PORTLAND TEMPLE

ODD FELLOWS WILL BE AT THE DEDICATION.

Pendleton Lodges Expect to Have a Special Train From This Place.

Eureka Lodge, No. 32, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, met Saturday night in regular session in their lodge room and appointed a committee of six to arrange for the visit to Portland on the 26th of April, when the Odd Fellows home will be dedicated. This committee is composed of John Lawery, William Fitzgerald, Lee Teutsch, Ed Sawtell, John Duncan and J. W. Maloney. Their business will be to see how many are going from here and provide means of transportation for them. The Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company has offered a rate of one fare for the round trip if 100 or more tickets are sold, but if less than 100 go one and one-half rate will have to be paid. This committee will get the names of all that are going and if they can get 100 or more a special train will be run to transport them to Portland and return. It is thought that it will be no trouble to get that number and from all indications, twice that number will go from here.

Integrity Lodge, No. 92, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will also act on the matter at their meeting Wednesday night and it is expected that they will appoint a committee to confer with Eureka Lodge committee and arrange for this trip.

In Saturday's edition of the Portland Telegram the following was said about the dedication of the home and annual meeting of the order:

Representatives of the various Odd Fellow lodges, encampments and Rebekah lodges of the city met last evening in the I. O. O. F. Temple, for the purpose of arranging a program in connection with the dedication of the home, which will take place April 26, the 83d anniversary of the founding of the order. Odd Fellows from all parts of the state will be here on that occasion, as the grand lodge will assume charge of the dedicatory exercises, and it is planned to make it a red letter day for Odd Fellowship.

In connection with the dedication of the home, which will take place during the forenoon, it is planned to have a barbecue or refreshments in some form, and in the evening there will be a love feast of Odd Fellows in some large hall in the city. The trustees of the home and the grand lodge invited the city lodges to arrange the program for the day, and Portland will give the visiting brothers and sisters a royal welcome.

The dedication of the home will be conducted personally by the grand lodge officers, all of whom will be in attendance, and the exercises will be delayed until 11 o'clock in the morning to await their coming.

EASTERNERS HEARING LIES ABOUT THE WEST.

Settlers Expect to Find Plenty of Government Land to Take Up.

D. O. Rader, uncle of M. A. Rader, the furniture man, of this city, arrived Saturday from Wolcott, Ind., and left on the belated train for Walla Walla, where he goes to visit a daughter. Mr. Rader landed in Pendleton just a year ago today and remained here three weeks, returning to his home, but after the visit here was not satisfied with his old home and has come back with the intention of buying a place for himself and family. He does not yet know whether he will settle in Oregon or Washington. He wants a good farm that he can get possession of immediately, and if he finds that, he will return home and bring his family this spring. If he buys a place that he cannot get possession of until fall he will not move here until then.

Mr. Rader says that on the train was a large number of immigrants who were looking for homes. One car was loaded with a colony from North Dakota who are going to Portland. They are looking for homes and many of them are like many others who are coming to the Pacific Coast. They had the idea instilled in their heads that they could pick up good farming lands here "for a song and sing it themselves." Mr.

Forges Drug and Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston. How to Cure Every Skin and Blood Humor. CUTICURA PUREST OF BABY SOAPS

Rader said he told many of them that this was an erroneous idea and that good land was all taken up and held at high figures. He said that many of these people were really surprised when he told them they would not be able to go out here anywhere, within a few miles of some good town, and find a quarter section of good farm land that they could homestead and make a living on from the very start. How these people got such ideas, Mr. Rader says is a mystery to him, but they have them and it is impossible to convince them different. There is an old adage that runs thus: "Experience is a dear school, but fools will learn in no other." They will learn yet.

A COLD WEEK.

Last One Was of Low Temperature for This Season.

The weather of the week ending Saturday night, the 22d inst., as reported by Volunteer Weather Observer William Hilton, was as follows: Beginning with Sunday, the 16th, the maximum temperature was 60; Monday, 61; Tuesday, 62; Wednesday, 56; Thursday, 66; Friday, 60; Saturday, 56; showing that the average maximum temperature for the whole week was 60.1. The minimum temperature for the same time was: Sunday, 34; Monday, 35; Tuesday, 36; Wednesday, 36; Thursday, 36; Friday, 34; Saturday, 36. The average minimum being 35.3. The total rain fall was .76. Five days out of the seven were clear and two cloudy. The wind blew from the northeast one day, from the west five days and from the south one.

SEWING ON BUTTONS.

A Housewife Passes Along a Bright Suggestion.

It is probable that the average woman thinks she knows how to sew on buttons in the right way, but the chances are she never heard of the best way, so this little story is given to enlighten her:

"When I get a good idea I always want to pass it along," said a thrifty housewife as she was watching a young girl sewing. "Do your buttons ever come off?"

"Ever? They're always doing it. They are ironed off, washed off and pulled off until I despair. I seem to shed buttons at every step." "Make use of these two hints, when you are sewing them on and see if they make any difference. When you begin before laying the button on the cloth, put the thread through so the knot will be on the right side. That puts it under the button and keeps it from being ironed away and thus beginning the loosening process. Then, before you begin sewing, lay a large pin across the buttons so that all the threads will go over the pin. After you have finished filling the holes with thread, draw out your pin and wind the thread round and round beneath the button. That makes a compact stem to sustain the possible pulling and wear of the button hole. It is no exaggeration to say that my buttons never come off, and I'm sure yours won't if you will follow my method of sewing."

JUDGE LOWELL TALKED OREGON POLITICS

Told Walla Walla Reporter Scott or Fulton Most Likely to be Senator.

