Frederick D. Tappin, president of the Gallatin National bank, of New York city, is dead, after a brief illness at Lakewood, N. J. Mr. Tappin played a leading part in the financial history of the city for the last half century and more.

Henry Bishop Perkins, one of the most prominent men in Warren, O., a millionaire, committed suicide on Sunday, the 2nd inst. His son suicided a year ago and the father was known to have brooded over it. Mr. Perkins was president of the First National Bank of the town.

Mrs. May Hanna, daughter-in-law of Mark Hanna, former wife of Dan Hanna, Mark's oldest son, will assist in donating the public school ticket her father-in-law wants to be successful in Cleveland, O. Mayor Tom L. Johnson and Mrs. Hanna will be "fellow politicians" in the battle.

It is understood that the new salmon cannery combine, taking in at least 45 of the largest cannery plants in British Columbia, is about completed. The combine is on the line of that of the arrangement on the Columbia river. American capitalists are backing the deal with a capital, it is stated, of $4,000,000.

Prince Henry's reception at Bowling Green, Ky., pleased him fully as much as the larger ones. Judge Simms, a venerable citizen, mounted the rear platform of the Columbia and in the name of Kentucky presented the prince with some peach brandy and some whisky. The prince gravely accepted the gift and faithfully pronounced the judge that he would drink some of it when he got thirsty.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS

Dayton, Wash., people have voted for $50,000 in bonds on the district to build a public school building.

Joseph Reilly is under arrest at Portland charged with smuggling. There were found in his possession 100 tins of opium.

Ethel M. McCarty, an Albany, Ore., girl, took poison and died at Warden, Idaho, a few days ago. She had been disappointed in a love affair.

The anti-gambling ticket in La Grande, is as follows: J. C. Henry for mayor, Frank Childers for marshal, Herace C. Williams for recorder, and endorsed the independent candidate, J. E. Alken for treasurer.

The house rivers and harbors committee recommends an appropriation of $500,000 cash for continuing the improvement of the Columbia river, and $1,000,000 additional for authorized contracts. Other Oregon and Washington rivers fare well.

Two meetings held in the First Methodist church Sunday in Salem in the interest of Willamette University, to raise funds toward paying the debt of the school, were highly successful. Over $11,000 was subscribed. The debt is $35,000, and Salem was expected to raise $10,000.

Logan Schaeffer, of Baker City, is one of the 40 heirs to the estate of John Nicholas Emerick, a partner of John Jacob Astor. The owner of the fortune died many years ago, leaving his vast fortune, which consisted of money and property in Germany and America, to his four brothers.

Revival of interest in the Columbia Valley Railroad Company has come through the introduction in the nation of a bill to grant this railroad a right of way through the government military reservation at Vancouver. Three Tree Point and Scarborough Head and the quarantine station opposite Astoria.

HIGH PRICE FOR KISSES.

Wisconsin Woman Wants Damages for Being Hugged Against Her Will.

Mrs. Sarah Staten, of Sauk county, Wisconsin, wants $15,000 for three kisses. She appeared before Judge Kelsey and gave her deposition, alleging that David G. James, of Richland Center, had hugged and kissed her three times against her will. The trial will take place in Richland county circuit court in April.

James is well-to-do and is known all over Wisconsin, having served last year as department commander of the G. A. R. He owns a farm in Sauk county, upon which Mr. and Mrs. Staten live and work. James frequently visited the farm, and it was on one of these visits that Mrs. Staten alleges the offense was committed.

James denies the charge, and declares it a case of blackmail. He was present with his lawyer, Frank Burnham, during the taking of Mrs. Staten's deposition. Mrs. Staten is 47 and James is 58 years of age.

Dr. Thomas Condon.

March 3, 1902, is the 80th birthday anniversary of Dr. Thomas Condon, professor of geology in the University of Oregon. To early Oregonians this will recall the pioneer days when Dr. Condon labored among them as a minister of the gospel; with the scientists it will recall his work as one of America's geologists; to the college students it means much more—that as teacher and friend his work has gone into the making of the manhood of the state, and will continue to bear its fruit in the many years to come. He is a native of Southern Ireland. At the age of 11 he came to New York City, where he grew to manhood and gained a grammar school education. He attended the Methodist collegiate school in Cazenovia, in Central New York, taught school a number of years and graduated from Auburn Theological Seminary in 1852. This same year he married Miss Cornelia Holt, of Buffalo, and came to Oregon by way of Cape Horn, as a home missionary for the Pacific Coast. Mrs. Frederick Nolf, of Pendleton, is a daughter of Dr. Condon.

Would Smash the Club.

If members of the "Hay Fever Association" would use Dr. King's New discovery for Consumption, the club would go to pieces, for it always cures this malady—and asthma, the kind that baffles the doctors—it wholly drives from the system. Thousands of once hopeless sufferers from consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis owe their lives and health to it. It conquers grip, saves little ones from croup and whooping cough and is positively guaranteed for all throat and lung troubles. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottles free at Tallman & Co.'s.

A Creditable Performance.

