THINGS POLITICAL

COMMENT AS WELL AS POLITICAL NEWS.

Salem Paper Says W. J. Furnish's Main Object is the United States Senatorship, and Eastern Oregon Does Not Want Governorship.

The Portland Oregonian's Washington correspondent says: Cuban reciprocity has caused the greatest split that has occurred in the republican party since it gained power in the congressional campaign of 1894. Roosevelt is manfully attempting to carry out the promises made by McKinley to the Cuban delegation who visited Washington last summer to find out what this government would do in case the convention accepted the Platt amendment. McKinley probably could have succeeded, as he was a past master in the art of controlling refractory republican congressmen, and was more of a politician than Roosevelt. McKinley won democrats as well as republicans in distributing political honors, and especially army appointments on a non-partisan basis. Prominent republican politicians of the senate say that, by a judicious use of the patronage at his disposal, Roosevelt will be able to defeat the plan of the radical beet sugar men who are opposing his plan for reciprocity with Cuba. But Roosevelt does not like to use patronage for any such purpose, and feels a question of a public nature of this kind should be settled on its merits.

It appears, however, that the revolt against Cuban reciprocity, which is favored by the president, the speaker of the house and the men who have heretofore controlled the affairs of the house, is too large for suppression by the use of patronage, or even the power of any administration. The rule of Henderson, Payne, Dalzell, Grosvenor and Cannon has been threatened in the house before, but they have always managed by the aid of the administration and by the power which the speaker and those men exert in the control of legislation, to "whip into line" enough refractory members to carry their point. It was so on the Porto Rican legislation, on the Philippine legislation, and other measures of less importance. Then, however, they were fighting on the high protective lines, and now they are on the other side. Cuban reciprocity is regarded as the entering wedge against the high protective system, and the beet sugar republicans threaten to tear down the protective citadel if their interests are touched by granting concessions to Cuba. These beet sugar organizers, under the leadership of Tawney, Babcock and Morris begin to taste power, and it is possible that they hold the nucleus of an organization which may overthrow Henderson and his particular followers in another speakership contest. The fight is regarded as pre-saging disaster to the republicans in the coming congressional campaign. The beet sugar men allege that enough democrats will be elected if reciprocity is granted, to turn the scales in the house, while on the other hand it is said that a defeat of the administration policy will mean defeat at the polls this fall.

Geer as a Campaigner.
 The Salem Statesman says it has nothing but the highest respect for every man whose name has been mentioned in connection with the republican nomination for governor, but desires to say that Governor Geer has done more campaigning for the party in a way that has met with the spontaneous approbation of more members of it than all of them combined five times over.

Every republican in the state, it maintains, was proud when, last October, he was invited to go to Ohio and take part in the state campaign in that great state. It is recalled that the Ohio campaign lasted but two weeks, and that during the first week Governor Nash's associate on the canvass was Governor Shaw, of Iowa, and during the last week it was Governor Geer. Governor Shaw has since been appointed secretary of the treasury. In this illustrious company Governor Geer met his duties in a way that secured the highest words of praise from the leading newspapers of that state, many of which were reprinted in the Statesman at the time. Of course, this all counts for nothing with the disgruntled, one of the leaders of whom recently said he "would willingly go down to defeat if by so doing he could secure the defeat of Governor Geer."

The Statesman thinks Governor Geer deserves the support of every republican, and should have it.

Mr. Furnish's Friends.
 The Salem Statesman says: The personal friends of Mr. Furnish know that the object of his ambition is the United States senatorship. This was given out long ago in advance of his active candidacy for governor. The governorship is but to be a stepping stone to facilitate his advance. If he should be elected to that office every act of his administration would be to further his interests for the senatorship. The question of republicans to settle at the primaries is whether the governor's office is to be filled for the benefit of the state or to become a stepping stone for something else.

Quotes Union Republican.
 The Union Republican resents the statement of a valley paper, according to the Salem Statesman, to the effect that Eastern Oregon delegates have made up their minds to support a man from that section for governor. It says that if other utterances of the paper have no better foundation than this statement it would better pie its forams and call it off. It then goes on to say that the delegates have not yet been elected, the primaries not having been held. Eastern Oregon don't want the governorship, and the politicians are having a hard time making capital out of a sectional feeling which they are powerless to arouse. Eastern Oregon papers persistently refuse to indorse the candidacy of the republicans mentioned in that section for governor, and it is quite evident that Geer will have more delegates from Eastern Oregon when the convention meets than any other aspirant.

