for Walla Walla.
Walla Walla, Feb. 25.—Brown Bros., inventors of an improved grain elevator, for raising sacked grain in warehouses, are in the city trying to interest local people in manufacturing the elevators on a large scale. The machine is now manufactured on a small scale at Colfax, and a number have been given practical tests in warehouses in the Palouse country. A number of local men are figuring on erecting a factory and taking the matter in hand at once.

Mrs. Annie Siefke Dead.
Walla Walla, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Annie Siefke, aged 73 years, died in this city yesterday. Funeral services were held today at 2 o'clock from the home of Peter Werner, on Fourth street. Four children survive Mrs. Siefke, Mrs. Peter Werner, Charles, Rudolph and Henry Siefke, all residents of this city. Services were conducted by Rev. Rieke, pastor of the German Lutheran church.

Selling Liquor to Minors.
Walla Walla, Feb. 25.—Another delay has occurred in the examination of the saloon men, charged with opening on Sunday and selling liquor to minors. Six cases were on the docket for preliminary hearing yesterday, but on account of the death of Mrs. Seifke, yesterday, the hearings were postponed a week. Mrs. Siefke was the mother of two of the defendants.

Lathrop at the Hospital.
Walla Walla, Feb. 25.—John E. Lathrop, of Pendleton, today went to the Walla Walla hospital for treatment, and an operation for a trouble of long standing. Last summer Mr. Lathrop underwent treatment in the city for several weeks, and has returned, the cure not being permanent.

PERSONAL MENTION

Dave Gregor is in town from Adams.
Rev. W. E. Potwine has gone to Weston.
Assessor George Buzan left this morning for Milton.
Colin V. Dymont, of the Spokesman-Review, was in town Monday night.
M. A. Ferguson and William Eastman were in town Monday evening from Adams.
W. D. Chamberlain, county clerk, returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Athena.
Mrs. John Russell, who has been ill for some time, is no better and her friends fear for the worst.
T. P. Gose, one of Walla Walla's prominent attorneys, was the guest of Hotel St. George last night.
James A. Howard made another trip to Sumpter this week in the interest of his mining properties.
Miss Mabel Nye has gone to Spokane to visit her sister, Mrs. Shults. She will be away two or three weeks.
Dr. F. W. Vincent returned Monday from a trip to Portland. Mrs. Vincent is expected home next Sunday or soon after.
E. A. Klippel, superintendent of telegraph for the O. R. & N. Company, was in town Monday inspecting the local office.
Mrs. Lizzie Stine Richie, of Walla Walla, arrived in Pendleton Monday evening and left again this morning for home.
H. H. Copeland, of the blacksmith firm of Atherton & Copeland, has returned from Portland, where he has been purchasing tools and material for the spring work.
Wiley Rucker, of Boise, is holding down William Rose's chair in the Rose & Mathews barber shop, on the corner of Main and Alta streets. Mr. Rose is slightly indisposed with a cold.
E. Boettcher arrived this morning from Chicago. He is one of the most extensive stock dealers in the Northwest and is here to look after his interests in Umatilla county, Pendleton being his headquarters.
Justice A. S. Pearson, of Freewater, was in town yesterday. Mr. Pearson says that since Freewater was incorporated it was beginning to take strides toward becoming a burg of considerable proportions and that new dwellings are going up right along, but not fast enough to supply the demand. Several new business enterprises are promised during the spring and summer.

M. C. Tribble, a pioneer farmer and stock man of Echo, is in town today. Mr. Tribble has sold his place, just across the river from Echo, to Joe Kuna, and expects to remove, with his family, to California. He says that he would rather remain in Oregon for the rest of his days, but is compelled to seek a different climate on account of his wife's health.
J. B. Schmidt, of Sumpter, is in town. He recently returned from a trip into the famous Thunder Mountain country, and says he anticipates a greater rush of prospectors into that district this summer than to any place ever in the history of mining in the Northwest. Every town along the line, from Weiser southeast, are full of men anxious and waiting for the snow to go off, so they can get into the new mining district.
Fine Lot of Stallions.
E. B. Hill arrived in the city Monday with his carload of fine English Shire and Percheron stallions, and they are now at the Froome livery stable, opposite Hotel Pendleton, where prospective buyers can see them. These horses were to have been here last week, but owing to a misunderstanding in shipping directions they were sent on to Spokane and had to be returned, making them several days late in arriving. There are eight in the band, and a finer lot of horses were never brought to Pendleton. They are well built and will weigh from 1800 to 2100 pounds each.

M'GOVERN-SULLIVAN FIGHT.

It is Now Said That Police Were Concerned in Stopping the Mill.
Louisville, Ky., Feb. 25.—The Times says:
Chief of Police Gunther, it develops caused the McGovern-Sullivan fight Saturday night to come to an end when it did. Before the fight began, Colonel Gunther had an understanding with Referee Fitzsimmons, that when, in his opinion, either of the principals was unfit to continue boxing (the chief) would arise from his seat, as a signal that the fight was to be stopped.
In the 15th round Colonel Gunther, who was sitting very close to the ring, saw that Sullivan was done for, and he accordingly arose. Fitzsimmons declared McGovern the winner. Colonel Gunther would have stopped the fight had not Fitzsimmons acted.

Three League Meets.
Rock Island, Ill., Feb. 25.—Directors of the Indiana-Illinois-Iowa baseball league met in conference today in this city. The first business transacted was the re-election of M. H. Sexton as president of the league. Other matters in connection with the coming season, which promises to be more than usually successful, were given attention.
American Universities Association.
Chicago, Feb. 25.—The Association of American Universities began its annual meeting in Chicago today with many eminent educators in attendance. The sessions continue until Friday. At the opening session this afternoon, the general theme of discussion was the scope and character of the dissertation required of candidates for the degree of doctor of Philosophy.
Refused Vaccination.
Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 25.—Erwin Collins, 24 years old, and the son of Mayor Collins, of West Point, Ga., one of the state's wealthiest men, is dead of smallpox. Collins, it is said, refused vaccination, and was the only one of the associates to develop the disease. The malady was pronounced smallpox. Death came Sunday and burial was hastened in the afternoon.

the coming year. The chief point of contention is in regard to an open powder market. President Van Horn has declined to stand for re-election and a spirited contest is on for his place with George Hargrave of Linton and G. W. Lackey of Dugger as leaders in the race.

EDUCATORS IN SESSION.

Gathering Called to Order by State School Commissioner Glenn of Georgia.
Chicago, Feb. 25.—Prominent educators representing leading institutions of learning in nearly every state and territory of the Union filled University hall, Fine Arts building, this morning at the opening of the National Educational Association. The gathering was called to order by State School Commissioner G. R. Glenn, of Georgia, president of the department. After addresses of welcome had been delivered and responded to the conference work was taken up. During the day the following subjects were exhaustively discussed: Obstacles to educational progress; the real value of examinations determining the teacher's fitness for work; the practical application of all learning to better living, and direct and indirect influences in the evolution of true Americans.
This evening the educators listen to a lecture by Dr. Frank W. Gunsalus, president of Armour Institute.

Bryan Denies Hill.
Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—W. J. Bryan was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Colonel James Kilbourne, at his residence. The prominent democratic leaders were present and a conference was held. Bryan left later for Delaware, O., where he delivered a lecture before the students of the Ohio Wesleyan university. Bryan denied the truth of the report that he would call on David B. Hill and pledge him his support for the presidential nomination in 1905.
