THE NEGATIVE WON.

Academy Debate on Friday Afternoon Was Interesting.

"Resolved, That the World is Growing Better." The negative won. That was the question debated between the students of the Pendleton Academy Friday afternoon.

The negative side was represented by Della Beagle, Myrtle Hawks, Grace Crockett and Elsie Garrett, while the affirmative side of the question was debated by Joe Kennedy, Theresa Porter and Earl Yates, Ruby Whitmore, who was unable to attend on account of illness.

The debate was won by the negatives, the decision of the judges being 2 to 1.

FOR THE CRANKS

BASEBALL MEN ARE GETTING INTO SHAPE.

Knox Coming and Wilner Signed and Others Being Figured With.

Much "knocking" is being done at the Alta street baseball grounds today. As a general thing "knockers" are not appreciated by the general public, but the kind that have been at the ball grounds all day are appreciated by the management of the baseball club.

Story Cannot Come.

Every effort is being made to secure good players and at the opening of the season it is expected that the superiority of the Pendleton club over the other clubs in this section of the country will be made manifest. If there are weak spots in the team they will be strengthened. The team was practically completed yesterday, and it would have been in shape to have lined up in regular order against Athena March 30, but news was received yesterday from the catcher, Bert Story, of Anaconda, stating that an accident had befallen him and that he would not be able to take part in the games with the Pendleton team for several weeks, if he could at all this season.

The negative side was represented by Della Beagle, Myrtle Hawks, Grace Crockett and Elsie Garrett, while the affirmative side of the question was debated by Joe Kennedy, Theresa Porter and Earl Yates, Ruby Whitmore, who was unable to attend on account of illness.

Richard Knox, who played last year with the Spokane team, is expected this evening. He is an outfielder and is said to be a wonder.

Wilner is Signed.

Robert Wilner is here and has signed with the local team. He played with Tacoma last year. The management has all the players in view, but they do not care to give out the names until they have been secured by a signed contract.

Butte Not Coming.

Manager John J. McCloskey, of the Butte baseball club, who is at Springfield, Ill., says that he had signed the whole team with the exception of two pitchers. The Butte team as it now stands, is:

Catchers: Zearfoss and McDonough; pitcher, Burns; first base, McCloskey; second base, Ward; third base, Marshall; left field, Treadway; center field, Houtz; right field, Perham; utility man, Copeland.

It is thought that the team will go to Salt Lake for practice.

NEW CIRCLE FORMED.

Miss Sumner Organizes One at Ukiah—Thirty Members.

Miss Bertha M. Sumner, on behalf of the grand circle, instituted a new circle of the Women of Woodcraft at Ukiah last Tuesday with thirty charter members, ten of whom were members of the local camp. The new circle starts off under very flattering auspices, its membership being composed of many of the representative ladies and gentlemen of that thriving community.

The following is a list of the new officers whom she installed, and to whom was imparted the beautiful and impressive ritualistic work of the order: Past guardian neighbor, Rose Rippey; guardian neighbor, Katherine McSnowden; adviser, Nellie Despain; clerk, Lucy McReynolds; banker, Lottie Milem; magician, Belle Harpole; attendant, Matilda McReynolds; captain of guards, Elizabeth Gibbs; musician, Gertrude Gibbs; L. S. Irene Milem; O. S., Martha McReynolds; managers, F. W. Boynton, Leon Milem and Grace Boynton.

PERSONAL MENTION

L. M. Watrus, of Adams, is in town. Robert Hale, a prominent farmer from McKay, was in town yesterday.

D. B. Richardson, one of the prominent business men of Helix, spent Friday in town.

J. J. Goodman and Rev. H. W. Voght, of Milton, were registered at the Golden Rule hotel last night.

Dan Shockey, employed with the Pendleton Electric Light Company, is suffering with an attack of sciatic rheumatism.

John Johnson, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. A. H. Wedhoff, of this city the past two weeks, left Friday evening for his home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Todd have asked the East Oregonian to express to the people their thanks for the kindly attentions shown them during the recent search for the body of their son, Elza, who was drowned.

The Right Rev. Lemuel Wells, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Spokane, will arrive in Pendleton Sunday and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson Sunday night and Monday. He will lecture to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Episcopal church on "Missions" Monday.

Sheriff Blakley, accompanied by two deputies, will leave tomorrow morning for Salem, where he goes to deliver G. M. Sherwood, alias Captain McCook, and Harry Butterfield and Calvin Lester, over to the warden of the state penitentiary, with whom they will board for three and a half, two and a half and two years respectively.

ST. JOE STORE SCENE OF A GREAT BIG LUNCH.

Several Hundred People Enjoyed Hospitality of Genial Storekeeper.

E. M. Lyons, proprietor of the St. Joe store, has adopted a novel plan to get acquainted with his customers. All through the week he has been advertising through the papers and by hand bills that he would serve free lunches in his store, beginning at 12 o'clock today and lasting until 4 in the afternoon. He has a large platform running through the center of his store and this was fixed with a lunch counter where all could go and partake of a bounteous meal consisting of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and other kinds of substantial food that was prepared by E. L. LeRoy and wife. At this counter as many as two or three hundred people had eaten at 3 o'clock. In the back of the store is a place prepared for Indians, and 200 of the subjects of Uncle Sam, from the Umatilla reserve, have taken advantage of this chance of obtaining a free lunch.

A CASE OF SCARLET FEVER IN TOWN.

Daughter of P. H. Fee Taken Sick at School—Measles Appears.

The little daughter of Policeman P. H. Fee and wife has scarlet fever. Yesterday afternoon she took sick in school and went home. Dr. Cole was summoned and he pronounced that she was coming down with this disease and the house was immediately quarantined. Several other cases have been reported from the lower part of town, but no definite information of who they are can be obtained. Health Officer Cole says that he knows of no other cases, and if there are others they are being kept quiet.

Two cases of measles are also reported in town. They are the wife and child of Dean Schull, of Cosby street, between Tuam and Bluff streets. No steps have yet been taken by the health officer to investigate or quarantine them.

Escaped Injury.

The team hitched to Leezer's delivery wagon became frightened when near the home of Sheriff W. M. Blakley, south of the public school, this afternoon and became unmanageable, with the result that the wagon was turned over and badly demolished at the southern end of Main street. A. W. Nye was driving and he was thrown out and dragged some distance, but escaped serious injury.

BRIDGE LAW DISREGARDED BY CATTLEMEN.

Notwithstanding Fines Are Provided, No One Suffers for Endangering the Structure.

On Thursday a number of cattle were allowed to run across the Main street bridge, straining the structure to the utmost and endangering the lives of several people on the bridge at the time. Those who had charge of the cattle carelessly drove the bunch to the north approach of the bridge and allowed most of the cattle to run on the structure. The cattle should have been divided at a greater distance from the bridge and a few of them allowed to cross at a time. Until the authorities take someone before the recorder and tax them severely for their ignoring the law, this practice will continue. It is a daily occurrence for teams to be trotted over the bridge, notwithstanding the signs on the structure warning people not to do so under penalty of a fine. But so far no one has been fined, nor the bad practice discouraged. Some day a life or two will be sacrificed by the indulgence, and Pendleton will be out from $7000 to $10,000 to replace the bridge.