Political Notes.
 Portland Telegram: The Umatilla county republicans evidently prefer Furnish to Lowell for governor, by about 10 to 1. Not, however, that they have anything against Lowell, who is an excellent man, but not much of a politician. He might be a supreme court judge some day.

A republican convention for the second congressional district of the state of Oregon, will be held at Portland, Or., Tuesday, April 1, 1902, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congress and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

SIXTH ENTERTAINMENT.

At the Normal School in Weston, on Monday Night.

Weston, March 10.—The sixth entertainment in the course arranged by the faculty of the normal school, was given in the chapel of the school last night. The entertainment consisted of music, vocal and instrumental and readings. All of these literary treats that the course has furnished, have been enjoyed by the people of Weston, but none more so than the one given by home talent last night. Each number received a hearty encore and the reader, Miss Catherine LaBarre, who was down for four numbers, was compelled to double up each time.

The following are the names of those who took part: Miss Ethel Blanch Beattie, pianist; Miss Catherine Elizabeth LaBarre, former teacher of elocution at the normal school, reader; Miss Lois Lucile Peebles, contralto, and Professor Harry Clifford Doane, baritone.

WALLA WALLA NEWS.

Assessing Property—Band Coming to Pendleton—Whitman's New Clock.

Walla Walla, March 12.—County Assessor Cadman has a force of field deputies at work listing the property of Walla Walla county people, the work having been started this week. Another man or two will be started later in the week. This year real estate will have to be assessed as well as personal property, and the work will require several weeks.

The Walla Walla band is making arrangements to visit Pendleton the last of this month to furnish music for the log-rolling to be held by the Woodmen of the World. Special train service is being arranged for to accommodate the crowd of people who will accompany the band.

Peddlers doing business in Walla Walla county hereafter will have to secure a license from the county auditor, according to a new ruling made by the board of commissioners. For a wagon peddler the fee will be $25 per year; for a pack, the price will be $5, payable in advance. In a few days the new $1000 clock is expected to arrive at Whitman

ABUSING HORSES.

Young Fellows Amusing Themselves by Tying Tin Cans to Their Tails.

Word comes to the East Oregonian office, on good authority, that on McKay creek, a few miles from town on the road between here and Pilot Rock, wild horses are being run into corrals on Sunday and tin cans tied to their tails and then they are turned loose as a means of amusement for a lot of young fellows who live in that section. Last Sunday this was done, and a man who was riding a bicycle out that way was met in the road by one of these thoroughly frightened horses and, where it passed him the road was very narrow, being along the creek bank, and he had a narrow escape from being run over by the animal. It would have been the same thing had a team been passing, and perhaps some one might have been badly crippled or killed. This is, to say nothing about the danger to life, a most despicable form of amusement, and people who are guilty of treating helpless, dumb animals in such cruel fashion must be lacking in feeling for other animals.

$100 Dollars Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Nine Candidates Initiated.

At the meeting of Umatilla Tent, No. 27, Maccabees, in secret society hall last night, nine candidates were initiated into the secrets of the order. This was also the time for the closing of the contest, that was inaugurated a month ago between J. S. Kees and George Robbins, who are pitted against each other, each choosing about 50 members, who were to see which could get the most applications during the month. Thirty-seven applications were balloted on and accepted, 21 being to the credit of Captain Kees and his workers, and 16 to Captain Robbins and his side. The contest caused a great deal of interest on both sides and the agreement was that the losers were to furnish an oyster supper for the winners. This will come off about the 27th instant.

Wonderful Vehicle.

Two business men named Cudall and Lewis have had built the most extraordinary automobile ever yet constructed, says a dispatch from Paris to the American & Journal. Its owners have ordered it especially for the purpose of making a trip from Paris to Pekin. In addition to the ordinary outfit of an automobile, this one has four comfortable beds and a small kitchen is attached to the rear. The travelers intend to take six months for the trip and to visit every town of importance between the two capitals. They have engaged a first class Parisian cook to take with them, and propose to be entirely independent of hotels.

HERPICIDE

TO HAVE THICK, LUXURIANT HAIR

is the most longed-for desire of every woman. She knows what a powerful aid to beauty it is, and endeavors to make her own as soft, glossy and thick as possible. Comparatively few of them are aware as yet that Newbro's Herpicide, a recent scientific discovery, will enable them to possess hair as thick and luxuriant as anyone could desire. It works on a new theory of destroying the germ that feeds upon the hair root, and thus making dandruff and falling hair impossible. It then proceeds to produce a growth of thick, glossy hair that soon becomes the pride of its owner. One trial will convince you of its virtues.
