WANTED.

WANTED ADVERTISERS TO MAKE USE of these classified columns. If you have something you have no use for, offer to trade it for something that some other body may have and have no use for, something that you may need in your business. You may have an extra horse that you might wish to trade for a cow or a vehicle. Somebody may have the cow and vehicle and want the horse. A fifteen or twenty-five cent want ad will probably do the business.

Cigar Brands.

There are between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 brands of cigars sold in this country, and your average smoker thinks that every brand means a different kind of tobacco. As a matter of fact, 150 is an outside estimate of the different kinds of tobacco that can be procured from all sources, and even experts can't tell some of these apart.

Bottom—I always pay as I go. Lile—Do you want a receipt?

COMMERCE-TRADE

FRANKLIN COUNTY CROPS WERE DESTROYED.

Tom Montgomery Says Land Has Been Reseeded.

Thomas G. Montgomery returned Tuesday evening from a visit to his homestead in Franklin county, near the town of Connell and not far from the Washington region. Mr. Montgomery has 240 acres of wheat land in that country and has put me to work reseeded the whole tract, as it was all frozen out during the cold spell in January. He says that there is not a field of fall wheat in that country but that will have to be reseeded. This fact has only been realized recently. When the cold was over and spring weather first appeared, much of the grain was thought to be all right, but since that time it has gradually died out and only recently have the farmers of that country decided that they would have to reseed if they had any wheat. Mr. Montgomery is not very well pleased with the outlook for the crops up there. If they have plenty of rain there is nothing to fear, but if it is a dry spring the late-sown grains will not amount to much because of the high dry soil. Fall grain stands a much better show than spring grain, for the reason that the wheat gets an earlier start and the ground not being stirred in the spring holds its moisture much longer than if it is plowed or harrowed at this time of year.

True.

The occasional ad is one of the very best methods by which to squander money. Continuous advertising, on the other hand, will bring ample returns for the money invested.—Suggestions.

What It Is.
Advertising is the life blood of the business world today, and well directed advertising is like the powerful searchlight of a river steamer, thrown upon a distant cottage on the bank, cutting it out like a picture painted on a black canvas. The timid buyer and the prospective industry will follow the rays of the searchlight of publicity, just as surely as will the eyes of the steamer's passengers follow the light thrown from their vessel. They will not search the surrounding gloom for objects of interest when a beautiful picture is clearly shown before them. Prospective buyers will not search the surrounding gloom for your competitors if the searchlight of publicity is turned on your own place of business.—Canastota (N. Y.) Bee.
