NOTORIOUS CAPTAIN GETS 3 1/2 YEARS.

Pleaded Guilty to Obtaining Money From Pendleton People Under False Pretenses.

Three and one-half years in the penitentiary, was the sentence imposed this afternoon on G. M. Sherwood, alias Captain McCook, who is so well known in Pendleton, especially by some of the ex-army people. After declaring that he was not the man who obtained money under false pretenses while making a brief sojourn in Pendleton last June, and sticking to the story that he was never in Pendleton since his arrest three weeks ago, Sherwood, alias McCook, weakened this afternoon when he was taken before Judge Ellis and said that he was the notorious "captain" and army officer who "skinned" some of the business men of Pendleton out of something like $600. He gave as his excuse that he got to drinking and that he went wrong and was led to commit the crimes he did because of drink. Although he had obtained $600 from different persons, there was only one charge against him. That was for obtaining money under false pretenses in getting the Van Dran Brothers, proprietors of Hotel Pendleton, to cash a check for $50. When this check was presented at the bank the next day it was learned that Captain McCook's checks were valueless. A warrant was sworn out by the Van Dran Brothers, but the wily captain had fled. He got too brave, however, and came back too close to where he committed the crime. Three weeks ago he was seen and identified in Portland. Immediately a detective was placed on his tracks and he was placed under arrest. The others who were "taken in" by the captain did not appear against him with their grievances, and he was let off with the one charge. After giving him a sound lecture, the judge pronounced sentence by saying that he was inclined to be lenient with him, because apparently he was a gentleman, and had allowed himself to be led wrong by strong drink.

Other Cases.

In addition to the handling of Sherwood's case, the judge disposed of two other criminal cases. They were Harry Butterfield, who got two years for obtaining goods under false pretense, and Calvin Lester, alias Andrew Farman, who got two and a half years for larceny from a dwelling.

Butterfield is the young man who forged an order on A. S. Abergast and got a saddle and pair of chaparejos with it, from J. W. Crawford, the harness man. Following is the order: Ukiah, Ore., March 9, 1902.

Mr. Crawford:
 Dear Sir:—Please let bearer (Mr. J. E. Smith) have a saddle and pair of chaps and I will be in and settle for them in a few days, and oblige
 Asa S. Abergast, Ukiah, Ore.

Butterfield pleaded guilty to the charge and gave as an excuse that he was drinking when he forged the order. He evidently did not realize the enormity of his crime, for when the judge passed the sentence that he should be confined in the state penitentiary for the term of two years, he staggered and had to support himself by a chair.

The charge against Calvin Lester, alias Andrew Farman, was for breaking into the dwelling of Elmer Hale, on the Wild Horse, on the afternoon of the 8th inst., stealing a watch and chain belonging to Mrs. Hale, and some other things. These were taken up the road between Adams and Athena, where they were hid under a bridge. Lester had joined a couple of other fellows who saw him put them away and after he was arrested they evidently took the things away, for when the young man went with Sheriff Blakley to get them they were gone. He pleaded guilty and, although he declared that it was his first offense, he was sentenced to two and a half years at hard labor.

Resolutions.

Whereas, the Great Spirit in his wisdom has removed from the hunting grounds of our tribe the spirit of our brother, Ben Hagen, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as members of Umaholis Tribe, No. 18, Improved Order of Red Men, adopt this means of expressing our sincere sorrow at losing so valuable and worthy a member, and of extending to his family our most heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the tribe and that copies be furnished the local papers for publication.

Resolved, That the charter of this tribe be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

R. E. PORTER ASKS FOR A DIVORCE.

Complains That His Wife Unjustly Accuses Him of Wrong Conduct.

After living together 22 years, Robert E. Porter and Melvina Porter, his wife, have agreed to disagree and this morning a suit for divorce was filed on the equity docket at the court house by Mr. Porter.

Mr. Porter is the genial storekeeper at Mencham and is well known throughout the country. In his complaint and request that the ever obliging court of Umatilla county sever the ties that have bound him and his wife together these long years, he alleges that without any cause defendant has repeatedly accused him of paying undue attention to other women. The first storm that ruffled the placid waters of Mr. and Mrs. Porter's matrimonial sea was about the 1st of January, 1900, and since that time plaintiff alleges that defendant has continually made life burdensome for him and that she has not only accused him of being untrue to her when they were alone under the roof of their own home, but has made these accusations before friends and neighbors which has caused him much chagrin and embarrassment. Not only this, but her conduct toward him has caused their neighbors to criticize and gossip.

They continued to live together, however, until the 13th of the present month, when the defendant deserted plaintiff and declared that she never would live with him again and never wanted to see his face.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter have three sons, Walter, Archie and Lee, whose ages are 19, 17 and 9 years respectively.

L. B. Reeder is attorney for plaintiff.

CLARK WOOD GIVES OUT NO MORE PHOTOS.

Proposes to Expose Not Again His Mug to Vulgar Criticism.

Clark Wood, of the Weston Leader, thus announces his intention to reform:

Prominence has its advantages. In a careless, unguarded moment the editor of this paper permitted his picture to appear in the Pendleton Tribune's Mid-Winter Magazine, on the plea that it would lend eclat to that publication. Now comes the East Oregonian and callously remarks that "it makes one feel uneasy as to the world and what dreadful things it contains. A man never looks so foolish as when his picture appears in print." No doubt Boyd will also have some indelicate comments to make in his usual brutal, uncouth way, and thus seek to besmirch the laurels of the gentleman whose distinction he envies yet cannot emulate. The Leader man gave the Tribune his picture solely in response to a popular demand for the likeness that could not be supplied with photographs; yet there are narrow, petty and benighted souls who will ascribe to us a vanity and self-love wholly foreign to our nature. We are sensitive to these foul aspersions, and to such coarse and discourteous squibs as the East Oregonian discredited itself by printing. It will be many moons—yes, cycles—before our bloomin' mug is again publicly exposed to vulgar criticism.

The United States requires the services of about 130,000 physicians.

Smoke Pride of Umatilla Cigars.

HEART TO HEART TALK.

It is not everyone that knows all about the best in shoes. To those who do and do not, we offer our services. There can be no doubt but that the shoe department of "The Big Store" is on a par with the best of shoe concerns. Let us enumerate a few of the leading favorites that claim the public attention and prove the worth of these claims:

THE DOUGLAS SHOE for men at three, three fifty and four dollars is a line of unequaled merit. Most of the line sells at $3.50, the acknowledged price at which the greatest amount of service, style and comfort is concentrated per dollars worth. Our business last year was beyond our expectations and the demand is growing every month. The shoe makers are assuring us that a Douglas shoe is worth new soles, while most other makes are not. We would sell more pairs if they did not wear so long.

The ladies "GLORIA" $3.50 shoe is a new-comer from the East. It has, however, been out here long enough to establish an enviable reputation. Remember they are new styles, as we have not had them long. We only bought the newest and best and are introducing them to the people of this community and hope they will prove as welcome as they have in Portland, San Francisco and Seattle.

The Red School House Shoes (made under new management) is greatly improved and is meeting with a successful sale. They come in three weights and styles, in all sizes and widths.

At the $2.50 price there is here a large and varied line of shoes for boys and girls, ladies and gentlemen. We are striving to show the people of this vicinity that we are the greatest $2.50 and $3.50 shoe concern in Eastern Oregon.
