GREAT CONCLAVE HELD IN PENDLETON APRIL 21-22.

The Spirit and Zeal of Those Behind the Movement Insures a Most Remarkable Gathering of People From All Points of the Compass.

The "Knights of the Beele, Ax and Wedge" are fast perfecting their plans for the great conclave which will be held in this city a month hence. Each day is added to the enthusiasm and in fact it may now be said to have reached a point of ardent zeal. The reports of continued outside interest are still coming thick and fast. Camps and circles which at first did not take interest in the movement are now swinging into line and will join their neighboring towns in attending the reunion.

Today the secretary received word from two points which had not previously responded, saying that they too had shouldered their axes and would chop a roadway through the dense forest to Pendleton. April 21.
More names J. M. Dunahoo as their general committeeman and Heppner names A. M. Slocum. These gentlemen will be added to the long list of names of the committee which is composed of one or two neighbors from all over Eastern Oregon and Southeastern Washington.

A Special Representative.
The general committee has been more than fortunate in securing the services of District Organizer J. S.
Williams, of Salem, Or., who leaves his field of operations to assist in awakening every point to a realization of the importance of the movement.
Mr. Williams arrived in Pendleton yesterday, and will remain until Monday, getting posted in detail on the movement and will then start out on a series of visits to the camps and circles throughout the country. They are preparing to receive him in loyal style, and the result of his travels can but be of great good not only to the log-rolling generally, but to every point visited. The following is his itinerary:

Union, Or., March 17; North Powder, Or., March 18; Haines, Or., March 19; Baker City, Or., March 20; Huntington, Or., March 21; La Grande, Or., March 22; Elgin, Or., March 24; Wallowa, Or., March 25; Enterprise, Or., March 26; Joseph, Or., March 27; Athena, Or., March 31; Milton, Or., April 1; Prescott, Wash., April 2; Walla Walla, Wash., April 3; Waltsburg, Or., April 4; Starbuck, Wash., April 5; Pomeroy, Wash., April 8; Dayton, Wash., April 19; Adams, Or., April 11; Heppner, Or., April 14; Arlington, Or., April 16.

Souvenir Coins.
This morning 1000 souvenir coins were received fresh from the factory at Boston, Mass. They are made of aluminum and are slightly larger than a fifty cent piece. In the center of each is imbedded a brand new copper penny of the date of 1902. The coins are the exact thickness of the penny, so that both sides are flush and show plainly. Around the penny on one side are two horseshoes interlocked, outside of which appear the words, "Perfect Woodcraft," which is the joint name of the Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft.
There also are inscribed the figures "1144," the same being the number of candidates which these two marvelously successful organizations will initiate at the logrolling. On the reverse side of the penny appears imbed-ed in a four-leaf clover, outside of which appear the words "Pendleton, Or., April 21-22." The date is completed on the penny, which, as stated are of the die of 1902. This combined marks the occasion of the greatest fraternal demonstration ever seen in this part of the country.

Altogether it is the neatest little souvenir ever gotten out for an event in this state. It will last a lifetime and the neighbor carrying one of these souvenirs can truly say he will never go broke. It is also peculiarly applicable to the Woodmen of the World, for all members of that order carry what is known as a "Woodmen coin," which has a symbolic purpose known only to members of the craft.
These coins will retail at 25 cents each, and judging by the call already

Cuticura SOAP
For Sanative Uses.

Its remarkable, emollient, cleansing, and purifying properties, derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, warrant the use of CUTICURA SOAP in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflamma-tions, and chafage, for too free of offensive perspiration, and also in the form of internal washes and solutions for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sensitive, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially to mothers. The use of CUTICURA Ointment with CUTICURA SOAP will suggest itself in the severer cases.

Mrs. D. Arnold, President German Woman's Club, Grand Pacific Hotel, Los Angeles, Cal., Relieved of a Tumor by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered four years ago with a tumor in my womb, and the doctors declared I must go to the hospital and undergo an operation, which I dreaded very much and hesitated to submit.

"My husband consulted an old friend who had studied medicine, although he was not a practising physician, and he said he believed that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure me. That same day I took my first dose, and I kept it up faithfully until twelve bottles had been used, and not only did the tumor disappear, but my general health was very much improved and I had not felt so well since I was a young woman.

"As I have suffered no relapse since, and as I took no other medicine, I am sure that your Compound restored my health and I believe saved my life."—MRS. D. ARNOLD.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone," and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

being made, it is very doubtful if the committee have enough to go round.

General Committee Meeting.

The general committee will meet again tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m., in the offices of Stillman & Pierce. A large amount of important business will come before the meeting and it is necessary that there be a full attendance. The chairman will call for a report from each subcommittee and it is expected the same will be forthcoming. Unlike all such movements as generally conducted, it is the intention of this general committee to have every detail worked out to a nicety before the date set for the logrolling, in order that every committeeman and every neighbor of the order may give his or her undivided attention at that time to receiving and properly entertaining the immense throng which it is now certain will be in attendance.

Special Edition Pacific Echo.

Grand Guardian Van Orsdall is hard at work on a special edition of the Pacific Echo, the official organ of the Women of Woodcraft. This paper will be sent to every camp and circle in the entire order. It will be devoted entirely to the great log-rolling movement. Thus will this affair become known throughout the entire country.
In addition to this some 7000 copies will be printed and one will go to every member of the Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft in Eastern Oregon and Southeastern Washington. This, in addition to the liberal notices which the press throughout this part of the country is giving it, the movement is being made known as nothing in the state was ever advertised before.

THE FOOL AND HIS MONEY.

Spent His Substance in Riotous Living and Committed Forgery.

Harry Earl Butterfield, alias Harry Taylor, is behind the bars at the court house with a very serious charge starring him in the face. He came to town two weeks ago from the country, where he had been at work and has been carrying things with a high hand ever since, spending his money as though it was worthless, until he was about broke. Thursday he concluded that he had to replenish his spending fund in some way and conceived the idea of forging an order and selling it, so he wrote one for $46 and signed the name of Asa Aber-gast, a prosperous farmer and stockman of Ritter, thereto. The order was drawn in favor of J. E. Smith, Jr., and Butterfield took it to J. W. Crawford, the harness man, and traded it for a new saddle and pair of schaps, which he took to George O'Daniel the second-hand man, and pawned them for $20, claiming to be the son of J.
E. Smith, the sheep man, living on West Alta street. This was Thursday, and Friday morning Butterfield was arrested and lodged in jail.

When interviewed Friday evening, Butterfield said: "I do not know what made me forge the order. I did it on the spur of the moment, not realizing that it would get me into trouble. I was getting short of money and expected $100 from home every day and intended to pay for the saddle and take back the order before I was found out. I had plenty of time to skip the country if I had intended to, but that was not my intention. I came to town two weeks ago with $57.50 and intended to go to my home in Worcester, Mass., in a few days.
That was not quite enough to get my ticket and I wrote home for more which I am expecting every day. My parents are well off and if they knew of this trouble I would not be allowed to remain in jail longer than the money could be telegraphed to me to get me out."

Butterfield is only 18 years old and claims to be a deserter from the United States navy, having enlisted as an apprentice on the battleship Wisconsin, at Boston, February 23, 1900, when she was first put into service, and deserted July 13, 1901, at Port Angeles. His term in the service was to be until he was 21 years of age.

Chief of Police Joe Blakley arrested Butterfield, and when the chief heard that the prisoner was a deserter and probably wanted by the government, he wired to Port Angeles to find out something about it, but the reply was that nothing was known there about such a man. Butterfield was then taken to the county jail and the charge of forgery lodged against him.
