ON PALM SUNDAY

CHURCHES OBSERVED
 THE DAY IN PENDLETON.

There Were Confirmations and Music —Bishop of Spokane Was Here at the Church of the Redeemer—Bert Carl Sang a Solo.

March 23 was Palm Sunday, and as such was observed by the Episcopal Lutheran and Catholic churches. At the first, the bishop of Spokane, the Rev. Lemuel Wells, was present in the evening, preached a sermon, and administered the rite of confirmation.
 It was a thoughtful, simple, helpful talk, and was appropriate to the occasion. Mr. Bert Carl sang "The Palms," Faure, with Miss Raley at the organ. Mr. Carl has recently undergone an operation upon the throat of which some effects are felt. But his solo was an usual evidence of an exceptional voice with wonderful possibilities. He will sing in the Easter services next Sunday. Bishop Wells remains in the city, and will speak to the Women's Auxiliaries this evening in the Church of the Redeemer.
 The class confirmed at the evening service was: Misses Francel Duncan, May Maud Sheridan, Leone Sheridan, Josephine R. Cameron, Edith E. Johnson, Clara L. Boylen, Nell I. Warner, Harold Warner, Amos L. Turner, Mrs. Louisa B. Turner.

German Lutheran Church.

Yesterday the confirmation of this year's catechetical class took place at the German Lutheran church, north of Pendleton. They were the following young people, Henry Breeding, Marcus Struve, Fred Feddler, Dora Rhode, Emma Fedeler, Corcille Bred-ing. The class has been under instructions since November last and prior to their confirmation passed a favorable examination before the assembled congregation. The church was nicely decorated in honor of the occasion, and the services, which lasted for three hours, were closely followed by a large and attentive audience. Among them were some visitors from Pendleton and a number of American and Finnish neighbors.
 A photographer was present and took the picture of the class after the services had closed.

Next Sunday, Easter services will be held at the Lutheran church, at which occasion the young people will celebrate their first communion.

The Rev. H. W. Voigt is pastor.

Baptist Church Repairs.

The remodeling work on the First Baptist church, at the corner of Alta and Johnson streets, will be completed and the first services held there in the first Sunday in April. At 11 a. m. the second Sunday in April, the new church will be dedicated. Dr.
 Alexander Blackburn, of the First church of Portland, will be here and preach the dedicatory services. When completed, the Baptist people will have almost a new church out and out, the only part of the old structure that is being left intact being the two class rooms at the rear of the building. The other part is all being remodeled and it will present a much nicer appearance on the outside, as well as the inside, than before, and the seating capacity will be double.
 A room 20x30 has been added to the west side of the structure, bringing it out to Johnson street, and the entrance will be in the corner with the tower over the entrance. The pulpit will be on the east side with the bat-tistry and dressing rooms back of it built off on that side. These rooms will be used as class rooms for the Sunday school and the room on the west will have drop doors to shut it off from the main building, making six different class rooms by a partition through the center of it, beside the main room. The building will be heated by a furnace.

Walla Walla Confirmation.

Walla Walla, March 24.—Yesterday morning special confirmation services were conducted at the Episcopal church, Bishop Wells, of Spokane, presiding, and a class of 18 was confirmed according to the service of the church. A large congregation was in attendance. The class consisted of J. R. Berryman, Joseph Merchant, John Leahy, Jr., D. C.
 Earp, Fred L. Earp, Misses Minnie Baker, Margaret Garfield, Edith Chapman, Mabel Chapman, Ruth Stone, Mayme Paine, Louise Walker, Louise Chamberlain, Lucy Dorwin, Hazel Rofhead, Winnie Rofhead, Darlie Dodd, Ruth Ridgway.

St. Paul's New Church.

Walla Walla, March 24.—The board of trustees of St. Paul's Episcopal church on Saturday evening let the contract for the construction of the new edifice to E. G. Cox, the consideration being about $11,000 for the building and heating plant. The church will be erected near St. Paul's school, on Catherine street, and will be built of stone and brick. It will be ready for use by September 1.

Millers' National Federation.

Chicago, March 24.—Representatives of the state millers' association throughout the country are gathering in Chicago to complete the organization of a national federation which was launched at a preliminary meeting held here last month. The movement so far has met with success and the new organization is expected to do a great deal towards furthering the interests of the millers.

 The Minneapolis milling interests, which at first held out against the combination, are reported now in favor of the idea. Other recent endorsements of the federation come from the Michigan millers, the Delaware Valley and Pennsylvania Miller's association, and the Virginia Valley millers' association.

His Debut as an Actor.

Frank J. McIntyre was a newspaper man in Ann Arbor, Mich., before he became an actor. He began as a "cub" reporter while still a student in Michigan university and finally advanced until the editor left him in charge of the paper on one occasion when he took a trip to Detroit.

Two important local items were to be printed, one relating the sad demise of a young man of prominent family, the other telling how a traveling salesman had jumped his board bill at a local hotel. "Mac" had to write the headlines for these stories, and, after scratching his head, he evolved "Passed Away Quietly" for the obituary story and "Jumped His Board Bill" for the hotel beat. "Mac" was proud of his achievement and, lighting a big cigar, leaned back in his chair and began to realize how it feels to be an editor.

The man who "made up" the paper scanned the headings, transposed them, and the friends and relatives of the deceased read that he had "Jumped His Board Bill," and the bereaved landlord learned that his late guest had Autumn Haze.

"Autumn haze," says a meteorological expert, "is dust composed of the finest particles of soil, dead leaves, smoke or ashes from wood fires, salt from ocean spray, the shells or scales from microscopic siliceous diatoms, germs of fungi, spores of ferns, pollen of flowers, etc. In the still air of damp nights these dust particles settle slowly down, and the morning air is comparatively clear. During the daylight the sun warms the soil, which heats the adjacent air, and the rising air currents carry up the dust as high as they go.
 Under certain conditions this layer of dust reaches higher and higher each day. During long, dry summers in India it reaches to a height of 7,000 feet, with a well defined upper surface that is higher in the daytime than at night.
 The reason why we have more of hazy weather in autumn is because there is then less horizontal wind and more rising air."

HEART TO HEART TALK.

It is not everyone that knows all about the best in shoes. To those who do and do not, we offer our services.
 There can be no doubt but that the shoe department of "The Big Store" is on a par with the best of shoe concerns. Let us enumerate a few of the leading favorites that claim the public attention and prove the worth of these claims:

THE DOUGLAS SHOE for men at three, three fifty and four dollars is a line of unequalled merit. Most of the line sells at $3.50, the acknowledged price at which the greatest amount of service, style and comfort is concentrated per dollars worth. Our business last year was beyond our expectations and the demand is growing every month. The shoe makers are assuring us that a Douglas shoe is worth new soles, while most other makes are not. We would sell more pairs if they did not wear so long.

The ladies "GLORIA" $3.50 shoe is a new-comer from the East. It has, however, been out here long enough to establish an enviable reputation.
 Remember they are new styles, as we have not had them long. We only bought the newest and best and are introducing them to the people of this community and hope they will prove as welcome as they have in Portland, San Francisco and Seattle.

The Red School House Shoes (made under new management) is greatly improved and is meeting with a successful sale. They come in three weights and styles, in all sizes and widths.

At the $2.50 price there is here a large and varied line of shoes for boys and girls, ladies and gentlemen.
 We are striving to show the people of this vicinity that we are the greatest $2.50 and $3.50 shoe concern in Eastern Oregon.