The pupils' recital at St. Paul's school Saturday evening, was probably the best yet given by the musical department, says the Walla Walla Union. One especially interesting feature was the fact that so many of the performers who played with such ease were very young to appear in public. The first performer, who was only 7 years of age, received the most enthusiastic applause. The following was the program: Selection, Josef Low, Anna Wilmut; Bergerette, Burgmuller, Eula Kavanaugh; Air de Ballet, Chaminade, Isabel de Charters Boyer; Fruhlingsregen, Fink, Harriett Lockwood; Papillon, Gurliitt, Eleanor Betz; Ballade, Burgmuller, Hazel Coleman; Entracte from Rosamunde, Schubert, Lelia Sutherland; Sonatina Clementi, Cassa Issley; Scherzino, Woollen haupt, (b) valse Petite, Huss, Lena Evans; duet, Biedermann, Miss Reynolds, Enid Smitten.

Lockjaw From Cobwebs.

A PECK OF TROUBLE

FIVE SUITS FILED AGAINST ATHENA MILL COMPANY.

Bond, the Manager, Wants Back Salary, Which He Apparently So Richly Earned, if Managing Property With Great Losses Count for Anything.

In addition to the several suits already pending against the Athena Flouring Mill Company, a corporation, five others were filed with the county clerk Monday. They are as follows:

W. E. Bond Wants Salary.

W. E. Bond, who has been manager for the Athena Flouring Mill Company and its warehouses since the first of January, 1901, asks the court to award him $800 back salary, in addition to $2371.17 which he paid out of his own funds at the instigation of the company on debts. J. J. Balleray is attorney for plaintiff.

Athena Bank Wants $2635.88.

The First National Bank of Athena, asks the district court for Umatilla county, to award it judgment in the sum of $2635.88 alleged to be due from the Athena Flouring Mill Company, for over drafts turned over to plaintiff by C. A. Barrett for collection. Carter & Raley are attorneys for plaintiffs.

T. J. Kirk Stored Grain.

T. J. Kirk alleges that he stored 76,950 pounds of wheat and 43752 pounds of barley in the corporation's warehouses, which he told Manager Bond the company could use, provided it would pay for the same on demand. The grain was converted into flour and shipped away and plaintiff has only received $301.68 in return, therefore, although he has demanded his money several times. He now prays the court to give him judgment in the sum of $769.07, yet due as the reasonable value of the wheat. Carter & Raley are attorneys for plaintiff.

W. C. Minnis Sold Wood.

W. C. Minnis, the well-known wood dealer, has brought suit for judgment in the sum of $220.80 alleged to be due from defendants for wood delivered in 1901. Carter & Raley are attorneys for plaintiff.

Koppitke Asks Judgment.

Henry Koppitke alleges that he sold defendants $206.22 worth of wood and delivered the same to them in Athena, and he asks the court to give him judgment for this amount. J. J. Balleray is attorney in this action.

Officers A. F. M. Co.

Thomas J. Kirk is the president of the Athena Flouring Mill Company; C. A. Barrett, vice-president; David Taylor, secretary; Jack Muerhead, treasurer, and W. E. Bond manager.

Two More Suits.

Two more cases were filed with the county clerk this morning, against the Athena Flouring Mill Company. They are:

C. H. Brown and Louis Hodgen, partners, ask the court to grant them judgment against defendants in the sum of $487.98, alleged to be due for barley stored in defendants' warehouses. T. G. Halley is attorney for the plaintiffs.

Got Away With the Barley.

David Ferris says he stored barley to the amount of $1259 in the Athena Flouring Mill Company's warehouses, for which defendants have never paid. He asks the court to award him judgment for this amount. T. G. Halley is plaintiff's attorney.

MAJOR MAGONE IS DEAD.

The Well Known Indian War Veteran Died in the East.

News has been received in Portland of the death of Major Joseph Magone, the well known Indian war veteran. He died in Ogdensburg, N. Y., February 15, at the age of 81 years.

Major Magone left Ogdensburg and went West in 1843, and in 1847 made the journey overland to the Pacific Coast. In 1849 he joined the gold-seekers in California. In 1853 he made his home in the Willamette valley in Oregon. He served during the Indian war of the Pacific Slope, and rose to the rank of Major. He left surviving three sons, two of whom, M. A. and E. E. Magone, reside in Oregon City, and one in Montana; also a brother, Daniel Magone, and a sister, Mrs. McGoe, who reside in Ogdensburg.

Major Magone was a man of more than ordinary ability, having a keen perception, a good memory and a fine command of language. His large experience as a pioneer in the great West had given him a fund of anecdote and story that made him a man of mark wherever he went.

Major Magone was a well known character in Eastern Oregon, and many years ago was employed as a mill wright for W. J. Snodgrass at Oro Dell. Later he was a resident of Grant county, and distinguished himself by walking from Canyon City to Chicago to attend the World's Fair. He was well known by all old residents of this section.

PUBLIC BUILDING.

Senator Mitchell Introduces a Bill in the Senate for That Purpose.

La Grande, March 4.—La Grande is to have a public building built by Uncle Sam. Senator Mitchell is the father of senate bill No. 4091, providing it, which has been introduced by him and referred to the proper committee who, he thinks, will report upon it favorably. A site is provided for in the bill, which will be purchased by the government. The estimated cost of the building is not given. The news of the government's enterprise is very pleasing to the people of La Grande, particularly those who have desirable sites to sell, valuations of which are already rising.

There is a case of smallpox on the W. H. Babcock farm, near Eureka, on Eureka flat, Washington.
