Pendleton Wheat Buyer Explains the Matter.

In speaking of the wheat conditions of this country, the Walla Walla Statesman, in a recent issue, said: A puzzling question to Walla Walla farmers is how can a Pendleton wheat buyer pay more for wheat than the local dealers. A case of this kind came to notice yesterday when a Pendleton dealer offered a Walla Walla man a cent better price for wheat just across the line in Umatilla county, than the local dealers were willing to pay.

"This puzzling question to the Statesman is easily explained," said a local wheat dealer yesterday. "There is no reason why a Pendleton buyer should offer more for wheat than the Walla Walla dealer, for there is no advantage in either place. Many times one man is very anxious to buy wheat and will offer a cent more than his competitor, just because he wants the grain and wants it badly. He is not going to buy at a loss to himself or his company, but will sacrifice the profit in order to get a certain lot of wheat. Again, this instance spoken of might have been a lot of wheat that was wanted for home consumption, and was purchased for some flouring mill firm in the vicinity. The mill might have thought it was going to run short of grain and was anxious to secure more. The mills usually pay from a half to a cent more for wheat than the exporter. These are the explanations I think I am right."

It was also stated further by the dealer that in a great many instances the farmers got erroneous ideas as to the price of wheat in the two places. Some men would hear that wheat was a cent higher in Walla Walla than here and come to the local dealer and complain because he would not offer more. They would think that the dealer was trying to "job" them. In some instances farmers near the state line have been under this impression and have gone from here to Walla Walla to sell. When they arrived there they found that the dealers would not offer more than they had been offered here.

$100 Dollars Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Sunday School Workers Rally.

Greenwood, S. C., March 25.—Sunday school workers from all parts of the state are rallying in force for the silver jubilee convention of the South Carolina Sunday School association, which will be in session here during the coming two days. The gathering will be formally opened in the Presbyterian church this morning with an address of welcome by J. R. Leavell, to which suitable response on behalf of the association will be made by President George B. Cromer. The feature of the evening will be an address on "Organized Sunday School Work in America," by Charles D. Meigs, of Indiana, representing the international association. For the succeeding sessions of the convention an attractive program of papers, discussions, addresses and music has been arranged. Elaborate entertainment has been provided by the citizens of Greenwood for the visitors, of whom several hundred are expected.

For Benefit of Bryn Mawr. New York, March 25.—Society is much interested in the concert to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria this evening for the benefit of the Bryn Mawr College library fund. Mme. Suzanne Adams, Leo Stern and David Bispham will take part.

What It Is.

Advertising is the life blood of the business world today, and well directed advertising is like the powerful searchlight of a river steamer, thrown upon a distant cottage on the bank, cutting it out like a picture painted on a black canvas. The fluid buyer and the prospective industry will follow the rays of the searchlight of publicity, just as surely as will the eyes of the steamer's passengers follow the light thrown from their vessel. They will not search the surrounding gloom for objects of interest when a beautiful picture is clearly shown before them. Prospective buyers will not search the surrounding gloom for your competitors if the searchlight of publicity is turned on your own place of business.—Canastota (N. Y.) Bee.
