CONFESED TO ROBBERY.

Andrew Farman Admits He Committed Larceny From a Dwelling.

Andrew Farman, who was arrested last Sunday on suspicion of being the fellow who entered Elmer Hale's house Saturday while the family were in town from their home on Wild Horse, taking a watch, ring and a few other trinkets, has confessed to the crime. He was placed in the county jail Thursday and confessed to being the robber, saying if the officers would let him go he would show them where he had cached the articles. Friday, Sheriff Blakley took Farman out and they went to the cache, which was under a bridge across the Wild Horse, between Adams and Athena, but the watch and ring were gone and the only thing left was a piece of watch chain and a comb. Two men were with Farman when he was arrested, but they proved beyond a doubt that they were not implicated in the robbery and were let go. Farman says that they saw him cache the things and it is thought by the officers that they went back to the place after Farman was arrested, and took them away. Where these fellows are, or what has been done with the watch and ring, is not known, and it is likely they will not be apprehended, as they have had almost a week in which to make good their escape. Farman was brought back to jail and will be arraigned shortly.

Baseball Nuggets.

"Kid" Peoples, with Seattle last season, has caught on with Helena. Peoples was released by Seattle this winter, and for a time was anxious to come to Pendleton. He wanted a league salary.

There is still a chance to secure the Butte team for Pendleton for a couple of weeks in April. The management of the local club is in receipt of a letter from A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the O. R. & N. Company, notifying the management that nothing can be done in the matter until C. H. Lane, of the Butte team, confers with President Lucas, of the P. N. league, when he visits Butte, on March 18.

The fence at the ball park will be constructed the latter part of next week. The association has decided upon a novel way of building it, and earnestly request that citizens with a little leisure time will assist in carrying out the plan. The association will purchase lumber, have holes dug and the posts set. On next Friday and Saturday there will be a "fencing bee." Any person who cares to will be allowed to nail on boards. It is hoped that there will be a large number of enthusiasts on hand to help the association save the expense of construction.

Captain Ziegler is reticent about the probable line-up of his team when the season opens. The team will be gotten together about April 24.

Cecil Wade, of Whitman College, will be in the city today and final arrangements will be made for a game with that club on March 27.

The local team is trying to arrange games with some club for Saturday and Sunday, March 29 and 30.

Sunday afternoon, if the weather will permit, the local players will again indulge in light practice at the ball park.

Political Notes.

J. L. Caviness, a well known business man of Island City, Union county, if favorably spoken of as a desirable candidate for the joint senatorship for Morrow, Union and Umatilla counties on the republican ticket. Mr. Caviness is a miller and merchant.

It is now reported that Albert Gelser, the Baker City mining man, is out for governor and will be represented at the republican state convention by a strong delegation. This is another case of muddying the political waters.

True.

The occasional ad is one of the very best methods by which to squander money. Continuous advertising, on the other hand, will bring ample returns for the money invested.—Suggestions.

New steel rails are being laid on the Heppner branch of the O. R. & N. The work is finished on half of the line from Heppner Junction.

THE MISSION OF LIFE.

It is to Grow—And See That You Grow.

The mission of life is to grow and develop its God-given power.

Those who start the lowest and are able to work up are usually given the most credit for having overcome obstacles by worth and work.

Sometimes, however, those who have greatness thrust upon them by marriage or inheritance are most arrogant and intolerant in their attitude toward those who get on and up in life by hard and persistent hustling. It takes a chambermaid, for instance, who has married into and been left a great business, to point with fine scorn to those who have grown to be somebody by their own experience as "upstarts."

However, only children or inexperienced persons mind being "called names."

As one great man said: "No gentleman will insult me and no other can."

Let no one discourage you by calling you an upstart. It would be much easier to be a downstart than an upstart. If you are a downstart no one will ever take the trouble to call you names.

There is no dishonor in any work. All depends upon the worker. A chambermaid is as good as a queen if she does her part the best she knows how.

As Alexander Pope says: Honor and shame from no condition rise, Act well your part—there all the honor lies.
