QUALITY DECIDES.

What Is the Secret?

How is a successful business built up? The woods are full of people crying: "I have the Cheapest." One man can sell the cheapest suits; one man has the cheapest waists; another advertises the cheapest skirts, and so on. This is NOT the Secret. The secret of building up a successful business is to give The Best and not the cheapest. In every department it is our aim to give the best value that the money you have can buy. How many people want the cheapest thing they can get in any line? Very few—we can give you the best TAILOR MADE SUIT in the city for $10 and if you want better ones the store is full of them.

HER HUSBAND LOST IN JOHNSTOWN FLOOD.

Mrs. Wilhelm Goes Insane in Walla Walla—Fernandez Also Committed.

Walla Walla, March 25.—This morning Sheriff Kees left for Medical Lake with two patients for the insane hospital located there. The patients were Mrs. Tillie Wilhelm and John Fernandez, both of this city, committed yesterday.

Mrs. Wilhelm lost her husband in the Johnstown flood several years ago, after which she drifted westward, locating in this city. The awful calamity unbalanced her mind and for some time signs of insanity have been noticed. She has a daughter 12 years old.

Fernandez was a telegraph operator well known in many towns in the Northwest. Epileptic fits, attacked him several years ago, and finally his mind gave way.

(Fernandez is a brother of Manuel Fernandez, the latter being formerly a telegraph operator under Manager Krause in Pendleton, at the Western Union office.)

FRUIT FAIR OFFICERS.

Walla Walla Continues Same Officiary for Next Year.

Walla Walla, March 25.—At a mass meeting yesterday afternoon at the city hall, the officers of the Walla Walla Fruit Fair were re-elected for another year, making the fifth consecutive election of the executive officers of the fair by the people of Walla Walla. In fact, since the fair was first established, the personnel of the officers has been changed but little, if any. The officers are: President, W. A. Ritz; secretary, C. E. Vandewater; treasurer, W. P. McKean; executive committee, C. W. Whitehouse, George J. Ludwigs, W. P. McKean and Chris Ennis. Under the management of these men, five fairs have been held, and at this time about $1000 is in the treasury to begin operations for the fair to be held this fall.

The meeting took up the matter of permanent location for the fair, and a committee was appointed to ascertain what can be done in the way of purchasing a plot of ground near the business center upon which the fair buildings can be erected. The committee consists of George Ludwigs, W. P. McKean and Ralph Guichard. It is proposed to add new features to the fair this year, and a livestock show is under consideration. If the stock can be had without too heavy an expense, the management will likely prepare for this addition to the attractions.

WESTON'S BRICK INDUSTRY.

Output is Nearly 3,000,000 in a Season.

Weston, March 25.—H. B. Nelson will begin work in his brick ward for the season's run tomorrow, with a force of 35 men. This brick yard, which is Weston's principal industry, turns out from two to three million brick yearly and employs from 30 to 50 men at good wages, for about nine months each season. In quality, the Weston brick stand in the first class, and the demand for them is increasing all the time. Last year the sales reached the two million mark and the average price of $7 per 1000. This year the outlook is better still. The manager told your correspondent today that everything pointed to a large increase of business over last year.

Norvel Bradley, the genial proprietor of the Marshall House, returned Saturday from a trip to Franklin county, Washington, where he has been locating a homestead.

State Senator Proebstel returned from Portland this morning, where he has been spending several days looking after business interests. He reports the business outlook for the season as very good.

The Odd Fellows' Lodge of Weston is planning to build a new fence on the east side of their cemetery, and also make some other improvements on the property.

Sattling & Young are making some improvements on the Marshall House property this week.

MULTNOMAH CAMP'S TEAM.

Among the uniformed teams which will publicly give exhibitions in fancy military drills in the big log-rolling, will be the celebrated team of Multnomah Camp, No. 77, of Portland, Captain J. C. Jones, commanding. This is one of the best drilled bodies of men in fancy military tactics in the west, and their exhibition will unquestionably be a leading event of the great conclave. The team is composed of the captain and following 16 men: William M. Oliver, C. E. Crabill, H. G. Green, W. W. Lumsden, L. S. Dane, L. Rivers, W. J. Marshall, J. A. McDonald, H. Isaacs, E. H. Bennett, H. J. Crabill, W. H. Munns, J. P. Kreuder, F. W. Faber, S. H. Griffith, T. J. Kreuder.

from a ladder while working on the Marshall House last week, injuring his left arm severely. He is about again today, but it will be several days before he will be able to do full time.

Mrs. Mary E. May, who lately moved to Weston, died from the effects of a stroke of paralysis yesterday morning. The deceased was a native of Missouri, 51 years old and leaves a husband, one son and three daughters. The funeral services were held at 5 o'clock p. m. yesterday, the interment being at Weston cemetery.

HELIX NOTES.

County Commissioner Walker in a Hardware Store.

Helix, March 25.—Horace Walker, the county commissioner, has taken a position with Pete Sones, the hardware merchant.

Miss Bessie Raymond, of Vansycle, is visiting Miss Julia Pierce, of this city.

Mrs. Pete Sones and Mrs. Smith went to Warren last week to visit Grandma Myrick, who has been very ill, but is slowly improving.

Charles Alspach has returned from Portland, where he spent the past week.

The Misses Nellie and Lulu Stanton went to Pendleton to visit their mother, who is sick, at the hospital, under the care of Dr. Smith.

The Woodmen of the World gave a splendid talk at Huson's opera house Saturday evening.

The Helix band is making great preparations to attend to log-rolling, which is to take place in Pendleton.

The young son of John Myrick, while riding a horse a few days ago, was thrown from the animal and his arm broken. Dr. Griswold was the attending physician.

The farmers are busy reseeding their wheat. It is all looking well, owing to the backward spring.

The residents of Helix are repairing and painting their houses, which is a great improvement to the little village.

Mr. Stewart, of Milton, is visiting his daughter, of this city, Mrs. Frank Richmond.

EASTER DECORATIONS.

Koeppen Brothers Have a Very Fine Window.

As a reminder that Easter Sunday is coming, some of the windows of the business houses are being decorated for the occasion. One that deserves special attention is the east window of Koeppen Bros' drug store on Court street. It is decorated with a background of green covered with white lilies and the bottom is laid thick with bottles of perfume and bon bon boxes, showing the many kinds they keep in stock. The work is very artistic and attracts much favorable comment from passers by.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received up to noon, March 29th, 1903, for erection and completion of a one-story cottage for William Roberts, to be built just east of county bridge, in East Pendleton, 1 1/2 miles from court house. Plans and specifications at Thompson Hardware Co.'s store.

their bid being found to be the lowest for the work. The excavation is completed for the foundation and the stone and brick work will commence about the first of April. It will then be pushed as fast as possible and the contractors aim to have it ready for occupancy within 60 days from that time.

Breeding Jacks for Sale.

I offer for sale two extra fine breeding Jacks of fine disposition. Will sell one or both to one party, on easy terms for the next thirty days. Can be seen on my stock farm 10 miles north of Heppner. Surely a bargain. B. F. Swaggart, Heppner, Ore.