"In my opinion either Harvey Scott or C. W. Fulton will be Oregon's next representative in the United States senate." While discussing the political situation in Oregon, Judge Stephen A. Lowell made the above statement to a reporter for the Walla Walla Union.

"The defeat of Simon leaves politics in rather a chaotic state at the present time," he said, "and has placed a number of new men at the head of affairs. Just who will get the nomination for governor is a hard matter to decide and we will better know later, after that question after the convention. In all there are about 250 delegates to the state convention. Multnomah county, with her 67 delegates is practically in control.

"The chances for the gubernatorial chair are favorable to William M. Cake, present county judge of Multnomah county. However, the carrying of his own county, Marion, by Governor Geer, will greatly aid the latter, and if a majority of the Multnomah delegation stand for him he will no doubt get the nomination. One, thing, I think, is almost certain, the republican nominee for governor will not be an eastern Oregon man.

"The political aspect of the state is largely a geographical one. What Portland and the Willamette say counts for much. The people of the valley do not recognize the importance of the eastern Oregon counties as they should. The east and south is still sparsely settled and necessarily the residents are not in touch with the situations as are the Webfooters. Portland as the business and political center, therefore, exerts more influence than she is justly entitled to."

Practically Starving.

"After using a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure my wife received perfect and permanent relief from a severe and chronic case of stomach trouble," says J. R. Holly, real estate, insurance and loan agent, of Macomb, Ill. "Before using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she could not eat an ordinary meal without intense suffering. She is now entirely cured. Several physicians and many remedies had failed to give relief." You don't have to diet. Eat any good food you want, but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will always digest it for you. Tallman & Co. & Brock & McComas.

Woodcraft's Willing Workers.

Daphne Circle, Women of Woodcraft, will meet tonight. The attendance will undoubtedly be very large, as full reports from all sub-committees in connection with the log-rolling are expected. The general executive committee itself will meet in the offices of Stillman & Pierce this evening. A special report from the hall and grounds committee will be made, and a decision reached on that very important part of the program. It is desired that there be a full meeting of the committee, as this and other matters of great importance will come up and a full expression of opinion is desired.

OPINIONS OF TWO

SALEM JOURNAL TALKS SOME POLITICS.

Figures Furnish Was a Big Element in Portland Fight—Possibly a Democratic Governor.

The Salem Journal, favorable to Geer, says:

"The Multnomah republican county convention, held today, will make political history in Oregon. As the Journal understands the situation, Mr. Furnish and his friends who are largely administration republicans, have carried the fight against a hard fight put up by Mr. Simon.

"Mr. Simon is making his own fight through the regular republican central committee, of which O. P. H. Plummer is chairman. Mr. Furnish, and his friends have carried a majority of the primaries, and that was undoubtedly accomplished by a great expenditure of money.

"If that is true, they will demand the enforcement of the majority rule and will force their claims to a solid delegation for Furnish for governor, and against Simon for senator.

"The managers of the anti-Simon republican faction have picked on Editor Scott for senator in place of Simon. Portland will also ask Willis Duniway for state printer.

"Can Portland get Scott for senator and Duniway for state printer? Well, hardly.

"It may be that Corbett and Hirsch will have some delegates in the convention and may throw them to Simon; may name Corbett for governor and throw the senatorship to Simon or Fulton.

"If Furnish gets the state delegation Williamson will be congressman and Duniway state printer.

"If Geer is not nominated, Frank Wrightman will go on the state ticket for attorney-general.

"The Journal does not believe that Furnish has clear sailing for the governorship, or that he will get a solid delegation from Multnomah county.

"The situation warrants the saying that Geer and Simon hold cards in the game that makes it very uncertain who will be governor or senator. But the Portland convention will clear up the situation, or make it more uncertain than ever.

"If Multnomah does not take decisive action one way or the other, for Geer or Furnish, the state convention will break in two.

"It will break in two if it nominates a candidate for senator to succeed Simon.

"Dr. Plummer and his county committee will claim to hold the regular organization.

"Out of all this chaos it is possible to elect a democratic governor. The political tradition of the state has been unbroken that no republican governor has succeeded himself."

JAKE ROBBINS BUSY.

Therefore he Cannot Run for the Legislature.

J. H. Robbins, says the Baker City Herald, president of the First bank of Sumpter, treasurer of the $3,000,000 Red Boy, Concord consolidated mines, president of the $1,000,000 Oregon Monarch company, mayor of Sumpter, holder of a $300,000 option on the Golconda mine, heavily interested in Colorado oil lands, and generally a mighty fine man personally, is in the city today accompanied by his wife. They are quartered at the Geiser Grand. Mr. Robbins is being boomed for state representative on the democratic ticket, but the Sumpter Miner says that "here, again, it is proven that the loving, jealous mistress, mining, brooks no rival in her warm ardent affections;" that Mr. Robbins has "been down the road, so busy landing another big mining deal that he hasn't even had time to veto those salary reduction ordinances—much less wasting precious moments monkeying with a Jim crow job as a democratic member of a republican legislature that has a United States senator to elect. If Mr. Robbins can't be induced to run, it is quite within the province of the possible that Rev. J. R. N. Bell will be the man selected to defeat some good republican."

Representative Tongue presented to the president Jefferson Myers, of Salem, his wife, Breyman, of Salem, her daughter, Mrs. Prael, of Portland and sister, Mrs. White, of Tillamook county. As they were shaking hands with the president Mrs. White remarked that she and her sister crossed the plains to Oregon in 1854. This aroused the president's interest and he reopened the conversation, chatting for some time with the pioneer, and expressing his admiration for the people who settled the West, and particularly Oregon.

Advertising.

We may live without poetry, music and art, We may live without conscience and live without heart; We may live without friends, and live without fads, But business today cannot live without ads. —The Country Merchant.
